

WENTWORTH MILITARY ACADEMY

ESTABLISHED 1880 — LEXINGTON, MO.

HIGH SCHOOL AND JUNIOR COLLEGE

WENTWORTH'S PURPOSE

It is the purpose of Wentworth Military Academy to provide the best conditions possible for the all 'round development of worthy boys and young men.

To attain this high purpose, the Academy places greatest emphasis upon these four points:

First, it is the Academy's aim to assemble only the highest types of students—deserving youths of good parentage—to assure wholesome associations and greater progress. Every precaution is taken to keep undesirable boys—all those that might prove detrimental to others—out of the Academy.

Second, to employ only men of highest character and ability for its faculty. It is not enough for a Wentworth faculty member to be merely a scholar and a splendid instructor. He must also possess a spirit of friendliness and a sincere desire to give kindly help whenever necessary. He must thoroughly understand the innermost problems of boys—be patient with them—and be ready to serve each boy to the best of his ability.

Third, to provide the very best equipment throughout every department to the end that every boy will have all those things necessary to his health and happiness and that none shall want for anything that will help him to make progress.

Fourth, to provide a program for each day that will best serve the interests of every student.

*Colonel James M. Sellers, A. B.,
Superintendent.

Wentworth 1912, University of Chicago, A. B. 1917, Phi Beta Kappa 1916; Sigma Xi; Beta Theta Pi; Major U. S. Marine Reserve 1917-1920; Distinguished Service Cross; Navy Cross; Silver Star; Purple Heart; Croix-de-Guerre; Past President of Association of Military Colleges and Schools of the United States; Officer in Grand Lodge and Grand Commanderies of Missouri.

From the beginning the late President Sellers surrounded himself with the ablest faculty available—strong men of proved qualities and Christian character. Under his wise and forward-looking direction, Wentworth has grown steadily. Each year has shown marked improvement over the preceding year. Today Wentworth stands as one of the truly great educational institutions of our country—second to none in the opportunities it offers boys and young men for thorough preparation for professional studies, business and for life.

SINCE EIGHTEEN EIGHTY

One of the chief reasons why Wentworth has been able to achieve its lofty purpose lies in the fact that the Academy has been under one continuous administration since its founding. For nearly three-score years, Colonel Sanford Sellers was president of Wentworth. He enjoyed one of the most enviable records in the history of American education.

The Academy was founded by Stephen G. Wentworth, scion of a distinguished English family and a prominent Lexington banker, in 1880, as a memorial to his deceased son, William Wentworth. Mr. Wentworth immediately vested control of the institution in the hands of a board of trustees composed of a duly elected representative of each of the Evangelical churches of Lexington, and a president. Colonel Sellers was called to the new school in its first year and remained as its active head until 1938. Mr. Wentworth served as president of the Board from 1880 until his death in 1897.

It was the firm conviction of the founder, his board of trustees and President Sellers that a military boarding school provides the most effective possible means for giving young men the thorough mental, moral and physical training necessary to develop in them the highest traits of manhood. Thus, Wentworth became the first military school in the Missouri River Valley.

AN HISTORIC BACKGROUND

Throughout over half a century the Wentworth purpose has remained unchanged. The ideals which led to the Academy's founding and which have carried it steadily forward, shine just as brightly today as ever; the desire to give each youth every opportunity to develop fully his own individual personality; the aim that every cadet shall acquire a keen sense of duty and responsibility, both to himself and toward others; that he shall have the mental and moral power to make accurate judgments between right and wrong and the physical power to stand by his convictions.

These high standards have dominated Wentworth for generations. But to maintain them and assure their full and continuous application, it has been found necessary to limit the enrollment. Wentworth today is a relatively small school—many times larger than in 1880, to be sure, yet small enough that every individual student is given the private attention so essential to his all-round development.

The surrounding country affords a wealth of historically important Civil War sites and the town of Lexington itself retains much of the tradition of the old south. Here enthusiasm for the reminders of our country's glorious past is combined with the enthusiasm for modern adventure to promote the rapid development of the boy's mental, moral and physical resources.

YESTERDAY

Above is pictured the first company ever assembled at Wentworth. From this humble beginning, the Academy has marched forward over a trail of development that has placed it in the front rank of America's best military schools.

and TODAY

The Wentworth Military Academy of today is vastly different from the Wentworth of 1880. From year to year it has enlarged its facilities, increased its enrollment and changed its physical appearance until there is little to remind one of the early days. Numerous modern and attractive buildings have been erected as they were needed. Old buildings have been torn away when they were no longer useful. Spacious military and athletic fields have been added. One of the finest gymnasiums in the country has been built. Every new method in teaching that has been found definitely superior to older methods has been adopted. Yet, some of the fundamental principles that guided the first company are adhered to just as strictly today.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT

MILITARY training at Wentworth has always been a strong feature, but it is never permitted to interfere with the scholastic work of the Academy. It can be shown, moreover, that military discipline has a decidedly advantageous effect upon classroom work.

In recognition of the superior military work done at Wentworth, in 1889 the Academy became a post of the Missouri National Guard. Graduates of the Academy who resided in Missouri, became eligible for commissions in this organization.

Wentworth has been under the direct supervision of the War Department of the United States Government since 1895, when the first active army officer was detailed to the Academy. Now 3 officers, 4 non-commissioned officers and one civilian assistant are in charge of military instruction. In addition, the War Department furnishes around $50,000 worth of equipment to be used for instruction purposes. Wentworth is one of the original Honor Schools of the United States, the highest rating given by the War Department. The Academy has been a unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps from the time that organization was established.

* This monument, erected on the campus by the Alumni Association, to the memory of Wentworth cadets who died in the World War No. I, typifies the loyal spirit of generations of former Wentworth cadets.

* Patriotism is no sham at Wentworth. Every cadet is taught the real meaning of our flag. Each day, with appropriate ceremonies, the Stars and Stripes are raised and lowered on the towering flag pole.

The cadet whose face shows under the curve of the flag is now Ex-Lt. Wm. Bates, who flew a bomber in the European theater of operations; controlling the flag ropes is Kenneth Winters, late of the Navy. The bugler is the former Lieut. Max Condron.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Within Wentworth's Administration Building are handsomely furnished parlors, corridors and reception rooms. Among its furnishings and decorations students and guests alike find many articles of interest and rare beauty. Its comfortable furnishings amid peaceful surroundings afford a homelike atmosphere where the new cadet readily adapts himself to a wholesome, happy experience. Here in an atmosphere of quiet dignity, every student is privileged to entertain his guests or to spend his leisure moments as governed by his daily schedule. None of the comforts of the modern home have been excluded in Wentworth's plan to provide the finest training and quarters available.

