

WENTWORTH MILITARY ACADEMY

ESTABLISHED 1880 — LEXINGTON, MO.

HIGH SCHOOL AND JUNIOR COLLEGE

WENTWORTH'S PURPOSE

It is the purpose of Wentworth Military Academy to provide the best conditions possible for the all 'round development of worthy boys and young men.

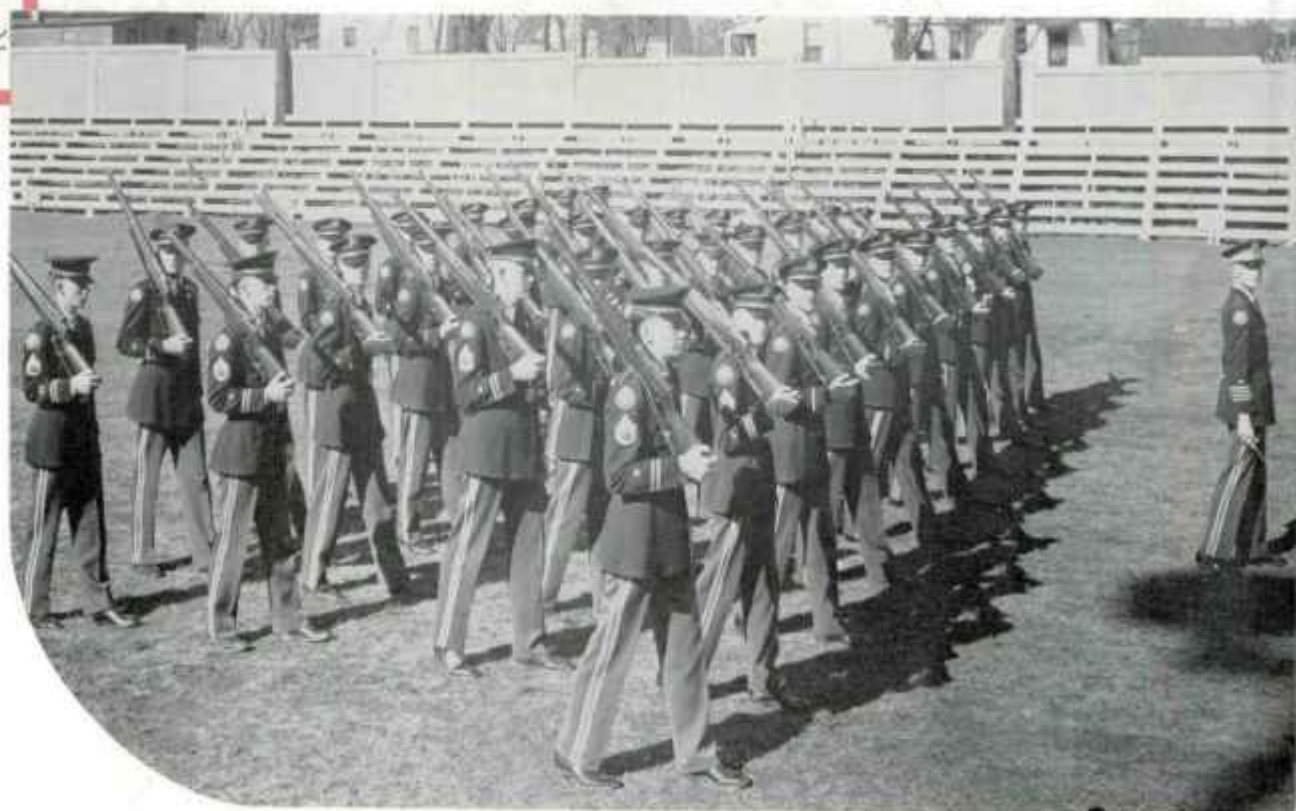

To attain this high purpose, the Academy places greatest emphasis upon these four points:

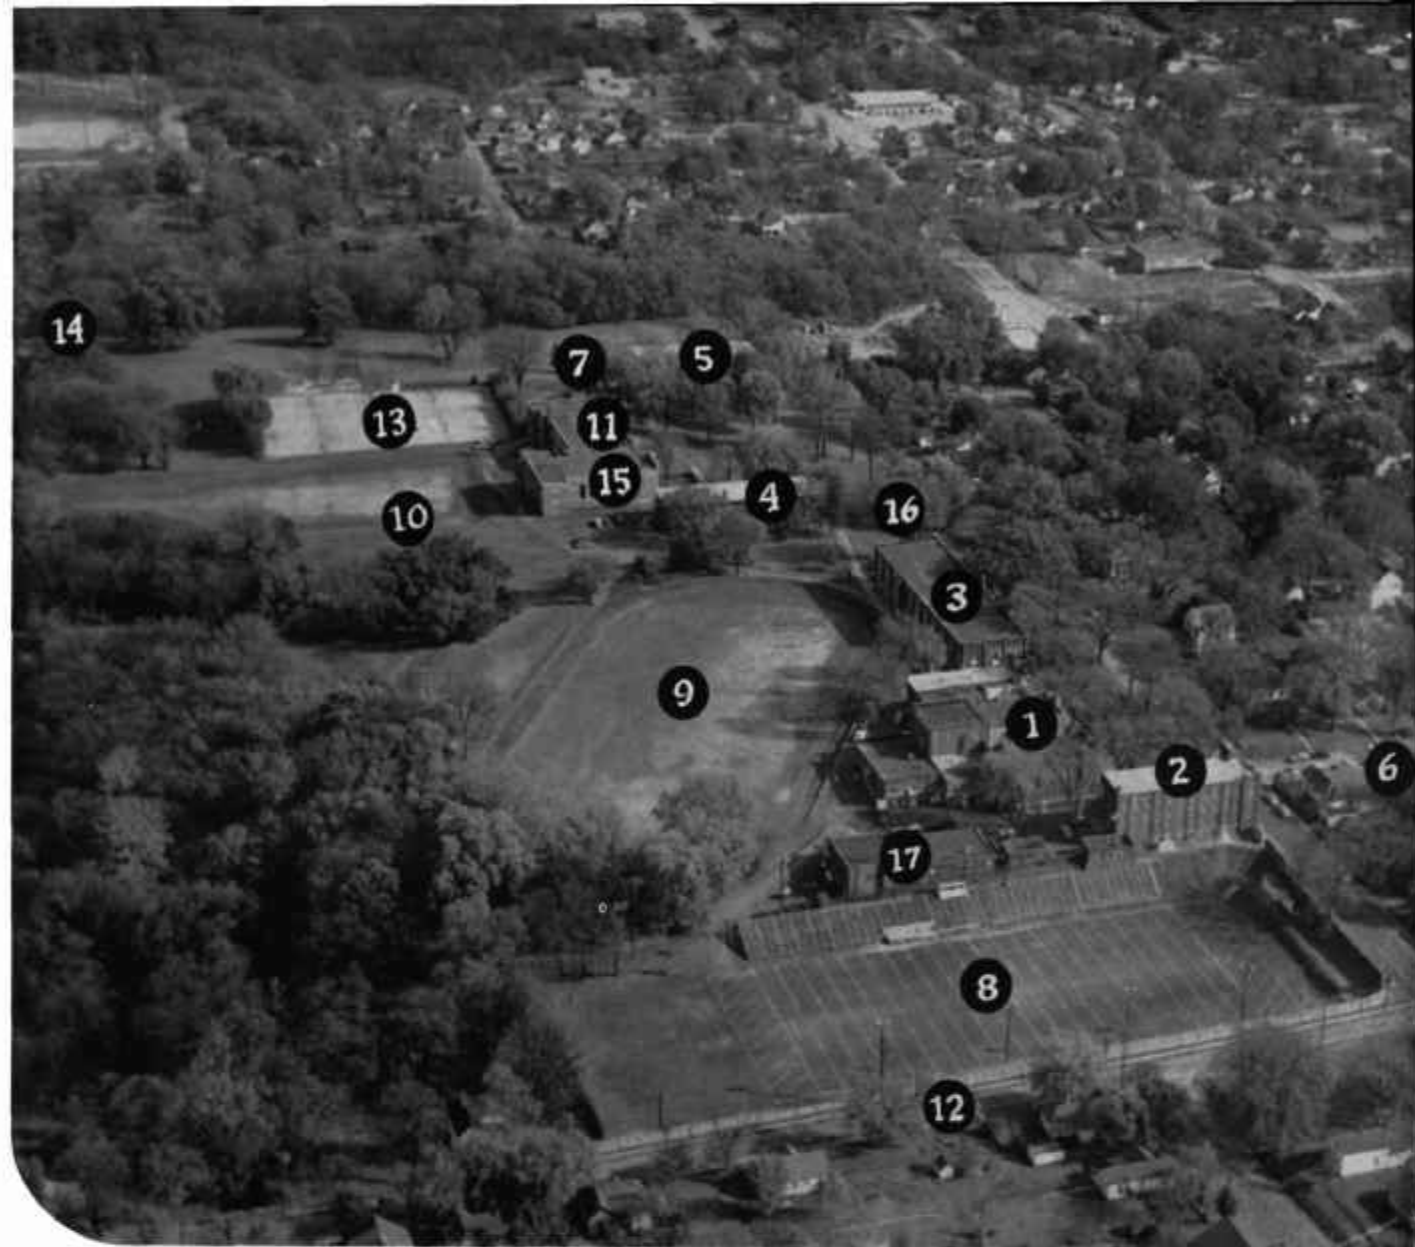

First, it is the Academy's aim to assemble only the highest types of students—deserving youths of good parentage—to assure wholesome associations and greater progress. Every precaution is taken to keep undesirable boys—all those that might prove detrimental to others—out of the Academy.

