

WENTWORTH MILITARY ACADEMY

ESTABLISHED 1880 — LEXINGTON, MO.

HIGH SCHOOL AND JUNIOR COLLEGE

WENTWORTH'S PURPOSE

It is the purpose of Wentworth Military Academy to provide the best conditions possible for the all 'round development of worthy boys and young men.

To attain this high purpose, the Academy places greatest emphasis upon these four points:

First, it is the Academy's aim to assemble only the highest types of students—deserving youths of good parentage—to assure wholesome associations and greater progress. Every precaution is taken to keep undesirable boys—all those that might prove detrimental to others—out of the Academy.

Second, to employ only men of highest character and ability for its faculty. It is not enough for a Wentworth faculty member to be merely a scholar and a splendid instructor. He must also possess a spirit of friendliness and a sincere desire to give kindly help whenever necessary. He must thoroughly understand the innermost problems of boys—be patient with them—and be ready to serve each boy to the best of his ability.

Third, to provide the very best equipment throughout every department to the end that every boy will have all those things necessary to his health and happiness and that none shall want for anything that will help him to make progress.

Fourth, to provide a program for each day that will best serve the interests of every student.

SINCE EIGHTEEN EIGHTY

One of the chief reasons why Wentworth has been able to achieve its lofty purpose lies in the fact that the Academy has been under one continuous administration since its founding. For nearly three-score years, Colonel Sanford Sellers was president of Wentworth. He enjoyed one of the most enviable records in the history of American education.

The Academy was founded by Stephen G. Wentworth, scion of a distinguished English family and a prominent Lexington banker, in 1880, as a memorial to his deceased son, William Wentworth. Mr. Wentworth immediately vested control of the institution in the hands of a board of trustees composed of a duly elected representative of each of the Evangelical churches of Lexington, and a president. Colonel Sellers was called to the new school in its first year and remained as its active head until 1938. Mr. Wentworth served as president of the Board from 1880 until his death in 1897.

It was the firm conviction of the founder, his board of trustees and President Sellers that a military boarding school provides the most effective possible means for giving young men the thorough mental, moral and physical training necessary to develop in them the highest traits of manhood. Thus, Wentworth became the first military school in the Missouri River Valley.

From the beginning the late President Sellers surrounded himself with the ablest faculty available—strong men of proved qualities and Christian character. Under his wise and forward-looking direction, Wentworth has grown steadily. Each year has shown marked improvement over the preceding year. Today Wentworth stands as one of the truly great educational institutions of our country—second to none in the opportunities it offers boys and young men for thorough preparation for professional studies, business and for life.

AN HISTORIC BACKGROUND

Throughout over half a century the Wentworth purpose has remained unchanged. The ideals which led to the Academy's founding and which have carried it steadily forward, shine just as brightly today as ever: the desire to give each youth every opportunity to develop fully his own individual personality; the aim that every cadet shall acquire a keen sense of duty and responsibility, both to himself and toward others; that he shall have the mental and moral power to make accurate judgment between right and wrong and the physical power to stand by his convictions.

These high standards have dominated Wentworth for generations. But to maintain them and assure their full and continuous application, it has been found necessary to limit the enrollment. Wentworth today is a relatively small school—many times larger than in 1880, to be sure, yet small enough that every individual student is given the private attention so essential to his all-round development.

The surrounding country affords a wealth of historically important Civil War sites; and the town of Lexington itself retains much of the tradition of the old south. Here enthusiasm for the reminders of our country's glorious past is combined with the enthusiasm for modern adventure to promote the rapid development of the boy's mental, moral and physical resources.

YESTERDAY

Above is pictured the first company ever assembled at Wentworth. From this humble beginning, the Academy has marched forward over a trail of development that has placed it in the front rank of America's best military schools.

and TODAY

The Wentworth Military Academy of today is vastly different from the Wentworth of 1880. From year to year it has enlarged its facilities, increased its enrollment and changed its physical appearance until there is little to remind one of the early days. Numerous modern and attractive buildings have been erected as they were needed. Old buildings have been torn away when they were no longer useful. Spacious military and athletic fields have been added. One of the finest gymnasiums in the country has been built. Every new method in teaching that has been found definitely superior to older methods has been adopted. Yet, some of the fundamental principles that guided the first company are adhered to just as strictly today.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT

MILITARY training at Wentworth has been a strong feature since 1895 when the first active army officer was detailed to the Academy but has never been permitted to interfere with scholastic work.