About the CAMPUS

* Marine Hall.

Nature and man have joined forces at Wentworth to produce a campus of outstanding beauty. Magnificent trees, of many varieties, blend in perfect harmony with modern, attractive buildings and spacious grounds. The Academy is located just at the edge of Lexington and covers 52 acres. The front campus extends over four city blocks and is dotted with massive elms and glorious flower banks that provide enchantment and inspiration. The back campus includes athletic and military fields and the new stadium. There are eight thoroughly modern buildings on the campus, each built for the exact purpose it serves. They are of brick and stone construction and are heated by steam and hot water.

* In the shade of the elms.

THE WENTWORTH COUNTRY CLUB

Located on one of the most beautiful spots overlooking the Missouri River, the Golf Course and Country Club add variety to the many facilities available to the Wentworth students. The nine-hole golf course is most attractive and sporty. The club house, with its catering equipment, is ideal for many informal parties held throughout the year. And in the stable are found horses suitable for the tyro as well as the expert rider.

* Teeing Up

* Two stylish mounts. Every Wentworth student will ride.

* Interior of the Club House—available for many informal gatherings.

* One of the spacious, well lighted and immaculate corridors in the Sellers-Wikoff Scholastic Building.

SCHOLASTIC

Wentworth's new $80,000 Sellers-Wikoff Scholastic Building is the nucleus of the scholastic department. This magnificent structure contains one of the most splendid libraries possessed by any institution of this kind. Four completely equipped laboratories provide excellent facilities for the practical study of the sciences. In addition to classrooms for all classes, it houses the Dean's and Commandant's offices. It is with justifiable pride that Wentworth points to this new achievement in its effort to provide surroundings which are conducive to academic advancement.

* The attractive library contains thousands of volumes, providing every necessary supplement to the student's texts and manuals.

* Visual Aids are being used to a great extent to supplement lectures by instructors. The Academy has the best equipment available and has established a liberal budget for rental of motion pictures for class work.

★ Sellers-Wikoff Scholastic Building.

★ Geology is a science of particular interest to boys of the Midwest.

DEPARTMENT

The scholastic department is divided into two separate and distinct units: the high school, which offers four years of preparatory work, and the junior college, which offers two years of liberal arts and science. Each has its own organization separate from the other. Both divisions are fully accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, an organization composed of the leading colleges and preparatory schools in twenty states. This recognition means that graduates of either department are eligible to enter any institution in the United States that receives students by certification.

It is our aim to see that each cadet masters every lesson thoroughly. To accomplish this, every student is taught correct study methods and thoroughly schooled in correct uses of libraries and laboratories. Classes are small, averaging from 8 to 15 students, which permits individual attention. Most of the faculty members live in the buildings with students. They are readily accessible for special help. From time to time a personal study is made of each cadet to determine his points of weakness and help him overcome them.

★ The laboratory for elementary classes in chemistry provides many costly instruments not provided for in many schools but which Wentworth believes are important to the proper study of chemistry.

★ The laboratory for the advanced chemistry classes is even more completely equipped.

A RECENT AVIATION FLIGHT TRAINING GROUP

AVIATION

Wentworth participated in the Civil Aeronautics Administration Civilian Pilot Training Program from its inception in 1939 through the change to C. A. A. War Training Service until June, 1943, when all but 80 out of 712 colleges and universities throughout the country were eliminated due to curtailment of this type of training. However, the academy administration, believing aviation training to be very important now and in the future to the youth of the nation, secured permission from C. A. A. officials to continue flight training on a civilian basis and at the expense of the trainees.

Wentworth operates in conjunction with the Lexington Airport as a certified flying school fully approved by the C.A.A. The flight training program including ground school, far surpasses the minimum requirements set forth by the civil aeronautics administration. It consists of instruction in both dual and solo flight time and ground school courses in navigation, meteorology, civil air regulations, and operation of aircraft.

The records of the graduates of the Wentworth Flight Training are outstanding. During the war the graduates of this training program fought on every front where Americans were in combat.

A DAY

AT WENTWORTH

NO TWO days at Wentworth are quite the same, for a widely varied program of scholastic, military, athletic and other activities is used to keep the interest of the cadets at high pitch and their appetites for learning well whetted. Furthermore, no two students have quite the same duties to perform throughout any given day. There is, however, a definite routine that all cadets follow each day. It is used to instill perfect regularity and promptness in attendance upon all duties prescribed for one and all cadets alike.

While it requires some adjustments for new students to become accustomed to this routine, any slight hint of monotony is soon lost in the kaleidoscopic whirl of the school year.

To give parents and others a better insight, the following pages have been used to set forth, pictorially, the day's activities from Reveille to Taps, of a typical Wentworth boy whom we will designate as Cadet Harlan.

The pictures in this section were taken fifteen years ago. However, since they illustrate life at Wentworth of today, they are still timely. They are retained because so many of the cadets shown served in the Armed Forces of their country and so well illustrate the value of military training as received while at Wentworth.

Since the importance of military preparedness is becoming increasingly evident by the changing world situation, the training illustrated in this picture section has a special significance.

There have been some uniform changes as may be seen by referring to the section on Wentworth uniforms.

★ Harlan—a typical Wentworth cadet.

HERE is Harlan, a typical Wentworth cadet—a fine young American—manly, scholarly and upright. His respect for duty and responsibility has won for him the rank of sergeant. He may have come from a large city or a very small town—that makes no difference to the democratic spirit that prevails at Wentworth. He may be from a wealthy family or a family in meager circumstances—most of his classmates would never know, nor even be curious, unless he chose to tell them. But he typifies all the fine qualities of a deserving and ambitious youth as he goes through the tried and age-proved Wentworth process of becoming a real man, a real asset to himself, his family and friends, and society as a whole.

Harlan, like all the others, participates in many activities besides those shown. But let's follow him through a typical day.

★ ★ ★

Harlan "Butch" Heffelfinger, who graduated in the class of 1937 and posed as the model cadet in the view book, served as a Major in the last war.

His brother, Hugo, another Wentworth alumnus, also a Major, and served with distinction with the Rangers.

Artie Heffelfinger served with the Navy Air Corps as an Ensign.

* Harlan's first duty is a thorough, refreshing wash before breakfast.