Second, to employ only men of highest character and ability for its faculty. It is not enough for a Wentworth faculty member to be merely a scholar and a splendid instructor. He must also possess a spirit of friendliness and a sincere desire to give kindly help whenever necessary. He must thoroughly understand the innermost problems of boys—be patient with them—and be ready to serve each boy to the best of his ability.

Third, to provide the very best equipment throughout every department to the end that every boy will have all those things necessary to his health and happiness and that none shall want for anything that will help him to make progress.

Fourth, to provide a program for each day that will best serve the interests of every student.

F. & A. M., and Past Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Missouri.

From the beginning the late President Sellers surrounded himself with the ablest faculty available—strong men of proved qualities and Christian character. Under his wise and forward-looking direction, Wentworth has grown steadily. Each year has shown marked improvement over the preceding year. Today Wentworth stands as one of the truly great educational institutions of our country—second to none in the opportunities it offers boys and young men for thorough preparation for professional studies, business and for life.

SINCE EIGHTEEN EIGHTY

One of the chief reasons why Wentworth has been able to achieve its lofty purpose lies in the fact that the Academy has been under one continuous administration since its founding. For nearly three-score years, Colonel Sanford Sellers was president of Wentworth. He enjoyed one of the most enviable records in the history of American education.

The Academy was founded by Stephen G. Wentworth, scion of a distinguished English family and a prominent Lexington banker, in 1880, as a memorial to his deceased son, William Wentworth. Mr. Wentworth immediately vested control of the institution in the hands of a board of trustees composed of a duly elected representative of each of the Evangelical churches of Lexington, and a president. Colonel Sellers was called to the new school in its first year and remained as its active head until 1938. Mr. Wentworth served as president of the Board from 1880 until his death in 1897.

It was the firm conviction of the founder, his board of trustees and President Sellers that a military boarding school provides the most effective possible means for giving young men the thorough mental, moral and physical training necessary to develop in them the highest traits of manhood. Thus, Wentworth became the first military school in the Missouri River Valley.

AN HISTORIC BACKGROUND

Throughout over half a century the Wentworth purpose has remained unchanged. The ideals which led to the Academy's founding and which have carried it steadily forward, shine just as brightly today as ever: the desire to give each youth every opportunity to develop fully his own individual personality; the aim that every cadet shall acquire a keen sense of duty and responsibility, both to himself and toward others; that he shall have the mental and moral power to make accurate judgment between right and wrong and the physical power to stand by his convictions.

These high standards have dominated Wentworth for generations. But to maintain them and assure their full and continuous application, it has been found necessary to limit the enrollment. Wentworth today is a relatively small school—many times larger than in 1880, to be sure, yet small enough that every individual student is given the private attention so essential to his all-round development.

The surrounding country affords a wealth of historically important Civil War sites and the town of Lexington itself retains much of the tradition of the old south. Here enthusiasm for the reminders of our country's glorious past is combined with the enthusiasm for modern adventure to promote the rapid development of the boy's mental, moral and physical resources.

YESTERDAY

and TODAY

The Wentworth Military Academy of today is vastly different from the Wentworth of 1880. From year to year it has enlarged its facilities, increased its enrollment and changed its physical appearance until there is little to remind one of the early days. Numerous modern and attractive buildings have been erected as they were needed. Old buildings have been torn away when they were no longer useful. Spacious military and athletic fields have been added. One of the finest gymnasiums in the country has been built. Every new method in teaching that has been found definitely superior to older methods has been adopted. Yet, some of the fundamental principles that guided the first company are adhered to just as strictly today.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT

MILITARY training at Wentworth has always been a strong feature, but it is never permitted to interfere with the scholastic work of the Academy. It can be shown, moreover, that military discipline has a decidedly advantageous effect upon classroom work.

In recognition of the superior military work done at Wentworth, in 1889 the Academy became a post of the Missouri National Guard. Graduates of the Academy who resided in Missouri, became eligible for commissions in this organization.

Wentworth has been under the direct supervision of the War Department of the United States Government since 1895, when the first active-army officer was detailed to the Academy. Now 3 officers, 4 non-commissioned officers and one civilian assistant are in charge of military instruction. In addition, the War Department furnishes around $50,000 worth of equipment to be used for instruction purposes. Wentworth is one of the original Honor Schools of the United States, the highest rating given by the War Department. The Academy has been a unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps from the time that organization was established.

*This monument, erected on the campus by the Alumni Association, to the memory of Wentworth cadets who died in the World War No. 1, typifies the loyal spirit of generations of former Wentworth cadets.

*Patriotism is no sham at Wentworth. Every cadet is taught the real meaning of our flag. Each day, with appropriate ceremonies, the Stars and Stripes are raised and lowered on the towering flag pole.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Within Wentworth's Administration Building are handsomely furnished parlors, corridors and reception rooms. Among its furnishings and decorations students and guests alike find many articles of interest and rare beauty. Its comfortable furnishings amid peaceful surroundings afford a homelike atmosphere where the new cadet readily adapts himself to a wholesome, happy experience. Here in an atmosphere of quiet dignity, every student is privileged to entertain his guests or to spend his leisure moments as governed by his daily schedule. None of the comforts of the modern home have been excluded in Wentworth's plan to provide the finest training and quarters available.

About the CAMPUS

* A part of the Quadrangle where the Wentworth Battalion assembles.

* Marine Hall.

Nature and man have joined forces at Wentworth to produce a campus of outstanding beauty. Magnificent trees, of many varieties, blend in perfect harmony with modern, attractive buildings and spacious grounds. The Academy is located just at the edge of Lexington and covers 52 acres. The front campus extends over four city blocks and is dotted with massive elms and glorious flower banks that provide enchantment and inspiration. The back campus includes athletic and military fields and the new stadium. There are eight thoroughly modern buildings on the campus, each built for the exact purpose it serves. They are of brick and stone construction and are heated by steam and hot water.

THE WENTWORTH COUNTRY CLUB

Located on one of the most beautiful spots overlooking the Missouri River, the Golf Course and Country Club add variety to the many facilities available to the Wentworth students. The nine-hole golf course is most attractive and sporty. The club house, with its catering equipment, is ideal for many informal parties held throughout the year. And in the stable are found horses suitable for the tyro as well as the expert rider.

* Teeing Up

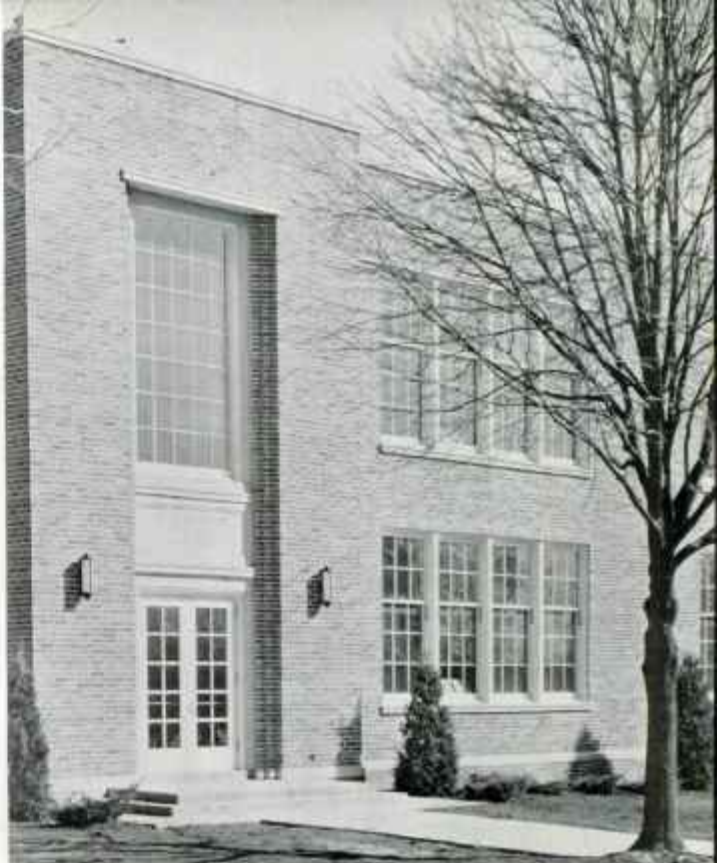

* Two stylish mounts. Every Wentworth student will ride.