Today the Reserve Officer Training Corps program (ROTC) at Wentworth is administered by Regular Army personnel, consisting of three commissioned officers and five non-commissioned officers, who are in charge of instruction.

Cadets are taught the theoretical aspects of the basic military subjects through formal classroom-type instruction. Each Wednesday afternoon during the regular drill period the cadets apply those fundamentals learned. During the fall and spring of each school year the cadet corps participates in a field training program during the drill period. Initially, stress is placed on proficiency of the individual in such subjects as first aid, physical fitness and individual combat training. Later through instruction in combat formation, battle drill, patrolling and bivouac training. During the spring this training is culminated when the cadet corps participates in a field exercise which includes a tactical march and overnight bivouac.

Through participation in the ROTC six year Military Schools program, a cadet receives all necessary ROTC training to qualify for a Reserve Army Commission once he has attained a baccalaureate degree.

Wentworth is proud to be one of the original Honor Schools of the United States, the highest rating given by the Department of the Army.

* Patriotism is no sham at Wentworth. Every cadet is taught the real meaning of our flag. Each day, with appropriate ceremonies, the Stars and Stripes are raised and lowered on the towering flag pole.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Within Wentworth's Administration Building are handsomely furnished parlors, corridors and reception rooms. Among its furnishings and decorations students and guests alike find many articles of interest and rare beauty. Its comfortable furnishings amid peaceful surroundings afford a homelike atmosphere where the new cadet readily adapts himself to a wholesome, happy experience. Here in an atmosphere of quiet dignity, every student is privileged to entertain his guests or to spend his leisure moments as governed by his daily schedule. None of the comforts of the modern home have been excluded in Wentworth's plan to provide the finest training and quarters available.

About the CAMPUS

★ Memorial Chapel

Nature and man have joined forces at Wentworth to produce a campus of outstanding beauty. Magnificent trees, of many varieties, blend in perfect harmony with modern, attractive buildings and spacious grounds. The Academy is located just at the edge of Lexington and covers 52 acres. The front campus extends over four city blocks and is dotted with massive elms and glorious flower banks that provide enchantment and inspiration. The back campus includes athletic and military fields and the new stadium. There are ten thoroughly modern buildings on the campus, each built for the exact purpose it serves. They are of brick and stone construction and are heated by steam and hot water.

THE WENTWORTH COUNTRY CLUB

Located on one of the most beautiful spots overlooking the Missouri River, the Golf Course and Country Club add variety to the many facilities available to the Wentworth students. The nine-hole golf course is most attractive and sporty. The club house, with its catering equipment, is ideal for many informal parties held throughout the year. And in the stable are found horses suitable for the tyro as well as the expert rider.

SCHOLASTIC

Wentworth's up-to-date Sellers - Wikoff Scholastic Building is the nucleus of the scholastic department. This magnificent structure contains one of the most splendid libraries possessed by any institution of this kind. Four completely equipped laboratories provide excellent facilities for the practical study of the sciences. In addition to classrooms for all classes, it houses the Dean's and Commandant's offices. It is with justifiable pride that Wentworth points to this new achievement in its effort to provide surroundings which are conducive to academic advancement.

* The attractive library contains thousands of volumes, providing every necessary supplement to the student's texts and manuals.

* Visual Aids are being used to a great extent to supplement lectures by instructors. The Academy has the best equipment available and has established a liberal budget for rental of motion pictures for class work.

★ Sellers-Wikoff Scholastic Building.

Geology is a science of particular interest to boys of the midwest.

DEPARTMENT

The scholastic department is divided into two separate and distinct units: the high school, which offers four years of preparatory work, and the junior college, which offers two years of liberal arts and science. Each has its own organization separate from the other. Both divisions are fully accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, an organization composed of the leading colleges and preparatory schools in twenty states. This recognition means that graduates of either department are eligible to enter any institution in the United States that receives students by certification.