"I CAN'T GET 'EM UP," blows the bugler, but he does, and at 6:35 o'clock another day is under way. Cadet Harlan goes first to the sanitary lavatory on his floor. A good washup is part of the routine, for a cadet is expected to keep himself clean at all times. At 6:50 he goes to a well-prepared breakfast.

After breakfast, rooms must be cleaned. One of the basic aims of our system is to form personal habits of order. Each morning Harlan makes his own bed, puts his clothes in order and helps his roommate clean the room.

* Harlan makes up his own bed.

Strict inspection of quarters is a daily routine. Formal inspection of Harlan's person, room and equipment occurs on Sunday morning. At this time unusual care must be taken in cleaning the room. Our friend sees that hidden corners are carefully dusted, chairs polished, and everything put in order. Then he takes care of his person. There's brass to shine, leather to polish, hair to brush, and whiskers to be removed. A certain time is allotted for this preparation and all work must be done within that time. This young fellow knows that any deficiency in this work receives what is known in Academy language as a "skin"—which counts against one's company in color competition.

* Harlan is ready for the inspector — brass gleaming, shoes shined—room as clean as the proverbial "hound's tooth."

* Here Harlan delves into things scientific. Modern equipment is provided for all laboratory work.

AT 8 O'CLOCK in the morning, classes convene. Harlan makes his way to a small class on his schedule where personal attention is his at any time it is needed. Our cadet is carefully instructed in the handling of delicate scientific equipment. He is not forced to grope blindly for information. That which is true of the science laboratories is equally true in all other classrooms.

Time passes rapidly in the classroom or laboratory because the work is interesting. The scholastic day is divided into two equal parts, with four classes in the morning and two in the afternoon.

* Our Cadet goes through a course of calisthenics to promote grace and health.

All the cadets shown in the picture were in the Armed Service.

CALISTHENICS play an important role in the physical education of Cadet Harlan. No effort is made to indulge in this or any other exercise in the early morning hours when the body is at its lowest ebb. All such exercises are taken by our cadet after a hearty breakfast and morning classes. The exercises are intended to promote graceful movement as well as better health. The calisthenics used by the United States Army are followed. They are led by senior cadet officers.

So long as the weather permits, the calisthenics are held in the open, but they are taken in the large gymnasium, where an entire battalion may take part at the same time, when rain or cold is in the air.

* The ten excellent tennis courts are always popular.

* Cadet Harlan reports to the Professor of Military Science and Tactics for drill duty.

Cadet Lieutenant Jack Ramsdell commanding the platoon shown in these two views, participated as an officer in the landing on North Africa. He was decorated with the Silver Star for heroism in action and Purple Heart.

DRILL is a very formal affair. It is on the drill field that Harlan learns much of courtesy, discipline and alertness. He, with his entire battalion, is thoroughly schooled in good citizenship; taught the proper respect for superiors and trained in leadership.

Learning to drill a squad is the first training in leadership. Throughout the year squad drill and competition is a part of the regular military routine. The squad is the smallest military unit and consists of nine to twelve men, two of whom are sergeants. All instruction is conducted by cadets under the personal supervision of members of the military faculty.

Although military work takes but one hour each day, the training is intensive and much more thorough than that found in larger units. Personal attention is given the individual cadet on the military field as well as in the classroom, and each cadet has an equal chance to advance to important positions in Wentworth's military realm. In the army, the navy and the marine corps Wentworth is glorified by its alumni who have received their commissions and are distinguishing themselves in official capacities of these respective branches of service.

Like many other cadets, Harlan finds the extended order drill more interesting. This drill consists of combat methods. He is taught to make use of cover, to advance and to fire. No actual firing is done during this drill, however, for all the ammunition used is dummy material. Initiative and leadership are required in this work. Situations arising in the problems furnished by the War Department call for quick thinking and immediate action.

Here our typical cadet finds extended order drill interesting and instructive.

The Cadet Officer using the field glasses was Captain Woodrow Wylie, U. S. Army, who participated in the fight on Bataan.

The cadet about to insert the cartridge in his rifle is Lieut. Colonel Milton Moran, U. S. Marine Air Corps. He has participated in considerable action in the South Pacific.

★ Eating — an always-popular "sport" with Harlan and his fellow cadets! Meal time is always a time for good food and good fellowship.

The Faculty Officer at the head of the table is now an aviation instructor on the West coast. Five of the cadets facing the camera were officers in the United States Army. Two of them were fliers.

FOLLOWING the morning classes comes lunch time and our cadet is ready to eat. Academy menus are always varied and pleasing. Meals are carefully planned to suit the needs of all cadets. They are healthful and nutritious and just what active, hard-working boys require. Meal times are at 7:00 in the morning, 12:10 and 6:10. This schedule is varied only on Sunday, when dinner becomes a more elaborate meal served at 12:30.

After dinner there is a recreation period during which Harlan and other cadets may do pretty much as they choose. The recreation room is a popular place at this time.

* Maybe Harlan is "behind the 8-ball" here! Like all other cadets he takes part in zestful competition in the recreation room.

* The television set in the recreation room enables cadets to enjoy their favorite programs.

THE recreation room proves a haven of rest, relaxation and zestful indoor competition. Pool, billiard and ping-pong tables are provided. A few try their hand at bridge, while others read, or relax in comfortable chairs.

* (Right) Our friend attends a chapel period, held twice each week.

* (Below) "We must get in there and fight!" says Harlan as he makes a short "pep" talk on the eve of a game.

CADET HARLAN attends interesting, informative and inspirational meetings in the chapel, immediately before lunch on Wednesdays and Saturdays. These meetings are conducted by the Academy Chaplain, but are not strictly religious. Travel talks, health lectures, scientific demonstrations and short sermons, presented by outstanding speakers, are frequently on the program. The service is opened with a hymn, prayer and responsive readings, and closed with the singing of "Wentworth," the Academy song.

"Pep" meetings, preceding important athletic contests, are also held in the chapel. These are always occasions of great fun. Students and faculty make rousing speeches. The cadet band furnishes gay, martial music and everyone anticipates the big game on the morrow. Athletic contests are important recreational events. Every cadet attends them.

* While a majority of the faculty members live in the barracks with cadets, some live in residences such as this on the campus.

* All shined up for Sunday inspection.

* Our Cadet receives personal attention from a faculty member in the library.

In this picture, the Tactical Officer, James Simmons, graduate of Wentworth, is now a Lieut. Col. in the United States Army. He participated in the capture of Attu and Kwejelein.