* Interior of the Club House—available for many informal gatherings.

* One of the spacious, well lighted and immaculate corridors in the Sellers-Wikoff Scholastic Building.

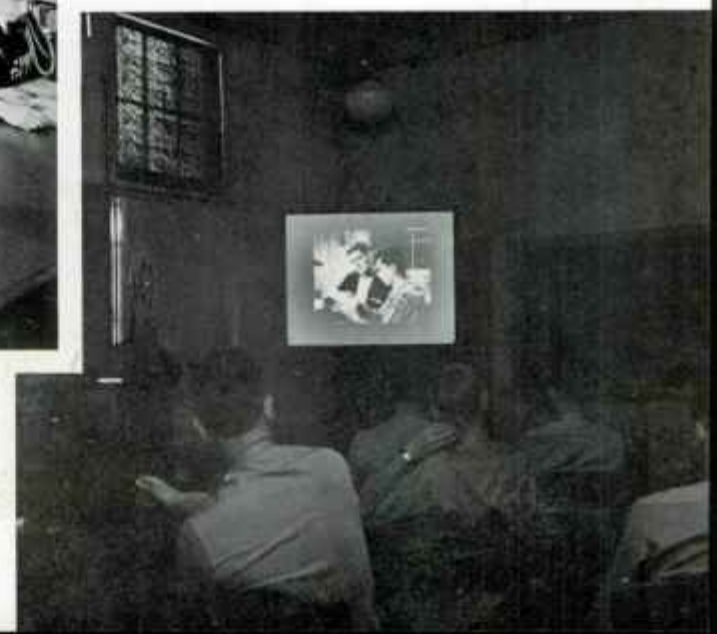

SCHOLASTIC

Wentworth's up-to-date Sellers - Wikoff Scholastic Building is the nucleus of the scholastic department. This magnificent structure contains one of the most splendid libraries possessed by any institution of this kind. Four completely equipped laboratories provide excellent facilities for the practical study of the sciences. In addition to classrooms for all classes, it houses the Dean's and Commandant's offices. It is with justifiable pride that Wentworth points to this new achievement in its effort to provide surroundings which are conducive to academic advancement.

* The attractive library contains thousands of volumes, providing every necessary supplement to the student's texts and manuals.

* Visual Aids are being used to a great extent to supplement lectures by instructors. The Academy has the best equipment available and has established a liberal budget for rental of motion pictures for class work.

* Sellers-Wikoff Scholastic Building.

Geology is a science of particular interest to boys of the midwest.

DEPARTMENT

The scholastic department is divided into two separate and distinct units: the high school, which offers four years of preparatory work, and the junior college, which offers two years of liberal arts and science. Each has its own organization separate from the other. Both divisions are fully accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, an organization composed of the leading colleges and preparatory schools in twenty states. This recognition means that graduates of either department are eligible to enter any institution in the United States that receives students by certification.

It is our aim to see that each cadet masters every lesson thoroughly. To accomplish this, every student is taught correct study methods and thoroughly schooled in correct uses of libraries and laboratories. Classes are small, which permits individual attention. Most of the faculty members live in the buildings with students. They are readily accessible for special help. From time to time a personal study is made of each cadet to determine his points of weakness and help him overcome them.

*The laboratory for elementary classes in chemistry provides many costly instruments not provided for in many schools but which Wentworth believes are important to the proper study of chemistry.

*The laboratory for the advanced chemistry classes is even more completely equipped.

AVIATION FLIGHT TRAINING GROUP

AVIATION

Wentworth participated in the Civil Aeronautics Administration Civilian Pilot Training Program from its inception in 1939 through the change to C. A. A. War Training Service until June, 1943, when all but 80 out of 712 colleges and universities throughout the country were eliminated due to curtailment of this type of training. However, the academy administration, believing aviation training to be very important now and in the future to the youth of the nation, secured permission from C. A. A. officials to continue flight training on a civilian basis and at the expense of the trainee.

Wentworth operates in conjunction with the Earl Haines Flying Service at the Lexington Airport as a certified flying school fully approved by the C. A. A. The flight training program, including ground school, far surpasses the minimum requirements set forth by the civil aeronautics administration qualifying cadets for Private and Commercial Pilot Certificates. It consists of instruction in both dual and solo flight time.

The records of the graduates of the Wentworth Flight Training are outstanding. During the war the graduates of this training program fought on every front where Americans were in combat.

From REVEILLE
TO TAPS

A DAY

AT WENTWORTH

NO TWO days at Wentworth are quite the same, for a widely varied program of scholastic, military, athletic and other activities is used to keep the interest of the cadets at high pitch and their appetites for learning well whetted. Furthermore, no two students have quite the same duties to perform throughout any given day. There is, however, a definite routine that all cadets follow each day. It is used to instill perfect regularity and promptness in attendance upon all duties prescribed for one and all cadets alike.

While it requires some adjustments for new students to become accustomed to this routine, any slight hint of monotony is soon lost in the kaleidoscopic whirl of the school year.

To give parents and others a better insight, the following pages have been used to set forth, pictorially, the day's activities from Reveille to Taps, of a typical Wentworth boy whom we will designate as Cadet Harlan.

The pictures in this section were taken several years ago. However, since they illustrate life at Wentworth of today, they are still timely. They are retained because so many of the cadets shown served in the Armed Forces of their country and so well illustrate the value of military training as received while at Wentworth.

Since the importance of military preparedness is becoming increasingly evident by the changing world situation, the training illustrated in this picture section has a special significance.

There have been some uniform changes as may be seen by referring to the section on Wentworth uniforms.

★ Harlan—a typical Wentworth cadet.

HERE is Harlan, a typical Wentworth cadet—a fine young American—manly, scholarly and upright. His respect for duty and responsibility has won for him the rank of sergeant. He may have come from a large city or a very small town—that makes no difference to the democratic spirit that prevails at Wentworth. He may be from a wealthy family or a family in meager circumstances—most of his classmates would never know, nor even be curious, unless he chose to tell them. But he typifies all the fine qualities of a deserving and ambitious youth as he goes through the tried and age-proved Wentworth process of becoming a real man, a real asset to himself, his family and friends, and society as a whole.

Harlan, like all the others, participates in many activities besides those shown. But let's follow him through a typical day.

Harlan "Butch" Heffelfinger, who graduated in the class of 1937 and posed as the model cadet in the view book, served as a Major in the last war.

His brother, Hugo, another Wentworth alumnus, also a Major, and served with distinction with the Rangers.

Artie Heffelfinger served with the Navy Air Corps as an Ensign.

* Harlan's first duty is a thorough, refreshing wash before breakfast.

"CAN'T GET 'EM UP," blows the bugler, but he does, and at 6:35 o'clock another day is under way. Cadet Harlan goes first to the sanitary lavatory on his floor. A good washup is part of the routine, for a cadet is expected to keep himself clean at all times. At 6:50 he goes to a well-prepared breakfast.

After breakfast, rooms must be cleaned. One of the basic aims of our system is to form personal habits of order. Each morning Harlan makes his own bed, puts his clothes in order and helps his roommate clean the room.

* Harlan makes up his own bed.

Strict inspection of quarters is a daily routine. Formal inspection of Harlan's person, room and equipment occurs on Sunday morning. At this time unusual care must be taken in cleaning the room. Our friend sees that hidden corners are carefully dusted, chairs polished, and everything put in order. Then he takes care of his person. There's brass to shine, leather to polish, hair to brush, and whiskers to be removed. A certain time is allotted for this preparation and all work must be done within that time. This young fellow knows that any deficiency in this work receives what is known in Academy language as a "skin"—which counts against one's company in color competition.

*Harlan is ready for the inspector — brass gleaming, shoes shined—room as clean as the proverbial "hound's tooth."

* Here Harlan delves into things scientific. Modern equipment is provided for all laboratory work.

AT 8 O'CLOCK in the morning, classes convene. Harlan makes his way to a small class on his schedule where personal attention is his at any time it is needed. Our cadet is carefully instructed in the handling of delicate scientific equipment. He is not forced to grope blindly for information. That which is true of the science laboratories is equally true in all other classrooms.

Time passes rapidly in the classroom or laboratory because the work is interesting. The scholastic day is divided into two equal parts, with four classes in the morning and two in the afternoon.

*Our Cadet goes through a course of calisthenics to promote grace and health.

All the cadets shown in the picture were in the Armed Service.