It is our aim to see that each cadet masters every lesson thoroughly. To accomplish this, every student is taught correct study methods and thoroughly schooled in correct uses of libraries and laboratories. Classes are small, which permits individual attention. Most of the faculty members live in the buildings with students. They are readily accessible for special help. From time to time a personal study is made of each cadet to determine his points of weakness and help him overcome them.

★ The laboratory for elementary classes in chemistry provides many costly instruments not provided for in many schools but which Wentworth believes are important to the proper study of chemistry.

★ The laboratory for the advanced chemistry classes is even more completely equipped.

A valuable addition to the Wentworth campus is Sandford Sellers, Sr. Hall, a three-quarter million dollar air-conditioned junior college dormitory and kitchen and dining hall wing opened for use last fall.

The building is named after the late Col. Sandford Sellers, Sr., president of Wentworth for 52 years. He was the father of Wentworth's present president, Col. James M. Sellers.

AVIATION FLIGHT TRAINING GROUP

AVIATION

Wentworth participated in the Federal Aeronautics Administration Civilian Pilot Training Program from its inception in 1939 through the change to C. A. A. War Training Service until June, 1943, when all but 80 out of 712 colleges and universities throughout the country were eliminated due to curtailment of this type of training. However, the academy administration, believing aviation training to be very important now and in the future to the youth of the nation, secured permission from F. A. A. officials to continue flight training on a civilian basis and at the expense of the trainee.

Wentworth operates in conjunction with the Earl Haines Flying Service at the Lexington Airport as a certified flying school fully approved by the F. A. A. The flight training program, including ground school, far surpasses the minimum requirements set forth by the Federal Aeronautics Administration qualifying cadets for Private and Commercial Pilot Certificates. It consists of instruction in both dual and solo flight time.

The records of the graduates of the Wentworth Flight Training are outstanding. During the war the graduates of this training program fought on every front where Americans were in combat.

A DAY

AT WENTWORTH

NO TWO days at Wentworth are quite the same, for a widely varied program of scholastic, military, athletic and other activities is used to keep the interest of the cadets at high pitch and their appetites for learning well whetted. Furthermore, no two students have quite the same duties to perform throughout any given day. There is, however, a definite routine that all cadets follow each day. It is used to instill perfect regularity and promptness in attendance upon all duties prescribed for one and all cadets alike.

While it requires some adjustments for new students to become accustomed to this routine, any slight hint of monotony is soon lost in the kaleidoscopic whirl of the school year.

To give parents and others a better insight, the following pages have been used to set forth, pictorially, the day's activities from Reveille to Taps, of a typical Wentworth boy whom we will designate as Cadet Harlan.

The pictures in this section were taken several years ago. However, since they illustrate life at Wentworth of today, they are still timely. They are retained because so many of the cadets shown served in the Armed Forces of their country and so well illustrate the value of military training as received while at Wentworth.

Since the importance of military preparedness is becoming increasingly evident by the changing world situation, the training illustrated in this picture section has a special significance.

There have been some uniform changes as may be seen by referring to the section on Wentworth uniforms.

★ Harlan—a typical Wentworth cadet.

HERE is Harlan, a typical Wentworth cadet—a fine young American—manly, scholarly and upright. His respect for duty and responsibility has won for him the rank of sergeant. He may have come from a large city or a very small town—that makes no difference to the democratic spirit that prevails at Wentworth. He may be from a wealthy family or a family in meager circumstances—most of his classmates would never know, nor even be curious, unless he chose to tell them. But he typifies all the fine qualities of a deserving and ambitious youth as he goes through the tried and age-proved Wentworth process of becoming a real man, a real asset to himself, his family and friends, and society as a whole.

Harlan, like all the others, participates in many activities besides those shown. But let's follow him through a typical day.

Harlan "Butch" Heffelfinger, who graduated in the class of 1927 and posed as the model cadet in the view book, served as a Major in the last war.

His brother, Hugo, another Wentworth alumnus, also a Major, and served with distinction with the Rogers.

Artie Heffelfinger served with the Navy Air Corps as an Ensign.

* Harlan's first duty is a thorough, refreshing wash before breakfast.

"I CAN'T GET 'EM UP," blows the bugler, but he does, and at 6:35 o'clock another day is under way. Cadet Harlan goes first to the sanitary lavatory on his floor. A good washup is part of the routine, for a cadet is expected to keep himself clean at all times. At 6:50 he goes to a well-prepared breakfast.