Next to him, Lieutenant Orman, paratrooper, who took part in the Sicilian campaign and the capture of Naples. On the right, Captain James L. Gist, Army Aviator.

PERSONAL attention is not confined to the classroom nor to the evening study periods. Harlan and many other cadets seek assistance in the spacious Academy library. The faculty officer in charge is always ready and willing to help any student, no matter what his problem. Whatever the subject, the faculty officer is qualified to give the guidance needed.

Wentworth's library is one of the most important places on the campus. It contains more than 8,000 books on nearly every subject one could imagine. Reference books include the famous Oxford English Dictionary and many sets of encyclopedias.

* Harlan plays football—and mighty well, too! No wonder! His uncle was an All-American at Yale.

* In winter months our boy turns his attention to basketball and other indoor sports.

TRAINING for leadership is important on the football field as well as everywhere else at Wentworth. More than fifty cadets answer the varsity call each year and large squads turn out for company teams. All players receive intensive training, both in the art of the game and in clean sportsmanship.

Football ranks as the number one sport, and the Red Dragon elevens are consistent winners. The fine spirit of players and corps is credited with being a strong determining factor in every contest.

In the winter months basketball comes into the spotlight. Again there are the varsity and company teams and a place for every cadet who desires to play. Home games are played in the spacious gymnasium where there are two courts and ample space for spectators.

Wentworth is a member of the Junior College Interstate conference, an athletic association numbering six schools as members. The Wentworth High School teams are members of the Pony Express Conference of Western Missouri. Almost every major and minor sports are on the Wentworth program—all played under competent coaches—and every cadet is required to participate.

* The gymnasium is 220 x 55 feet. It contains two regular basket ball courts, a large stage, a swimming pool 20 x 60 feet, locker rooms, showers and gymnastic equipment.

* Here our man-in-the-making is ready for his daily plunge in the pool.

THE sparkling, crystal-clear water of the swimming pool is inviting to cadets the year 'round. The pool is of regulation size (20x60) and is the scene of frequent water sports and aquatic meets. It is the purpose to teach every cadet to swim well. The water is warmed to a healthful temperature and kept pure by efficient filtration and chemical treatment.

* (Above) Hi-dee-ho! Harlan and his friends tune in a radio program during the recreation period immediately following the evening meal.

* The orchestra provides musical diversion both for members of the group and the corps.

* (Below) Perfect study conditions prevail in Harlan's room. (Note the latest type of reading lamp.)

Just before the evening study period is the favorite tune-in time for Cadet Harlan and other radio devotees. Permission to have a radio in the room is regarded a privilege, the abuse of which causes the student to lose this favor.

After thirty-five minutes of recreation following the supper hour, evening study is begun at 7 o'clock. Each cadet retires to his own room for a two-hour period of quiet. There is no stuffy, noisy hall in which cadets are confined. Instead, individual initiative is encouraged. Faculty officers are in constant attendance throughout the period, giving advice where it is needed and encouragement at all times.

Quiet descends and another day is ended for our busy cadet. Sleep . . . sweet, restful sleep.

TAPS, at which time all lights must be turned out and all cadets remain quiet, is sounded at 10 o'clock. The soft notes of the bugle call to close the activities of an eventful day and the peace of slumber envelops healthy young bodies until another dawn.

A well organized program of instruction in social usage is a required course for all students, and advanced classes are available for those who desire them.

Ease of manner in any situation thus becomes natural to a Wentworth Cadet. Many occasions such as these pictured here afford ample opportunity for the Cadets to practice their social graces.

WENTWORTH UNIFORMS

The Wentworth uniforms are made of the finest materials. Beautifully fitted, they are suitable for every occasion, and they include every item a cadet may need.

The purpose of this book has been to give you an accurate, but necessarily inadequate glimpse of the Wentworth Military Academy and cadet life. In order fully to appreciate the Academy, it will be necessary for you to visit the campus in person, see the beautiful grounds and buildings and meet members of the faculty. The Administration offices are open the year 'round and your visit will be welcomed at any time.

SUMMER SCHOOL—A military summer school and camp of 8 weeks duration begins in early June. Activities are divided equally between scholastic work and recreation. Instruction is on a tutorial basis and nearly any subject may be taken.

WENTWORTH FLYERS

This year's group of aviation cadets completed the thirteenth annual flight training program offered by the Academy. The aviation department operates in conjunction with the Picket-Haines Flying School at the Lexington airport, and is fully approved and certified by the CAA. The ground school classes were conducted at the Academy by Capt. S. V. Heghin and Capt. W. L. Stagner, director of aviation.

MEMORIES OF 1951-52

By JOE CADET

September 3—The new boys are arriving today and are getting oriented. It looks as if there will be a fine group of new boys here this year.

September 4—Today the new cadets are getting a sample of the military routine. It was a busy day for most of them.

September 5—The old boys are returning today and it is surely good to see so many old familiar faces again. I feel quite certain we are going to have a good year.

September 6—The new boys are learning new military drill today and the old boys are trying to remember how they did it last year.

September 7—Today we had our first scholastic classes. I surely like all of my instructors and I am anticipating a good year.

September 8—We had some talks today. The department heads had a few well-chosen words to express and clarify some misconceptions for the new boys.

September 9—Today is the first Sunday. Everyone is getting familiar with the churches which they shall attend the next few months.

September 10—The new boys have been here one week now and are getting fairly well settled. Although we haven't been here too long, time just flies on.

September 11—A football preview was presented before the public tonight, showing off the Junior College Red Dragons and the high school football teams.

September 12—Today is processing day. Medical and dental examinations and physical measurements were taken of all cadets.

September 13—I hit the jack pot in mail call today. I received two letters and a package from home.

September 14—Today was just a typical day; nothing particularly exciting happened.

September 15—We had two hours of drill this afternoon, practicing for our parade tomorrow afternoon.

September 16—The first Sunday dress parade was staged at 2:00 this afternoon. A similar parade will be held each Sunday afternoon this year. When the weather is good parades are held outdoors; when the weather is bad, the parades are held in the school's huge gymnasium.

September 17—Activity periods start today. Many clubs and organizations have been formed on the campus. I am a member of the stamp collector's club.

September 18—The marching band is beginning to shape up. Wentworth always has a fine band, and it looks as if this year will be no exception.

September 19—We had one hour of drill today. After that I had two classes. It surely was warm this afternoon both out on the drill field and in the class room.

September 20—We had our first pep meeting tonight after supper. A pep meeting such as this will be held before each home football game this year.