CALISTHENICS play an important role in the physical education of Cadet Harlan. No effort is made to indulge in this or any other exercise in the early morning hours when the body is at its lowest ebb. All such exercises are taken by our cadet after a hearty breakfast and morning classes. The exercises are intended to promote graceful movement as well as better health. The calisthenics used by the United States Army are followed. They are led by senior cadet officers.

So long as the weather permits, the calisthenics are held in the open, but they are taken in the large gymnasium, where an entire battalion may take part at the same time, when rain or cold is in the air.

*The ten excellent tennis courts are always popular.

*Cadet Harlan reports to the Professor of Military Science and Tactics for drill duty.

Cadet Lieutenant Jack Ramsdell commanding the platoon shown in these two views, participated as an officer in the landing on North Africa. He was decorated with the Silver Star for heroism in action and Purple Heart.

DRILL is a very formal affair. It is on the drill field that Harlan learns much of courtesy, discipline and alertness. He, with his entire battalion, is thoroughly schooled in good citizenship, taught the proper respect for superiors and trained in leadership.

Learning to drill a squad is the first training in leadership. Throughout the year squad drill and competition is a part of the regular military routine. The squad is the smallest military unit and consists of nine to twelve men, two of whom are sergeants. All instruction is conducted by cadets under the personal supervision of members of the military faculty.

Although military work takes but one hour each day, the training is intensive and much more thorough than that found in larger units. Personal attention is given the individual cadet on the military field as well as in the classroom, and each cadet has an equal chance to advance to important positions in Wentworth's military realm. In the army, the navy and the marine corps Wentworth is glorified by its alumni who have received their commissions and are distinguishing themselves in official capacities of these respective branches of service.

Like many other cadets, Harlan finds the extended order drill more interesting. This drill consists of combat methods. He is taught to make use of cover, to advance and to fire. No actual firing is done during this drill, however, for all the ammunition used is dummy material. Initiative and leadership are required in this work. Situations arising in the problems furnished by the War Department call for quick thinking and immediate action.

Here our typical cadet finds extended order drill interesting and instructive.

The Cadet Officer using the field glasses was Captain Woodrow Wylie, U. S. Army, who participated in the fight on Bettsan.

The cadet about to insert the cartridge in his rifle is Lieut.-Colonel Milton Moran, U. S. Marine Air Corps. He participated in considerable action in the South Pacific.

* Eating — an always-popular "sport" with Harlan and his fellow cadets! Meal time is always a time for good food and good fellowship.

The Faculty Officer at the head of the table is Captain Robert D. Hepler, assistant dean. The lady is his wife, Mrs. Beth Hepler, the academy's hostess and social director.

FOLLOWING the morning classes comes lunch time and our cadet is ready to eat. Academy menus are always varied and pleasing. Meals are carefully planned to suit the needs of all cadets. They are healthful and nutritious and just what active, hard-working boys require. Meal times are at 7:00 in the morning, 12:10 and 6:10. This schedule is varied only on Sunday, when dinner becomes a more elaborate meal served at 12:30.

After dinner there is a recreation period during which Harlan and other cadets may do pretty much as they choose. The recreation room is a popular place at this time.

*Maybe Harlan is "behind the 8-ball" here! Like all other cadets he takes part in zestful competition in the recreation room.

*The television set in the recreation room enables cadets to enjoy their favorite programs.

THE recreation room proves a haven of rest, relaxation and zestful indoor competition. Pool, billiard and ping-pong tables are provided. A few try their hand at bridge, while others read, or relax in comfortable chairs.

*(Right) Our friend attends a chapel period, held twice each week.

*(Below) "We must get in there and fight!" says Harlan as he makes a short "pep" talk on the eve of a game.

CADET HARLAN attends interesting, informative and inspirational meetings in the chapel, immediately before lunch on Wednesdays and Saturdays. These meetings are conducted by the Academy Chaplain, but are not strictly religious. Travel talks, health lectures, scientific demonstrations and short sermons, presented by outstanding speakers, are frequently on the program. The service is opened with a hymn, prayer and responsive readings, and closed with the singing of "Wentworth," the Academy song.

"Pep" meetings, preceding important athletic contests, are held in the gymnasium. These are always occasions of great fun. Students and faculty make rousing speeches. The cadet band furnishes gay, martial music and everyone anticipates the big game on the morrow. Athletic contests are important recreational events. Every cadet attends them.

*While a majority of the faculty members live in the barracks with cadets, some live in residences such as this on the campus.

*All shined up for Sunday inspection.

*Our Cadet receives personal attention from a faculty member in the library.

In this picture, the Tactical Officer, James Simmons, graduate of Wentworth, is now a Lieut. Col. in the United States Army. He participated in the capture of Attu and Kwajalein.

Next to him, Lieutenant Orman, paratrooper, who took part in the Sicilian campaign and the capture of Naples. On the right, Captain James L. Gist, Army Aviator.

PERSONAL attention is not confined to the classroom nor to the evening study periods. Harlan and many other cadets seek assistance in the spacious Academy library. The faculty officer in charge is always ready and willing to help any student, no matter what his problem. Whatever the subject, the faculty officer is qualified to give the guidance needed.

Wentworth's library is one of the most important places on the campus. It contains more than 10,000 books on nearly every subject one could imagine. Reference books include the famous Oxford English Dictionary and many sets of encyclopedias.

*Harlan plays football—and mighty well, too! No wonder! His uncle was an All-American at Yale.

*In winter months our boy turns his attention to basketball and other indoor sports.

TRAINING for leadership is important on the football field as well as everywhere else at Wentworth. More than fifty cadets answer the varsity call each year and large squads turn out for company teams. All players receive intensive training, both in the art of the game and in clean sportsmanship.

Football ranks as the number one sport and the Red Dragon elevens are consistent winners. The fine spirit of players and corps is credited with being a strong determining factor in every contest.

In the winter months basketball comes into the spotlight. Again there are the varsity and company teams and a place for every cadet who desires to play. Home games are played in the spacious gymnasium where there are two courts and ample space for spectators.

Wentworth is a member of the Junior College Interstate conference, an athletic association numbering seven schools as members. The Wentworth High School teams are members of the Pony Express Conference of Western Missouri. Almost every major and minor sports are on the Wentworth program—all played under competent coaches—and every cadet is required to participate.

*The gymnasium is 220 x 55 feet. It contains two regular basket ball courts, a large stage, a swimming pool 20 x 60 feet, locker rooms, showers and gymnastic equipment.

* Here our man-in-the-making is ready for his daily plunge in the pool.

THE sparkling, crystal-clear water of the swimming pool is inviting to cadets the year 'round. The pool is of regulation size (20x60) and is the scene of frequent water sports and aquatic meets. It is the purpose to teach every cadet to swim well. The water is warmed to a healthful temperature and kept pure by efficient filtration and chemical treatment.

* (Above) Hi-dee-ho! Harlan and his friends tune in a radio program during the recreation period immediately following the evening meal.

Just before the evening study period is the favorite tune-in time for Cadet Harlan and other radio devotees. Permission to have a radio in the room is regarded a privilege, the abuse of which causes the student to lose this favor.

After thirty-five minutes of recreation following the supper hour, evening study is begun at 7 o'clock. Each cadet retires to his own room for a two-hour period of quiet. There is no stuffy, noisy hall in which cadets are confined. Instead, individual initiative is encouraged. Faculty officers are in constant attendance throughout the period, giving advice where it is needed and encouragement at all times.

* The orchestra provides musical diversion both for members of the group and the corps.

* (Below) Perfect study conditions prevail in Harlan's room. (Note the latest type of reading lamp.)

TAPS, at which time all lights must be turned out and all cadets remain quiet, is sounded at 10 o'clock. The soft notes of the bugle call to close the activities of an eventful day and the peace of slumber envelops healthy young bodies until another dawn.

Quiet descends and another day is ended for our busy cadet. Sleep . . . sweet, restful sleep.

A well organized program of instruction in social usage is a required course for all students, and advanced classes are available for those who desire them.

WENTWORTH UNIFORMS

The Wentworth uniforms are made of the finest materials. Beautifully fitted, they are suitable for every occasion, and they include every item a cadet may need.

The purpose of this book has been to give you an accurate, but necessarily inadequate glimpse of the Wentworth Military Academy and cadet life. In order fully to appreciate the Academy, it will be necessary for you to visit the campus in person, see the beautiful grounds and buildings and meet members of the faculty. The Administration offices are open the year 'round and your visit will be welcomed at any time.

SUMMER SCHOOL—A military summer school and camp of 8 weeks duration begins in early June. Activities are divided equally between scholastic work and recreation. Instruction is on a tutorial basis and nearly any subject may be taken.

Mr. Truman reviewing the Cadet Corps at Dress Parade during Founder's Day.

Ex-President Harry S. Truman with hat in hand standing after he had placed the wreath on the grave of Col. Sanford Sellers and just prior to the prayer given by the school chaplain, standing behind him.