After breakfast, rooms must be cleaned. One of the basic aims of our system is to form personal habits of order. Each morning Harlan makes his own bed, puts his clothes in order and helps his roommate clean the room.

* Harlan makes up his own bed.

Strict inspection of quarters is a daily routine. Formal inspection of Harlan's person, room and equipment occurs on Sunday morning. At this time unusual care must be taken in cleaning the room. Our friend sees that hidden corners are carefully dusted, chairs polished, and everything put in order. Then he takes care of his person. There's brass to shine, leather to polish, hair to brush, and whiskers to be removed. A certain time is allotted for this preparation and all work must be done within that time. This young fellow knows that any deficiency in this work receives what is known in Academy language as a "skin"—which counts against one's company in color competition.

*Harlan is ready for the inspector — brass gleaming, shoes shined—room as clean as the proverbial "hound's tooth."

* Here Harlan delves into things scientific. Modern equipment is provided for all laboratory work.

AT 8 O'CLOCK in the morning, classes convene. Harlan makes his way to a small class on his schedule where personal attention is his at any time it is needed. Our cadet is carefully instructed in the handling of delicate scientific equipment. He is not forced to grope blindly for information. That which is true of the science laboratories is equally true in all other classrooms.

Time passes rapidly in the classroom or laboratory because the work is interesting. The scholastic day is divided into two equal parts, with four classes in the morning and two in the afternoon.

*Our Cadet goes through a course of calisthenics to promote grace and health.

All the cadets shown in the picture were in the Armed Service.

CALISTHENICS play an important role in the physical education of Cadet Harlan. No effort is made to indulge in this or any other exercise in the early morning hours when the body is at its lowest ebb. All such exercises are taken by our cadet after a hearty breakfast and morning classes. The exercises are intended to promote graceful movement as well as better health. The calisthenics used by the United States Army are followed. They are led by senior cadet officers.

So long as the weather permits, the calisthenics are held in the open, but they are taken in the large gymnasium, where an entire battalion may take part at the same time, when rain or cold is in the air.

*The ten excellent tennis courts are always popular.

* Cadet Harlan reports to the Professor of Military Science and Tactics for drill duty.

Cadet Lieutenant Jack Ramsdell commanding the platoon shown in these two views, participated as an officer in the landing on North Africa. He was decorated with the Silver Star for heroism in action and Purple Heart.

DRILL is a very formal affair. It is on the drill field that Harlan learns much of courtesy, discipline and alertness. He, with his entire battalion, is thoroughly schooled in good citizenship, taught the proper respect for superiors and trained in leadership.

Learning to drill a squad is the first training in leadership. Throughout the year squad drill and competition is a part of the regular military routine. The squad is the smallest military unit and consists of nine to twelve men, two of whom are sergeants. All instruction is conducted by cadets under the personal supervision of members of the military faculty.

Although military work takes but one hour each day, the training is intensive and much more thorough than that found in larger units. Personal attention is given the individual cadet on the military field as well as in the classroom, and each cadet has an equal chance to advance to important positions in Wentworth's military realm. In the army, the navy and the marine corps Wentworth is glorified by its alumni who have received their commissions and are distinguishing themselves in official capacities of these respective branches of service.

Like many other cadets, Harlan finds the extended order drill more interesting. This drill consists of combat methods. He is taught to make use of cover, to advance and to fire. No actual firing is done during this drill, however, for all the ammunition used is dummy material. Initiative and leadership are required in this work. Situations arising in the problems furnished by the War Department call for quick thinking and immediate action.

Here our typical cadet finds extended order drill interesting and instructive.

The Cadet Officer using the field glasses was Captain Woodrow Wylie, U. S. Army, who participated in the fight on Bataan.

The cadet about to insert the cartridge in his rifle is Lieut.-Colonel Milton Moran, U. S. Marine Air Corps. He participated in considerable action in the South Pacific.

★ Eating—an always-popular “sport” with Harlan and his fellow cadets! Meal time is always a time for good food and good fellowship.

The Faculty Officer at the head of the table is Major Robert D. Hopler, assistant dean. The lady is his wife, Mrs. Beth Hopler, the academy's hostess and social director.