September 21—The first home game of the high school season was played here this evening against MMA. The college team traveled to Highland, Kansas, and won its game.

September 22—The first three weeks grading period ended today and all of the cadets are anxiously awaiting their three weeks grades.

September 23—Ballroom dancing classes began tonight with Mrs. Beth Hepler as instructor. This was the first in a series of ten lessons.

September 24—Dr. Purdom, guidance expert from the University of Michigan, is on the campus this week, trying to advise boys along vocational lines.

September 25—The etiquette classes for the new boys began today. Again, Mrs. Beth Hepler teaches this practical course.

September 26—"The Singing Marines," six young and talented musicians, entertained the corps today at the weekly assembly period.

September 27—The second edition of "The Trumpeter," the school newspaper, came out today. It is a fine example of a school newspaper.

September 28—The cadets had their first chance to witness the Junior College Red Dragons in action tonight as they played a fine football game. The high school squad went to St. Joe to play Lafayette High School.

September 29—The first school dance was held in the gym tonight. A nice crowd attended and everyone had an enjoyable time.

September 30—Three of us went to the show this afternoon. It was a thrilling who-dun-it. All cadets had permits tonight.

October 1—Colonel Wells threw a really hard test at us today in military class. He can surely think up difficult quizzes.

October 2—Everything was calm today; not much cooking in the way of excitement.

October 3—During my free time this afternoon, I went to the Country Club and played a little golf. I wasn't very good, but I had lots of fun.

October 4—Our high school team played Maur Hill High School of Atchison, Kansas, tonight, and won the game.

October 5—The Red Dragons traveled to Iola, Kansas, to play the Junior College team of that city. We won, again.

October 6—I caught up on my letter writing today. I owed three letters. Hope my parents understand that I have been busy.

October 7—"A" Company won parade honors today. They really looked sharp.

October 8—With two tests tomorrow, I had a lot of studying to do this evening.

October 9—We went to the show tonight and saw a real exciting shoot-em-up cowboy movie.

October 10—Thirty-five cadets have been recommended for admission to the academy's Honor Society, according to Major Brown.

October 11—The academy's dance band is coming into shape now. They really sound fine.

October 12—Our high school plays Central High School of St. Joe here, and it will surely be an exciting game. Captain Whisler has a fine team.

October 13—The band went to Kansas City to march in the American Royal parade. It was a long parade and the boys had lots of fun.

October 14—After parade today, I took some pictures around the campus. It is surely pretty this time of the year.

October 15—A faculty supper party was attended by sixty-five faculty officers and their wives at the Country Club tonight.

October 16—It was an unusually hot day for this time of the year, but there won't be many days like this left.

October 17—Mr. Robert Mildram was the speaker at our assembly program this morning. He delivered a very interesting address.

October 18—I watched television tonight and saw some real fine shows. Television is really fascinating.

October 19—The North Kansas City Hornets came down tonight for a football game with our High School Red Dragons.

October 20—Our college team engages Principia College at Elsah, Illinois, this weekend. The team was gone three days.

October 21—I took one of my three free rides on the horses from the academy's riding stables this afternoon.

October 22—Some military department promotions were announced today. Quite a few of the cadets were advanced to the commissioned ranks.

October 23—The Iowa Club had its first meeting this evening at the Victory. Mrs. Gibbons is the sponsor and Decker McKim is the president-elect.

October 24—Tonight was the first in a series of ten Kansas City Philharmonic Concerts. Twenty cadets attended this musical program and, apparently, enjoyed it very much.

October 25—Today is Thursday which means we can sleep an hour later this morning. Sure is good to sleep later on Thursday.

October 26—Four staff members attended a conference of the Committee on Improvement of Instruction held at Columbia today.

October 27—Dad's Day, today, proved to be an overwhelming success in every way. Many Dads and alumni were present for all of the celebrations in connection with this festivity.

October 28—A Bronze Star was presented today at parade to a local woman and her son for the husband and father who is missing in Korea.

October 29—Plans are already being made for Homecoming next month on Thanksgiving.

October 30—The band left on a three day trip to Arkansas City to attend the Arkalalah Festival. The band will return late Thursday night.

October 31—The Dramatics Club's first presentation was staged at assembly today; it showed we have some able thespians.

November 1—A group of us went to Kansas City tonight to see the very successful Broadway musical, "Guys and Dolls." We certainly enjoyed it.

November 2—The University of Missouri frosh-reserve team beat our Dragons tonight, 14-7. It was an excellent football contest.

November 3—Today is Saturday, so we had our usual two hours of drill. Our company commander says we are beginning to look pretty good.

November 4—Companies B and C tied for parade honors today. They both received the score of 92%.

November 5—Back to classes again. I surely hate to see Monday mornings come along. Now I know why people talk about "Blue Monday."

November 6—One hundred and seventeen cadets were given rank today, according to Special Order Number 5, published by the military department.

November 7—Members of the Kansas City Mothers Club were guests of the academy at luncheon at noon today. Mrs. Lola Mulloy was elected president for the next year.

November 8—The honor roll for the three weeks grading period ending last Saturday was published today and showed one hundred and forty-one cadets as making the grades. I, by some miracle, made the honor roll, too.

November 9—I had lots of studying to do tonight, so I stayed in and slaved over my books.

November 10—Chaplain Stafford conducted a memorial service. This is an annual event held each year on or around Armistice Day.

November 11—Jim and I went to the movie today after parade. It was a very good murder mystery.

November 12—Captain Stagner gave us a rough test today in geology. He can surely dream up difficult exams.

November 13—I got three letters today. I guess I had better start writing some myself.

November 14—Captain Cotton-Minchin, British consul from Kansas City, spoke at the weekly assembly program this morning. His talk was extremely interesting and was most informative.

November 15—Well, I got all caught up on my correspondence today, so I won't have to write any for a few days.

November 16—I was on post today, so I was busy most of the day. I hope I am not on duty too many more times.

November 17—The entire corps traveled to Columbia today to witness the MU-K State football game. It was rather cold, but everyone seemed to enjoy the trip.

November 18—My folks came over to see me today. It seems like years since I saw them last time.

November 19—The Wentworth thespians formed the Masque and Wig Club today and Emmett Jacobs was elected president of the actors.

November 20—I went to Kansas City tonight to hear the Philharmonic Concert. The soloist was the soprano, Blanche Thebom.

November 21—It has been announced that flight training is starting its thirteenth year at Wentworth this year. This is really something.