SPECIAL EVENTS MARKED THE 75th ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF WENTWORTH During 1954-1955

Several special events were held, pictured below (or above). The first of these was to recognize Founders Day and honor the memory of Stephen G. Wentworth, the founder, and Col. Sanford Sellers, the first superintendent, who served as head of the Academy for 58 years. The speaker and honored guest was ex-President Harry S. Truman, who addressed the Cadet Corps and the guests in attendance and later placed wreaths on the graves of the two men who were honored. Mr. Truman was made an Honorary Colonel of the Wentworth Cadet Corps during the visit he and his wife made to the Academy.

The second event, although an annual one, our Wentworth show in Kansas City had the distinctive 75th Anniversary color.

The third special occasion was one which received nationwide publicity, a re-enactment of the Battle of Lexington which occurred in September of 1861. Joining with the Cadet Corps in actually portraying the Battle were units from the regular Army, the National Guard, and ROTC units of Kansas City. The leading citizens of the City of Lexington, and in fact the whole community, joined in preparation for this very unusual event. As much realism as possible was achieved, even including the co-operation of the elements because it rained continuously during the day, May 12, 1955, on which this event was held, as it had during the actual Battle, according to authentic records. Attending the event were many high ranking Army officers and other distinguished citizens, which made it one of the most remarkable days in the entire history of Wentworth Military Academy and of the City of Lexington.

The Wentworth Band at the annual Wentworth show in the Municipal Auditorium of Kansas City. The picture shows only a partial view of the beautiful arena and the guests who were in attendance.

The Honor Guard, the snap drill team of Wentworth, is invited on many special occasions to appear before the public. Pictured below is Secretary of the Army Robert Stevens, accompanied by Charles C. Stephenson, civilian assistant to the Secretary in this area, as they inspect the Honor Guard at the Grandview Air Base during Armed Forces Day, May 21, 1955.

The stage photographed from the rear of the Chapel during Commencement.

THE NEW CHAPEL

An outstanding addition to the facilities of Wentworth is the new chapel used for the first time during Commencement 1955. This building was dedicated November 6, 1955. An electric organ was installed a year ago and was used for the first time during the 1957 Commencement exercises. This building adds much to the life of Wentworth. It is used for assemblies, both religious and secular, for dramatics, and for moving pictures, both entertaining and educational, as part of our audio-visual program.

MEMORIES OF 1957-58

September 11—Wentworth opened its 78th academic year with a full enrollment today. My roommate and I came back together. The summer has come to a quick stop; a new year begins.

September 12—Got my room in order and drilled for an hour. The new cadets received a free pass to the show while we returning men had a meeting with the Department heads.

September 13—First classes for the year met today. My brother and I got together to swap some pennants and blankets.

September 14—Met our new PMS&T, Col. Link. We had our first drill today—say no more.

September 15—Went to church and A Company won second in parade. Took in an afternoon show.

September 16—Our first Trumpeter meeting met for the first time. I am to be editor. This has been a lazy day.

September 17—The school work is starting to pile up. With English composition, Spanish, Geology, American Government a military class, I stayed in and studied.

September 18—The corps had their physicals taken. Same as usual—normal.

September 19—We had our first late breakfast. I needed the extra hour of sleep.

September 20—Had my first conference with the head coaches, hope we have good teams.

September 21—My first letter today. Studied in the afternoon, took the evening off and went to the show.

September 22—A Company won first in parade. I had my first officer duty today.

September 24—Have a 500-word theme to write for English. Am getting the writer's cramp.

September 25—We had fried chicken for dinner. Studied for two hours. I have two exams tomorrow.

September 26—Wrote my first column for the year. It was on our new Battalion Commander Terry Buck and Col. H. E. Link.

September 27—Our H.S. team won their first football game beating MMA, 7-6. The college brought home a loss from Fairbury, 55-7.

September 28—First formal dance.

September 29—Kathy and her parents came down today. My roommate and I went out to eat a steak dinner. Had a wonderful time.

September 30—A blue Monday today. A bit cool but raining.

October 2—After studying last night, I took a permit to sleep for an extra two hours.

October 3—Another late breakfast. Took a test in Spanish and geology—hard, but passed.

October 4—The high school came back from St. Joe with a 31-0 loss. The Dragons lost to Joplin here, 54-0. A good night for football.

October 5—Received my ninth letter from Kathy. I wrote her my seventh.

October 6—A Company won parade today. Our mother came down today and took us home for a few hours. Back again at taps. Beautiful day. Dr. Payne Day, in honor of a noted physician in Lexington.

October 7—Rank came out today. My roommate is a new warrant officer. We took cold pills today.

October 8—A usual day, studied for a Spanish exam. Dancing classes started today under the direction of Mrs. Hepler.

October 9—Wrote my second column today. Weather still hot. Wrote a letter to mother and received three of them from her.

October 10—Late breakfast. Rather pleasant to arise with an extra hour of dreams behind us.

October 11—A sketch of the new college building to be built soon appeared in The Trumpeter. It is to be completed by 1959. I was born too soon! The H.S. lost to Maur Hill, 32-0.

October 13—Cleaned my room up today. A Company slipped today in parade. Fourth! Went to the show.

October 14—A big day. I received my commission as warrant officer. I am P.I.O. I wrote a letter to mother and called her.

October 15—A slow day today. I received a letter from home and Chuck Elliott.

October 16—Received permission to leave for Kansas City. It was really good to see my hometown. Called my mother.

October 17—Another late breakfast. No periods, and a test in military.

October 18—No mail today, shucks! Dr. Purdom, a leading guidance counselor, is here this week to discuss our problems.

October 19—The band, the Honor Guard and the Indian Dancers left for Kansas City to participate in the American Royal parade.

October 20—First in parade. My brother's roommate's father came down and we went to the American Royal.

October 21—Wrote a letter to Kathy and later I had a test in American government. Went to another Trumpeter meeting.

October 22—Another day, letters from home, same old thing. Basketball practice and C.Q.'s.

October 23—A Company lost its first football game today. Headquarters lead the pack with three victories. The Bn. Staff inspected our platoon today.

October 24—No free periods today. Our high school lost to Orrick, 21-6. An upset.

October 25—Dad's Day began today. The college won their game from Kansas City, Kansas J.C., 39-0. A lot of happy fathers, even if the weather was very cold.

October 26—Dad's Day. My girl's father and family were here. We had a nice banquet. The fathers did a grand job of marching. All ended too soon.

October 27—There was a 3-way tie for first place in parade, A, Hqs., and B Companies. Today the flu started here.

October 28—No classes. I worked all day at the hospital. Many cadets are sick.

October 29—Many more cadets are out. Worked all night at the hospital. Two letters.

October 30—The hospital is full with sick boys. No classes. It's fun playing nurse-maid to several cadets! Took a supper permit and went to the show.

October 31—Officer of the Day. Many cadets are leaving the hospital. A cold day. I caught up on my letter writing.

November 1—Another late breakfast—five straight ones. We need them. Went to my classes, first time in a week. The weekend will be devoted to studying for tests coming up next week. Capt. and Mrs. Bill Coulter announced the birth of a son, Anthony.

November 2—A very lazy morning, no classes and no drill. Caught up on some sleep. Went to the show and had an after snack at Maid-Rite with Chuck.

November 3—Spent the morning cleaning my room. Rodney Conn's parents came down and we went home to enjoy a steak dinner.

November 4—Tired from yesterday, but must study hard for exams. New NCO's rank came out today. There'll be a lot of boys sporting stripes tomorrow.

November 5—Practiced basketball for two hours. Cadets are already worrying about transportation tickets for Christmas. Why worry Mrs. Hepler? A four-page letter from mother.

November 6—A regular day. One hour of drill. Prepared myself for a test, took a "soupee" and went to bed early.

November 7—Usual late B.R.C. Made two good scores on geology and Spanish tests.

November 8—Took two more tests. The high school lost another one 34-6 to Odessa. Sam Lesley made our lone T.D.

November 9—No morning classes. A five-mile road march. Listened to the Oklahoma-Missouri game on the radio. Chuck, Nyle Workman, Capt. Long, Capt. Gwin and I made a trip into Kansas City to see "Around the World in 80 Days."

November 10—Another Sunday. Ike Skelton spoke at church today. "A" Company won parade and no roomskins. Spent the afternoon studying and went to the show in the evening.

November 11—Regular day—all classes met. Col. Link is an instructor in New Developments. The Honor Guard made a trip into Kansas City for Veterans' Day.

November 12—A very rainy day. Studied and hit the sack at 9 o'clock.

November 13—A very humid warm day. A letter from home today. Rifle inspection! Am I glad that I am an officer. Wrote my column. Stayed in and studied after practicing basketball. Did some research for American Government. Hit the hay rather late.

November 14—Late breakfast. A slow day. Studied for a geology test. My roommate and I enjoyed a late snack before turning in.