FOLLOWING the morning classes comes lunch time and our cadet is ready to eat. Academy menus are always varied and pleasing. Meals are carefully planned to suit the needs of all cadets. They are healthful and nutritious and just what active, hard-working boys require. Meal times are at 7:00 in the morning, 12:10 and 6:10. This schedule is varied only on Sunday, when dinner becomes a more elaborate meal served at 12:30.

After dinner there is a recreation period during which Harlan and other cadets may do pretty much as they choose. The recreation room is a popular place at this time.

*Maybe Harlan is "behind the 8-ball" here! Like all other cadets he takes part in zestful competition in the recreation room.

*The television set in the recreation room enables cadets to enjoy their favorite programs.

THE recreation room proves a haven of rest, relaxation and zestful indoor competition. Pool, billiard and ping-pong tables are provided. A few try their hand at bridge, while others read, or relax in comfortable chairs.

*(Right) Our friend attends a chapel period, held twice each week.

*(Below) "We must get in there and fight!" says Harlan as he makes a short "pep" talk on the eve of a game.

CADET HARLAN attends interesting, informative and inspirational meetings in the chapel, immediately before lunch on Wednesdays and Saturdays. These meetings are conducted by the Academy Chaplain, but are not strictly religious. Travel talks, health lectures, scientific demonstrations and short sermons, presented by outstanding speakers, are frequently on the program. The service is opened with a hymn, prayer and responsive readings, and closed with the singing of "Wentworth," the Academy song.

"Pep" meetings, preceding important athletic contests, are held in the gymnasium. These are always occasions of great fun. Students and faculty make rousing speeches. The cadet band furnishes gay, martial music and everyone anticipates the big game on the morrow. Athletic contests are important recreational events. Every cadet attends them.

*While a majority of the faculty members live in the barracks with cadets, some live in residences such as this on the campus.

*All shined up for Sunday inspection.

*Our Cadet receives personal attention from a faculty member in the library.

In this picture, the Tactical Officer, James Simmons, graduate of Wentworth, is now a Colonel in the United States Army. He participated in the capture of Attu, Kiska, Kwajalein, Leyte, Okinawa and Occupation of Korea.

Next to him, Lieutenant Orman, paratrooper, who took part in the Sicilian campaign and the capture of Naples. On the right, Captain James L. Gist, Army Aviator.

PERSONAL attention is not confined to the classroom nor to the evening study periods. Harlan and many other cadets seek assistance in the spacious Academy library. The faculty officer in charge is always ready and willing to help any student, no matter what his problem. Whatever the subject, the faculty officer is qualified to give the guidance needed.

Wentworth's library is one of the most important places on the campus. It contains more than 10,000 books on nearly every subject one could imagine. Reference books include the famous Oxford English Dictionary and many sets of encyclopedias.

*Harlan plays football—and mighty well, too! No wonder! His uncle was an All-American at Yale.

*In winter months our boy turns his attention to basketball and other indoor sports.

TRAINING for leadership is important on the football field as well as everywhere else at Wentworth. More than fifty cadets answer the varsity call each year and large squads turn out for company teams. All players receive intensive training, both in the art of the game and in clean sportsmanship.

Football ranks as the number one sport and the Red Dragon elevens are consistent winners. The fine spirit of players and corps is credited with being a strong determining factor in every contest.

In the winter months basketball comes into the spotlight. Again there are the varsity and company teams and a place for every cadet who desires to play. Home games are played in the spacious gymnasium where there are two courts and ample space for spectators.

Wentworth is a member of the Junior College Interstate conference, an athletic association numbering seven schools as members. The Wentworth High School teams are not members of a conference at this time. Almost every major and minor sports are on the Wentworth program—all played under competent coaches—and every cadet is required to participate.

*The gymnasium is 220 x 55 feet. It contains two regular basket ball courts, a large stage, a swimming pool 20 x 60 feet, locker rooms, showers and gymnastic equipment.

* Here our man-in-the-making is ready for his daily plunge in the pool.

THE sparkling, crystal-clear water of the swimming pool is inviting to cadets the year 'round. The pool is of regulation size (20x60) and is the scene of frequent water sports and aquatic meets. It is the purpose to teach every cadet to swim well. The water is warmed to a healthful temperature and kept pure by efficient filtration and chemical treatment.