November 22—Today was Homecoming! It was a very successful day in all ways; the Dragons won over the Kemper Yellowjackets, 19-0.

November 23—Captain Stagner's geology students are leaving today for the Lake of the Ozark region and their field trip. This trip is taken to supplement the work done in the class room.

November 24—Mr. Solbach from the University of Pennsylvania was on the campus interviewing those cadets interested in entering Pennsylvania next fall.

November 25—Parade honors today went to D Company. The company earned a rating of 94%.

November 26—Colonel Wikoff met with a group of cadet philatelists today and formed a stamp club with John Covert as president.

November 27—Captain Park gave us a real hard test in math today. Boy, it was rough, but I passed, I hope!

November 28—"This is Our Problem." This was the theme around which Mr. James Fredman, a representative of the Folger Coffee Company of Kansas City, based his talk at the assembly program this morning.

November 29—It has been announced that A Company has won the intramural grid championship by defeating Company B in the final game on the schedule.

November 30—The band traveled to Sedalia today and returned with a check for $100 for winning first place in the college band division in the pre-Christmas parade held there.

December 1—Close order drill first drill period was easy enough. However, extended order got rough on the elbows and knees.

December 2—Cleaned up the room this morning for Sunday inspection. It was filthy as usual.

December 3—We went to the show last night to see "Strangers on a Train." It was a good show by my books.

December 4—Physics is getting rougher by the hour. Those laws of motion will be the dickens to memorize.

December 5—It rained all afternoon and we had a lecture on military discipline in the gym for our drill period.

December 6—Rolls for breakfast, but everything was spoiled by Capt. Willoughby's Business Law test.

December 7—Got a new record from "Showboat" today. That swimming workout is getting to be heavier. Negus made us lap the pool until we almost dropped.

December 8—Skipped breakfast this morning, because I had the first two hours free. Slept clear through until the third period.

December 9—Went to church this morning and stopped at the "Slop Shop" for a bite to eat before we came back.

December 10—Christmas fever is everywhere. Carols are on the radios and record players from reveille till taps.

December 11—Went to the Christmas dance last night. The Cavaliers played for us and their music was great.

December 12—The Kansas City Philharmonic concert is tonight. We stopped on the way back at the "Coffee Shop" for a little something to eat. Got in about 11:30 p.m.

December 13—We lost a basketball game to St. Joe Benton High school last night; it was a good game though.

December 14—We turned in our clipping books today for Col. Wikoff's American Government class. I was glad to get rid of mine for a while.

December 15—Got our "civies" out of the storage bins today. They were wrinkled badly so I left mine at the cleaners.

December 16—Got "skinned" this afternoon for "dirty bed rail" and "waste basket not emptied." Played basketball and swam this afternoon.

December 17—Turned in rug. Last story for the "Trumpeter" this year. Got to watch those demerits if I want to leave for home in time next Thursday.

December 18—Went to the show again last night. I saw "The Desert Fox" and really enjoyed it.

December 19—Supper was good: Fried chicken and pecan pie.

December 20—Went to the concert again tonight and on the way back our car stalled. It was about 1:00 a.m. before we got home.

December 21—At long last, Christmas furlough starts today. It is bad flying weather and the roads are icy, but I'm leaving if I have to crawl.

January 6—It was a wonderful vacation, but it's back to work; however, not much work was done tonight.

January 7—This is the first regular class in 1952, but it does not seem any different from last year.

January 8—I took my first permit since returning, and I saw a spine-tingling mystery.

January 9—Today I went downtown to get my shoe repaired. Joe Mitchell, our personnel sergeant is very particular.

January 10—Same old story, classes, athletics and study.

January 11—I pulled floor chief duty and found it quite difficult trying to wake up everyone. I guess it is "end of the semester blues."

January 12—Military Ball pictures were due today and rumor has it that there are some real beauties entered. Kemper nosed out the Wentworth Senior Dragons in the Kansas City Arena, 56-48.

January 13—Today was spent indoors, because it was so wet and stormy. It has rained about three inches in the last few days.

January 14—Col. Sellers gave us a rough Latin test today, but I came through with flying colors.

January 15—I hit the jackpot on the stick sheet today. I guess I will have to shape up if I want to get on the Honor Society list this year.

January 16—We are having the week off in American History because of a death in Capt. Berninger's family. Everyone sent out their deepest sympathies.

January 17—Today I have semester exams in all classes. I burned the midnight oil last night in preparation for them.

January 18—William Chrisman High School of Independence came to town today, and beat us, 35-19. It was a good game though—the girls from Chrisman are cute too!

January 19—Today is the last official day of the first semester. We will lose a few and gain a few, but enrollment is still up to the brim.

January 20—It was a beautiful day today, so I decided to take some pictures. My subjects were not too hot, but then neither were the pictures.

January 21—Today was full of the usual confusion of the first day of a new semester. However, my schedule was not changed.

January 22—Hooray—Major Brown announced a stop day! It could not have come at a better time either; I'm really hushed.

January 23—No assignments were due today, so we held bull sessions in most classes.

January 24—My roommate had his birthday today, and boy did we have a feast. Ummmm that cake was really good.

January 25—Wentworth rapped Kemper, 49-36, at Boonville. Orders came out too—and may of my friends are now wearing stripes.

January 26—Col. Wells announced a drill holiday, so I went to the matinee at the Main Street theater.

January 27—I slept in late today. I got a soupie tonight, and then watched T-V in the recreation room. I like the new set; and by the size of the crowd, so does everyone else.

January 28—Today we saw a movie on astronomy—during assembly. It was one of the most interesting assemblies this year. Also, cadets started decorating the gym for the Military Ball.

January 29—St. Joe Junior College beat WMA in a game in the gym tonight.

January 30—Norman Terry gave me a swell letter today. My gal says she is coming to the ball—sounds great.

January 31—The last day of the month. My how time flies. A month ago I was celebrating New Year's Eve.

February 1—Everyone has Military Ball fever, as the decorating of the gym nears completion and beauties start adorning the campus.

February 2—Military Ball day. Larry Fotine and his band put on a swell show, and part of it was carried over KCMO of Kansas City. My girl, although not having the title of queen, as did Linda Snodgrass of Fort Morgan, Colorado, was as pretty as a princess. This was also ground-hog day. The little animal saw his shadow, so it looks like a long winter.

February 3—Sleep, sleep, how wonderful it is! Everyone is just barely getting around, but the sight of anything in a dress perks them up.