November 15—Worked on some Trumpeter assignments. The Benton Cardinals swamped us 26-0 at St. Joe. Maj. Pirhalla and I worked rather late processing Trumpeter copy.

November 16—The Military department designated the "Distinguished Military students." Col. Buck, Capt. Bartelt and Capt. Baston were selected. At assembly I took the officer's oath. Wrote a long letter to mom and one to my brother.

November 17—The usual Sunday activities, church; Neal Childers and I ate at the Dragon's Den and went to the show.

November 18—At last, the first day of snow fell. It was really a beautiful sight. Today the college team suffered three injuries. Mal Benedict is out with cracked ribs, Rupert Crymes and William Thompson have broken collar bones. "Duchess," our faithful nurse had a lot of work to do.

November 19—Our soccer team dropped a close decision to Park college. Received a good letter from my brother. Stayed in and did some serious thinking about Spanish.

November 20—Wrote some letters today during a free period. At assembly Rusty and Lois Koehler, two world's foremost trampoline performers, put on a thrill-and-spill act. After drill I had a Spanish class and took a nap. Had a steak dinner with Chuck at Maib's restaurant. Went to the show.

November 21—The government work shop was held today at Wentworth. I was one of seven panelists who argued the pros and cons of racial integration. Met a lot of Missouri College students and heard some fascinating news from the Kemper cadets.

November 22—Hurray, only one class today. I accomplished a feat long overdue. I washed and waxed our floors. Class work is getting heavier. Received a box of fudge from mother.

November 23—No classes today. John Whipple, Chuck, my brother and I enjoyed the fudge before taps. A good night's sleep.

November 24—My brother, Chuck and I went home today. "A" Company received another first in parade. We had fun riding all over our town, showing Chuck old memories.

November 25—We had our regular Trumpeter meeting today. A lot of paper work this week. Capt. John Smollen checked into the Military department today. He will be an assistant to Col. Link.

November 26—Studied hard for my two tests tomorrow. A panel of business leaders from Kansas City were featured at today's assembly. I went to bed an hour earlier tonight.

November 27—Woke up at 5 a.m. to study for the geology and English test which later resulted in good marks. I celebrated our forthcoming Kemper game at the Dragon's Den with some pals. Later, we had our annual pep rally for tomorrow's game.

November 28—Thanksgiving. A perfect day except for the game. Kemper finally beat us the first time in eight years—the score, 21-7. Roulette made our fourth quarter touchdown. Had a swell time at the dance. A very beautiful, crisp and bright day.

November 29—Only two classes today. I wrote up the sad Kemper game. Came back from an early supper, played a game of cards and turned in early.

November 30—Jack and Bill Roulette made first string All-Conference at the Interstate meeting. Maj. Pirhalla, Maj. Readecker and Capt. Slayton went to the meeting. After a tired week I churned away for a two-hour period and put my thoughts into a test for Monday. Today "A" Company was the winner of the platoon's competition and resulted in a drill holiday for the company.

December 1—A beautiful day. I went home for a few hours. "A" Company received third in parade—one roomskin. A grand day, indeed.

December 2—Finished up some six-weeks finals. In Spanish the Latin American boys sure do come in handy. Our Trumpeter meeting was held today. Tom Wainwright, our editor, presided. Sure tired from Sunday.

December 3—Wrote to my brother and his wife in Phoenix and received a letter from them.

December 4—Had drill on Guard Mount in the gym. Some of the Military 4 boys put on a show for us. "A Bernard and Bollinger production," a skit prepared by two of our army sergeants. Treated my roommate to a steak dinner at Maib's.

December 5—It's really nice to go to bed at 8 p.m. and get up at 7:30 a.m. A full day of classes. Really wears me down to see nothing but a teacher and a blackboard. It rained. Received two letters today.

December 6—Only one class today. Worked on my Trumpeter assignments. Went to the show tonight with Chuck. Took Mal Benedict's officer duty.

December 7—I am the officer in charge of "A" Company today. No classes for the college men because all the teachers have a meeting at Missouri U. No letters. The third snow fall came today. Fairly cold.

December 8—Tomorrow is my roommate's birthday, so I treated him to a show, "Pride and the Passion." It was very good. I later studied on a Spanish quiz. Still cold outside.

December 9—My brother received a letter sweater and a jewelry box from his girl. We had a little party for him. Ten more days until our Christmas furlough.

December 10—Practiced basketball along with other boys in "A" Company. We should win the Intramural championship. I play center. Later I had a "soupee" and studied again.

December 11—A regular Wednesday schedule. We had drill outdoors. It really doesn't seem like Christmas around here. My roommate applied today for his reservation tickets to go home for Christmas.

December 12—All classes met. Traded my officer's duty so I could go to the show. Late breakfast. Slept a little in the afternoon.

December 13—Bad luck today—no letters, no tests and no classes. Tough break. Wound up the day by writing a letter to a friend at K.U.

December 14—Quiet evening. No classes but I studied all day. Two long hours of drill. I read some hometown papers. It's nice to know what is going on back home. Our Christmas dance was held tonight.

December 15—Got up rather late to clean the room. Had breakfast with Capt. Brown this morning. Studied part of the day and then went uptown to do some Christmas shopping.

December 16—A big test in Spanish. Made an 88 on it. Third highest in class. Wrote my last letters for 1957.

December 17—We had our winter physical exams today. Gained a few pounds. Had an English test today on "Christmas Shopping." Had a cake at the table tonight. Very good.

December 18—One more day to go. Got my luggage out. Had two tests. Packed and went to bed early. The band performed at assembly.

December 19—Our first class will be held at 7:00. I am dismissed at 8:20 for freedom. Seventeen days of happiness. Five boys rode in to Kansas City with us. Received shaving lotion from church for a Christmas present.

January 3—Vacation is fast drawing to a close. These two weeks have been wonderful even if some of the time did have to be spent in research for my English term paper.

January 4—Left home this morning and caught my plane at 1:40. We arrived in Kansas City at 3:30 and I was met by my roommate, John Dillingham, and his parents. I visited with them that night at their home near Nashua.

January 5—The inevitable day dawns; we arrived in Lexington about 5:00 and by supper time, our room was practically straight. Regular study hours were observed tonight, but about all we did was relive the previous two weeks.

January 6—Talk about "Blue Mondays," this really took the cake. However, we soon got back into the swing of things; you can't be idle very long around here.

January 7—I was on floor chief duty tonight; naturally I got very little studying done. Earlier in the evening Gene Eaton and I took a supper permit and ate at the Dragon Den.

January 8—We drew rifles which we had turned into the Military Department before vacation. Most of the evening was spent working on my English paper. It turned much colder tonight.

January 9—I wonder if I will ever pass organic chemistry. After that class today, I don't think that I ever will—I guess this just wasn't one of my days.

January 10—Lucky me! I had rec room duty; I would have to pull duty on a night when the rec room had to be kept open till 10:00 because of permits.

January 11—Today the chaplain conducted a memorial service during chapel for alumni who died during the past year.

January 12—Hdqs. only took fourth in parade today; will have to work harder next Sunday. Several of us took a "soupee" and afterwards went to the movies.

January 13—Signed up for second semester classes today and bought my books. I'll be taking qualitative analysis, English literature, physics and comparative anatomy; should be fun!

January 14—Tonight is cold, snowy, and wet. Hdqs. basketball team played B Company this afternoon, and won 22-9; I made 6 points. The college varsity team played St. Paul and won, 61-54; my roommate is one of the main players on the college team.

January 15—I finally got my research paper turned in—what a relief not to have that hanging over my head! Spent most of the evening studying for "organic" final.

January 16—STOP DAY—after our last class we were free until taps with the exception of supper. I had my chemistry final this afternoon—sure hope I did O.K.

January 17—Late BRC because of the Stop Day yesterday. The college basketball team played Kemper tonight and won, 62-60; what a thriller!

January 18—Government class this morning and two hours of drill this afternoon. Reverend Schuessler of the Presbyterian church spoke this morning at chapel.

January 19—I played the organ at the Presbyterian church service this morning. Hdqs. took first in parade. My roommate's parents were down today, and I went to dinner with them. It's nice to eat out once in a while.

January 20—Had my first "qualitative lab" this morning, most of the time was spent cleaning up the bottles and other equipment. It started snowing tonight; rather cold.

January 21—It snowed all day, and by the time it stopped, 15 inches had accumulated. It's hard to get anywhere, but it certainly is beautiful. It's quite a task trying to march up the hill in snow over your ankles.

January 22—We had our English final today; think I did rather well. The sun came out today, but the snow is still deep.

January 23—Had my physics final today, and was it ever tough! Got two letters which pleased me very much.

January 24—Very little happened today out of the ordinary. I had a free afternoon as chemistry and English did not meet. Mrs. Alt, the chemistry teacher, is snowbound at her home in Carrollton.