February 4—Not much happened today. I guess we are still recovering from the dance, which tired everyone—even teachers.

February 5—I decided to get my hair cut today, so Barb Keeney had his usual trouble with my unruly hair.

February 6—Kemper's Junior Yellowjackets bowed to the WMA Cadets last night, so our team is very jubilant today.

February 7—A letter from home today brought some money, so I munched my way throughout the day and night, having no money by taps.

February 8—Since there was no basketball game tonight, I plodded to the theater to see "A Place in the Sun," with Liz Taylor. Love that Liz!

February 9—OMA nosed out the senior Dragons, but Decker McKim continued to shine as usual.

February 10—Mike Henry, the Arthur Godfrey of Wentworth, was my host tonight in a recording and jam session in his room. He loves radio so much that I think he goes to bed with a mike and turn table.

February 11—POST—that four lettered word which means no class if you are lucky, had me tagged today. My only difficulty was in taking down the flag. It was all twisted up in the ropes and pole.

February 12—Lafayette of St. Joe played and beat our Hi team, so I guess we won't win the conference title this year.

February 13—This is not Friday the 13th, but it might as well be. Nothing has gone right, so I will be glad to hit the hay tonight.

February 14—Valentine's day, and there prevails thoughts of love as the beautiful Missouri weather continues. (Maybe I should knock on wood.)

February 15—Tonight we saw the performance of "John Loves Mary." It was a magnificent production put on by the Masque and Wig Club.

February 16—Today we had the Advance Guard problem at the Country Club. We fired blanks, and it sounded like real war; but glad it wasn't!

February 17—This was a red letter day. I found out I had the measles, so I paid a visit to the hospital. Duchess put me back in the near to capacity back ward, where I was to stay longer than I had planned.

February 18—I hear, by outside contact that the Company basketball conference is red hot. "C" Company is on top of the heap right now.

February 19—I am still on soup tray, but am enjoying hearing spot announcements and programs advertising the Wentworth Show in Kansas City this Saturday.

February 20—I finally got out of the hospital, and am getting back into the swing of things. Everyone looks the same, but all say I look terrible.

February 21—The Wentworth Midgets continue on their winning ways. Capt. Madden's group has developed into an amazing team and is rolling past most opposition.

February 22—Richmond High School paid a visit to WMA and lost, 40-65, in the first game of a doubleheader, a very rare thing at the academy. The college lost too.

February 23—Wentworth Show day. The corps left for Kansas City at 5:30 and arrived at the city auditorium around 7:00 p.m. About 5,500 persons sat in on the show, and dance immediately following. The caravan arrived in Lexington around 1:00 a.m. It was also announced that the corps would attend a game of the Kansas City Blues some time this spring.

February 24—Just three weeks ago was the morning after the Military Ball. Since the same situation prevails I'll just say "ditto."

February 25—"C" Company has cinched its basketball championship for this year. "D" Company continues losing most games by one point, while the Marine Hallers walk all over their opponents.

February 26—The last JUCO game of the year saw Burlington win, 60-59. It was about as close as you can go, and tempers flared toward the end of the contest.

February 27—The Military Department announced, that because of our fine job in Kansas City, we could have a drill holiday today. Headquarters Company had a banquet at the C.C. for winning disciplinary honors for the first semester.

February 28—"D" Company had a dinner at the country club for winning the scholastic competition during the first semester.

February 29—This date comes only once every four years, so I feel honored in writing about it. Girls are supposed to chase after their favorite males today, but I have seen none on the campus—I guess we cadets are not appealing!

March 1—Twenty-four cadets and Col. and Mrs. Wikoff left today on the educational tour. The travelers are to visit Kingston, Jamaica, Port-au-Prince, Haiti, and Miami, Florida.

March 2—Headquarters Company, the band, won parade today with 93 per cent. A and B Companies came in second.

March 3—Today is the first day of the new six weeks grading period. I have decided to really study hard this six weeks and show my teachers and my parents I can if I want to.

March 4—There is a new sergeant in the military department. His name is Sgt. Stockton; he seems like a very nice fellow.

March 5—Dick Jolliffe and Lewis Culkin have been elected captains of next year's Wentworth basketball teams in college and high school, respectively.

March 6—Spring furlough begins today! Freedom for five days; it will surely be good to get home again!

March 11—Back to the old grind once again. It is rough getting back into the swing of things, but it soon wears off and everyone is back to normal.

March 12—The special alumni issue of The Trumpeter came out today, carrying several notes on old alumni and friends of past years.

March 13—It was announced today that nineteen boys qualified for admission into Phi Theta Kappa, the college scholastic society. Lucky guys!

March 14—Captain Pease gave us a tough test today in "econ." I hope he doesn't give us too many more tests like that.

March 15—Drill today was devoted to realistic tactical problems. Four different problems were run, one for each different rifle company.

March 16—The boys who took the educational tour to the Caribbean area returned to school today with many wild and almost unbelievable tales about Jamaica and Haiti.

March 17—A man was here today taking pictures for publicity reasons. He took pictures of the cadets in every day life and examples of the uniforms worn by the boys.

March 18—The Magic Carpet, an exhibit of more than 200 rare books valued at $75,000, was in Lexington and a great many cadets visited it today.

March 19—At assembly today Captain Berninger awarded the sports letters earned by the cadets during the winter season.

March 20—This being Thursday we had the usual late breakfast and all classes were moved up one hour.

March 21—Today is the last day of the three weeks grading period. The honor roll list will be published next week; I hope I shall be on the list.

March 22—I went to Kansas City tonight to see the Broadway hit, The Moon Is Blue. It was unusually good and very funny.

March 23—Today is a warm, sunshiny day and we had our dress parade outside. There were many spectators there to see it.

March 24—Col. Sellers left today for Washington to attend the annual meeting of the Association of Military Colleges and Schools of the United States.

March 25—Today is a stop day which means that we shall not be held responsible for our assignments tomorrow and breakfast will be one hour later tomorrow.

March 26—We practiced our close order drill today during the regular drill period, in preparation for Government Inspection next month.

March 27—Our junior college track team traveled to Boonville to participate in the Kemper Junior College Indoor Track Meet with several colleges entering.

March 28—The Guardsman Quartet performed at our weekly assembly program this morning. They were unusually good and very well received.

March 29—A group of us went to the picture show this evening. The show was a thriller about the sea and all—very exciting.

March 30—After Sunday parade today the entire corps and faculty posed for a panoramic picture in the football stadium.

March 31—Major Buck left today, for one week to go to Chicago to attend the annual meeting of the North Central Association.

April 1—Today is April Fools Day, and I have loads of tricks in store for teachers, and my poor roommate.

April 2—The weather is beautiful, and everyone is outside playing soft ball, tennis, or just sun bathing.

April 3—Another typical Thursday. The sun is beginning to ruin that extra hour sleep, though, because I live in a room facing the east.

April 4—The Honor Guard goes to Kansas City today for the B.O.T.C. Circus, in the Municipal Auditorium. Everyone wishes he could go along. Hope they have fun and drill good.

April 5—No classes all morning, but preparing for the rifle inspection will take all of my free time.

April 6—Sunday again, and everyone is dressed up to go to church. The trees are beginning to bud, and some flowers should be out for Easter next week.

April 7—The "W" Club initiation begins today, with all of the tortures that go along with it. The new members are starting a week of rough going.

April 8—It continues to be warm and we are still laughing over the initiation stunts.

April 9—Everyone is preparing for the "W" Club dance next Saturday night. I had to go down town today to get some bluejeans.

April 10—The initiation ended today with a battle between the new members of the club. Later all members gave a sigh of relief for the end of the hectic affair.

April 11—Today is Good Friday, and many of the boys are looking forward to seeing their folks this week-end.

April 12—Tonight is the big "W" Club dance, and everyone is drawing out civilian clothing from the trunk room, getting ready for the gay affair. A drill holiday was announced because of the rain. Today was the initiation day for the National Honor Society members. The ceremony took place during the assembly period.

April 13—Today is Easter Sunday, and it has turned out to be unseasonably cold. All are getting ready to attend the services of their choice.

April 14—Only one week until Government inspection, and we are beginning to shine shoes, brass, and all of our equipment. I had better start on mine before it's too late.

April 15—The weather has again turned warm. I hope this is the last time for the overcoats, as I put mine away.

April 16—With drill today, began the final preparations for the Government inspection. All year we have worked for this and now we are just tying a few loose ends, and brushing up on some forgotten techniques.

April 17—Classes end today, and now everyone will have ample time to prepare for the Government inspection.

April 18—We are all cleaning our rooms tonight. Everyone is scrubbing floors and walls—and I am no exception.

April 19—Drill all morning long. We had review classes this afternoon, and then finished cleaning our rooms.

April 20—The Government inspection begins tomorrow. Everything is all shined and all subjects have been covered thoroughly, I hope.

April 21—The inspectors arrived this morning. We had the rifle review, drill and military theory classes this morning. Rain yesterday made the drill field muddy, but we drilled anyway.

April 22—The inspectors left today at about noon, giving us a free afternoon and evening. I went down to the Missouri River, to see what a flood looks like.

April 23—The Dramatics Club put on a skit during the assembly period, and it was very good.

April 24—Today was the first normal schedule day in nearly a week, and it was very good to be back in the normal swing of things.

April 25—Having a permit, I went to see "Singing in the Rain." It was a wonderful show—my vote for the year's best musical.

April 26—Today was a drill holiday, and I again went to see the flooding river. The crest came today, and the country-side looks like an ocean.

April 27—Today the whole corps boarded buses for the third time this year, to make a caravan trip. This time we saw the Kansas City Blues play Milwaukee, after putting on a dress parade in the Blues Stadium in Kansas City.

April 28—Everyone is really tired today after yesterday's ball game. It was really a lot of fun, but quite tiresome.

April 29—Beautiful weather today, and I got out for a short sun bath. Now I wish I hadn't, because I look like a lobster.

April 30—This is the last day of April, and the April showers are taking full advantage of it. I hope those May flowers are out tomorrow.

May 1—The Kansas City, Kansas Junior College track and tennis teams were here today, competing with our college teams.

May 2—The high school track team went to Warrensburg to compete in another track meet. The two track teams sure have a busy season.

May 3—Captain Stagner's geology classes left today for a three day field trip to the Ozark region to study the rocks and various caves in the area.

May 4—Today was a beautiful day, so a group of us boys went to play golf after parade. I had an unusually good game.

May 5—We are starting on the last three weeks of school now. The school work is coming fast now, as there is much to be done between now and the end of school.

May 6—The junior college track, golf and tennis teams are competing against Kemper here today, while the high school track, golf and tennis teams went to Boonville to compete with the boys there.

May 7—The band is beginning to whip up some concert music they will use when they give their final concert in a few weeks.

May 8—Three of us took "suppies" and went to the show tonight. It is good to get out every now and then.

May 9—Captain Pirhalla and three of the cadets on the school paper staff went to Columbia today to attend a meeting of the Missouri College Newspaper Association.

May 10—Today was the second day of the State Outdoor Track Meet in which our high school track team participated.

May 11—I sent Mother some flowers for Mother's Day today. I hope she likes them.

May 12—I played a few rounds of tennis with Jim, my roommate this afternoon.

May 13—Today was just an average day, nothing particularly exciting or out of the ordinary happened.

May 14—All of the members of The Trumpeter staff had a steak dinner at the Victory Cafe, as is the custom.

May 15—Today, being Thursday, we got to sleep one hour later this morning. This one hour of sleep surely helps a lot.

May 16—Today is the first day of the National Junior College Track Meet in Hutchinson, Kansas, our college team went to participate.

May 17—We went on maneuvers today during the drill period. They are very helpful in that they provide a good chance for learning to put into practice all of the class room work we learned during the year.

May 18—The campus looked so pretty today with all of the flowers and trees in bloom, that I spent all afternoon taking pictures.

May 19—Only one week left, then all will be over until September. Honestly, I don't know where all of the time has gone.

May 20—My first final test came today. It was in math. I have tests all the rest of this week. These final tests are surely hard.

May 21—During drill today we prepared ourselves for Field Day this Saturday. I certainly hope our company wins the Field Day competition.

May 22—Some of the parents and relatives started arriving today for the weekend festivities, which start tomorrow.

May 23—The band presented its annual out-doors concert on the campus lawn. A large crowd attended and the band sounded very good.

May 24—Today is Field Day. All of the companies are in competition to decide which is the best of the companies. Everyone is really working hard. The Commencement Ball will be tonight.

May 25—Tonight is Commencement. The graduates could hardly sit through all of the various talks as they were so anxious to get their hands on that piece of paper called a diploma.

May 26—Today is the day of days! It is hard to say goodbye to some of the boys because you know that you shall probably never meet again, but you also know that some of the boys will be back again next year, so until next year—goodbye, diary.