January 25—I had my last final today—in government. Now the wait to see how my grades came out; think I did well in everything.

January 26—Played the organ at the Christian Church this morning. We took first in parade again. A number of us took "soupees" and then went to see "The Ten Commandments"; it was a wonderful movie.

January 27—The first semester grades came out today—Mother and Dad should be real happy as I was on the dean's special distinction list for the semester.

January 28—Maj. Etter gave us our dogfish specimens for comparative anatomy today—I'm beginning to wonder just what I have gotten myself into.

January 29—Fred Sellers and I studied tonight on anatomy notes we took yesterday; the study of protoplasm can certainly get involved.

January 30—I called Mother today as it was her birthday. My evening was spent in the gym helping decorate for the Military Ball this Saturday. This getting to bed at 12:15 doesn't go over very big with me.

January 31—Had five straight classes today, then band for two hours. It started snowing again today, but there were only about two inches this time.

February 1—Tonight was the annual Military Ball. The decorations were beautiful and the orchestra was excellent. I didn't even have too much trouble in the receiving line. Too bad these nights can't last forever.

February 2—The young lady who was my date last night, Miss Julie Horner of Kansas City, went to church with me this morning. Headquarters won the parade this afternoon which made us very happy. We received three guidons for military, disciplinary, and scholastic excellence.

February 3—Another one of those blue, blue Mondays. However, Mom sent some wonderful candy which made things seem much better.

February 4—The high school basketball team beat Grain Valley 32-29 in a hair-raising game; our team certainly looked good. The snow has started to melt quite a bit now; can't say that I'm too sorry about that.

February 5—I put in a little extra time in the anatomy lab this morning; maybe I'll be ready for the practical test tomorrow. It's sure easy to get behind in there.

February 6—Late breakfast this morning. I had good intentions of getting up early this morning and doing some extra studying, but I just turned off the alarm and went back to sleep.

February 7—We had a physics test this morning on magnetism and electrostatics; I don't think I did too well on this one.

February 8—It turned very cold today. Our horns froze tonight when we were playing for retreat. Got a letter from Mom this morning.

February 9—Fred Sellers came in for a bull session tonight. Naturally, we got little studying done, but you have to have a break once in a while.

February 10—The band had to practice the snap drill in the snow this afternoon; I don't think we have ever been colder in our lives.

February 11—The college team played at Trenton tonight, and unfortunately lost 65-53. Tonight was extremely cold and uncomfortable to be outside; the temperature was close to zero.

February 12—Maj. Gen. Ellery visited the campus today. The acts to be in the Wentworth show gave the corps a preview of their talent at assembly this morning.

February 13—Today was beautiful and much warmer. We all took advantage of the extra hour of sleep because of the usual late breakfast on Thursday.

February 14—We had a terrible English test today; I'm afraid that I completely missed the boat. We had some snow again, but the day turned out to be very pretty and not too very cold. I'll be ready for some warm weather. It can be mighty cold standing in formation at 6:30 in the morning.

February 15—We didn't have regular drill today; instead the band practiced in the band room in preparation for the Wentworth Show in Kansas City on February 21.

February 16—Being Sunday, I slept until 8:30. Gene Eaton and I walked to church this morning. We got rather cold as the temperature was 1 degree above zero.

February 17—Felt a little under the weather today. The Duchess gave me a shot of penicillin at morning sick call. In the afternoon I went back and she put me in the hospital. For once I really didn't care.

February 18—The hospital wouldn't be so bad if we could get something to eat. Soup can get mighty old when you feel like you are starving to death. I slept a good part of the day since I couldn't study.

February 19—Felt fine today, but the doctor kept me in for another day. Sure wish my fever would go down.

February 20—Finally got out this morning. I find that I'm quite far behind in everything; hope I can catch up without too much trouble.

February 21—Mother and Dad came for the Wentworth Show. They came out to Lexington in the afternoon to see me. The show was a big success. Approximately 7,500 people attended. After the show I visited with my folks until time for us to leave.

February 22—Late breakfast and drill holiday because of the show last night. Too bad this thing can't come more often. Mother and Dad came out this evening with my roommate and I ate downtown with them.

February 23—We all went to church together this morning. Mother and Dad had never eaten in the dining room so they were there at noon, as guests at Col. Sellers' table.

February 24—Today was a wonderful day for me—I was made 1st Sergeant of Headquarters Company. The Scholastic Banquet which we won was held at the Country Club; the steaks were very good.

February 25—For once not much happened today. The college team played at Kansas City Junior College, but was defeated.

February 26—It rained all day today which made the formations quite unpleasant. If I don't get some mail from home pretty quick, there's going to be all-out war!

February 27—It rained quite a bit again today. The band went to the Veterans Hospital at Excelsior Springs tonight to present a concert for the patients.

February 28—The Educational Tour group left tonight on their trip to the East. My roommate went this year, but unfortunately I didn't get to go. The trip to Bermuda last year drained most of my finances.

March 1—Maj. John Readecker, Maj. John Pirhalla, and Capt. William Slayton attended an Interstate Conference meeting in Kansas City, Kans.

March 2—During the afternoon, I crammed for six weeks tests coming up this week. I hope to make the Dean's special distinction list again.

March 3—Had my six weeks test in English today; after being in the hospital for a few days, I was kind of behind, but think that I did pretty well.

March 4—The anatomy test was this morning. It wasn't nearly as hard as I thought it would be; think I did pretty well.

March 5—Since all of my tests are over, I celebrated by going to the movie tonight. It was nice to get out after studying so hard all week.

March 6—That wonderful day is here at last—furlough! My last class ended at 9:30, and it didn't take me long to get ready to leave. Fred Sellers drove several of us into Kansas City to catch a plane. It rained most of the day which made it bad for traveling.

March 7—It surely was good to sleep late for the first time in several months. Later in the morning, I went downtown to get a haircut and see several people that I know.

March 8—Just another day of lounging around—what a life! Tuesday will be here before I know it and I will have to leave. Oh well, I won't think about that now.

March 9—Went to church with Mother and Dad. Saw a lot of people and talked for a long time after church.

March 10—Mother and I went to the University of Oklahoma today to check several things for next year. I think I am really going to like a civilian college for a change, but I have also liked Wentworth.

March 11—All good things have to end sometime, and this is no exception. We had to leave home at 5:30 A.M., in order for me to catch a plane at 8:30. The flight was very nice and we arrived in Kansas City at 1:30. I ate lunch at the bus station and caught the Lexington bus at 2:30. My roommate will be on furlough until Friday, so I had to straighten up the room myself. It wasn't in too bad a shape, though.

March 12—Even though I was only away five days, it was hard to get back to reality. Classes were a chore today. I'll have plenty to do the next few days, so I won't have a chance to think about the good time I had at home.

March 13—We were all glad for the late breakfast as few of us have caught up on our sleep.

March 14—Furlough for those on the educational tour ended this afternoon. My roommate said the trip was everything and more than they had expected. Sure wish I could have gone this year.

March 15—Had two hours of lab in Qualitative Analysis this morning. Those unknowns can be a pain in the neck!

March 16—Headquarters had an excellent Sunday inspection and we also took first in parade. Several of us took supper permits and ate at the Dragon Den. I came back to the barracks and studied afterwards.

March 17—I took officer's duty in the barracks during 1st C.Q. for John who was at the practice for the "W" Club show Friday night.

March 18—Company softball started today. Hope we do as well as we did in football and basketball since we took championships in both. It's still pretty cold; I wonder if spring is ever going to come.

March 19—My roommate slept on the floor in a gunny sack as part of his initiation into the "W" Club. I really hit the jackpot at mail call this noon—I got FIVE letters! Wish that happened every day.

March 20—Today several men from the University of Missouri were on the campus for the annual inspection of the Jr. College Scholastic Department. We all had to be on our toes scholastically today.

March 21—The "W" Club show was held tonight. It was an excellent performance; very humorous and entertaining. Quite a fitting climax for the members after their hectic initiation week.

March 22—Drill today consisted of squad combat formations; never did know exactly what I was doing. Jack Benny was a guest star at the Philharmonic Concert in Kansas City tonight. Eight cadets were guests at the benefit concert. It was quite an enjoyable evening. We went in with Col. and Mrs. Sellers and enjoyed a wonderful meal at the Golden Ox before the concert.

March 23—Headquarters won parade again this Sunday. Sure hope we can keep up the good work. Took a supper permit tonight with John and Glen Dille. Spent the rest of the evening studying.

March 24—The Disciplinary Banquet for Headquarters was held tonight at the Country Club. We all had a wonderful evening.

March 25—We started work on the cat today in Comparative Anatomy. I didn't know that a skull had so many parts; I don't think I will ever learn them!

March 26—It's starting to get warm, finally. I'm sure that it won't be long before I will wish that it was cold again. Drill today was held in the gym where Sgt. Haviland gave an instruction in platoon combat formations.

March 27—The band practiced on the Snap Drill this afternoon in preparation for the ROTC circus to be held tomorrow night in Kansas City.

March 28—The drill looked real good tonight. All the ROTC units from the Kansas City area as well as the units from several military schools over the state participated. A lot of work went into getting the demonstrations in shape.

March 29—First call came very early this morning since we didn't get in until late. Worked hard on my unknowns in "Qual" this morning. Maybe I'll be a chemist yet!

March 30—Had officer's duty in the barracks tonight. Sunday night is the time to be on as it is relatively quiet. Today was a beautiful day.

March 31—Headquarters played A Company in softball and won 14-13—quite an exciting game. Had a permit tonight, but didn't go anywhere; there's just too much studying to be done.

April 1—Another month has begun. It just doesn't seem possible that time can pass so quickly. I took a "soupee" and permit tonight, but I stayed in and studied.

April 2—Boy, all morning was free. We had a lecture in the chapel for military today. I went to a very good show tonight. Sure is nice to relax every once in a while.

April 3—I sure enjoyed that late BRC today. I wrote my girl friend and asked her to the Commencement Ball. I sure hope she can come. I went to bed early tonight.

April 4—Well, another week is drawing to a close. I took a "soupee" tonight and ate out. It is kind of expensive, but it sure relieves the monotony.

April 5—I almost forgot to go to International Relations Class this morning. I did forget once and ended up in excess. I hope it never happens again. The Military Department is really working hard to get us in shape for GI.

April 6—Today was easter. The band had been scheduled to play for Sunrise Service, but inclement weather cancelled that. I guess I was glad, for I didn't much want to get up at 5:30 anyway. Tom and I went to church. Headquarters won parade again today.

April 7—For me, this is always the worst day of the week. Wow, just a week before GI. I am going to have to get busy on the room.

April 8—Man, is botany lab getting hard. I am going to have to put in some extra time on it. There was a college track meet with Kansas City in the afternoon. We won and Otto Ludewig set a new school and meet record in the two-mile run.

April 9—Today we prepared for review. There is going to be a lot of hard work before GI.

April 10—We had a late breakfast this morning. Sure appreciated that extra hour in the sack. There was a dual track meet with Highland Junior College this afternoon. It ended in a tie. Imagine everyone's surprise when Colonel Sellers announced a stop-day.

April 11—Everybody was busy getting supplies for tomorrow. Botany was pretty rough today.

April 12—My roommates and I got up early and started moving every thing out of the room to start cleaning. We worked all morning and were really tired that night.

April 13—We didn't have to go to church this morning. We were too tired anyway. The military department inspected the rooms after a practice review. Ours was given the good word, and we went to the show in the evening. It was "Don't Go Near the Water", and was hilariously funny.

April 14—This is it. We got up an hour early and after breakfast cleaned our room in preparation for inspection. Everybody was a little nervous, I think, when the inspecting officer walked into the room, but he soon put us at ease. We had a very neat room, he said.

April 15—We had a late breakfast and it was really appreciated. Colonel Link told us at breakfast that we had done very well and that he was very proud of us.

April 16—Back in the groove at last! Although it is difficult to study, I think the whole corps is suffering from the same case of acute spring fever that I have. The college track team won a triangular meet today.

April 17—There was no late breakfast this morning, but everyone was fairly well rested up. I took a "soupee" and ate at the Dragon's Den. It sure is good to get out once in a while. Went to bed with nightmares of a botany test tomorrow.

April 18—What a rough botany test. I sure hope I did all right. Tom Wainwright and I have made arrangements to take a furlough April 25. We are both looking forward to it.

April 19—Got up early at 5:00 to study for an International Relations test, but I went back to bed shortly after showering. Some will power! We had two hours of lecture in the chapel for military today. Boy, was it hot! I took a permit tonight and studied with Tom.

April 20—What a beautiful day! Tom and I went to church. We had the first outdoor parade of the spring today. It sure seems nice to get outside again.

April 21—I was sure worried today about an English Lit test. I studied all morning for it and still didn't do very well. My morale was rather low this afternoon.

April 22—The Juco track team left this morning for a dual track meet at Highland. We lost. I had a hard time studying tonight.

April 23—It was my roommate's birthday and we annoyed him no end. We even managed to take him down and spank him. He finally forgave us and condescended to give us some of his birthday cake.

April 24—Botany lab again! I can't afford to miss any of it though. I am really sweating a term paper. It seems there is always something to worry about.

April 25—Tom and I left for a glorious week end.

April 27—What a swell time we had! It is really relaxing to escape school for a while. We got back at 9:30, just in time to check in.

April 28—My term paper is coming along pretty well now. I sure wish Mom could come down for Mother's Day, but it is impossible.

April 29—That vacation sure did me good. I was able to concentrate on my work. It won't be long till school is over.

April 30—Well, just one more month to go. Botany lab was pretty rough today. That plant classification is giving me fits. I took a permit tonight, but stayed in and studied.

May 1—John Dillingham received his letter of appointment as an O. M. Stewart Scholar for the 1958-59 academic year at the University of Missouri. He will major in physics.

May 2—Tom Wainwright, Gene Eaton and Fred Conrad of The Trumpeter staff attended the annual meeting of the Missouri College Newspaper association at Columbia. These cadets together garnered eleven No. 1 ratings in newspaper writing contests.

May 3—Thirty college students, members of Lt. Col. W. L. Stagner's geology classes, left for a three-day field trip to the Lake of the Ozarks area.

May 4—The annual NCO parade was held today. We had a heavy rain in the morning, but the weather cleared up in the afternoon.

May 5—Headquarters Company, winner of the scholastic competition, was treated to a steak dinner at the Wentworth Country Club. The chaplain, the Rev. John Lembcke, the guest speaker, gave a good talk.

May 6—Wentworth High School won the Lafayette County track meet this afternoon. I took a permit this evening. The movie was so-so, but at least it was a welcome diversion.

May 7—Spent most of the evening on a research project for my history class. I am just about ready to start writing the final draft.

May 8—Practiced dance band during activity period. We play for a prom at Fort Osage Saturday night.

May 9—The Junior College track team defeated Kemper in a meet here today.

May 10—Captain Wiloff took several high school tennis players to an invitational meet at Marshall. Drill was a little rough—a long hike.

May 11—Mother's Day! One hundred fifty-five mothers, including my own, were here for the annual event. It was a lovely spring day and the program was thoroughly enjoyed by the visitors.

May 12—The Trumpeter staff had a steak dinner at Maib's. Colonel Sellers, a guest, spoke briefly, telling how much he enjoyed working on the school paper back in the years when he was a cadet.

May 13—Headquarters treated to another steak dinner at the Country Club, this time for capturing disciplinary honors. George Stier, Lexington businessman, was the principal speaker.

May 14—Colonel Sellers met with all junior college sophomores, giving them an orientation talk on some of the problems they will encounter when they go to four-year colleges next fall.

May 15—Late BRC. That extra hour of sleep is always welcome.

May 16—Two free periods. Slept a little while this afternoon.

May 17—Saturday. No classes. Studied for my chemistry exam. I hope to make an "E" in the course.

May 18—My roommate's folks were down today. After parade they took us out for a long drive and for a fried chicken supper.

May 19—One of the boys at my table had a birthday today. That called for a cake and ice cream at the evening meal.

May 20—Terry Buck was notified that he has been awarded a curator's junior college scholarship at the University of Missouri next year.

May 21—Practiced concert music in band to day, getting ready for our presentation that starts commencement activities.

May 22—The corps went to Kansas City to see the Athletics play Boston. Sure was tired when we returned to the campus.

May 23—Had my finals in English literature. I did better than I expected.

May 24—We practiced our commencement formations under Colonel Seller's direction.

May 25—The New Boy Parade was held this afternoon, with first year cadets taking over all command positions.

May 26—Final examinations started today. Another week and the school year will be over.

May 27—Worked almost all night for that final exam in biology.

May 28—Tests and more tests, and two more days of the same routine.

May 29—Parents are already coming in for commencement activities. My folks will be in sometime tomorrow afternoon.

May 30—The commencement concert was presented this evening. Captain Bell told us that we did a good job.

May 31—Military demonstrations, the awards convocation, and the commencement dance—a full day and I enjoyed every minute of it.

June 1—The Rev. John Lembcke, our chaplain, gave the baccalaureate sermon. In the afternoon we had our farewell parade, followed by the traditional flag ceremony on the quadrangle. Dr. George C. Baker of Southern Methodist University was our commencement speaker.

June 2—It's all over. Many boys left with their parents after last night's commencement. The others leave this morning. I have been looking forward to this day, but now that it is here, I am sad at the thought of leaving. I wouldn't take anything for my happy years at Wentworth and the many friendships that I formed here. Farewell, Wentworth. Thanks for everything. You'll always have an important place in my memories.