* (Above) Hi-dee-hol Harlan and his friends tune in a radio program during the recreation period immediately following the evening meal.

* The orchestra provides musical diversion both for members of the group and the corps.

* (Below) Perfect study conditions prevail in Harlan's room. (Note the latest type of reading lamp.)

Just before the evening study period is the favorite tune-in time for Cadet Harlan and other radio devotees. Permission to have a radio in the room is regarded a privilege, the abuse of which causes the student to lose this favor.

After thirty-five minutes of recreation following the supper hour, evening study is begun at 7 o'clock. Each cadet retires to his own room for a two-hour period of quiet. There is no stuffy, noisy hall in which cadets are confined. Instead, individual initiative is encouraged. Faculty officers are in constant attendance throughout the period, giving advice where it is needed and encouragement at all times.

TAPS, at which time all lights must be turned out and all cadets remain quiet, is sounded at 10 o'clock. The soft notes of the bugle call to close the activities of an eventful day and the peace of slumber envelops healthy young bodies until another dawn.

* Quiet descends and another day is ended for our busy cadet. Sleep . . . sweet, restful sleep.

The purpose of this book has been to give you an accurate, but necessarily inadequate glimpse of the Wentworth Military Academy and cadet life. In order fully to appreciate the Academy, it will be necessary for you to visit the campus in person, see the beautiful grounds and buildings and meet members of the faculty. The Administration offices are open the year 'round and your visit will be welcomed at any time.

SUMMER SCHOOL—A military summer school and camp of 8 weeks duration begins in early June. Activities are divided equally between scholastic work and recreation. Instruction is on a tutorial basis and nearly any subject may be taken.

THE 83rd CORPS OF CADETS at the annual WENTWORTH SHOW in the Municipal Auditorium of Kansas City which this year drew a crowd of 10,000 people.

INDIAN GROUP

A group of cadets who meet regularly to study Indian lore, including interpretative dancing. These cadets are shown in costumes which they personally designed and made. The Wentworth Indian group makes a number of appearances in nearby communities during the year. Personnel of the group changes frequently throughout the year.

OUR SPACIOUS GYM READY FOR THE ANNUAL MILITARY BALL. Art pictures on the walls and in the center of the gym are by Mr. Bill Mauldin, wartime cartoonist of World War II. Reproduction of these sketches were drawn by the cadets.

WENTWORTH 1962-1963 PHILHARMONIC GROUP—For over 25 years cadets have been attending the regular series of the Kansas City's Philharmonic Orchestra. This year's group is seen here with Hans Schwiager, the conductor, Mrs. Schwiager, and Col. and Mrs. James M. Sellers. Seated is Levin Fleischer, internationally known pianist.

SPECIAL EVENTS MARKED THE 75th ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF WENTWORTH During 1954-1955

Several special events were held, some pictured here. The first of these was to recognize Founders Day and honor the memory of Stephen G. Wentworth, the founder, and Col. Sanford Sellers, the first superintendent, who served as head of the Academy for 58 years. The speaker and honored guest was ex-President Harry S. Truman, who addressed the Cadet Corps and the guests in attendance and later placed wreaths on the graves of the two men who were honored. Mr. Truman was made an Honorary Colonel of the Wentworth Cadet Corps during the visit he and his wife made to the Academy.

The second event, although an annual one, our Wentworth show in Kansas City had the distinctive 75th Anniversary color.

The third special occasion was one which received nationwide publicity, a re-enactment of the Battle of Lexington which occurred in September of 1861. Joining with the Cadet Corps in actually portraying the Battle were units from the regular Army, the National Guard, and ROTC units of Kansas City. The leading citizens of the City of Lexington, and in fact the whole community, joined in preparation for this very unusual event. As much realism as possible was achieved, even including the co-operation of the elements because it rained continuously during the day, May 12, 1955, on which this event was held, as it had during the actual Battle, according to authentic records. Attending the event were many high ranking Army officers and other distinguished citizens, which made it one of the most remarkable days in the entire history of Wentworth Military Academy and of the City of Lexington.

The Battle of Lexington rages! The re-enactment of the battle in 1955, drew many thousands of visitors here. It was also re-enacted on its 100th anniversary here when approximately 25,000 were present.

The Honor Guard, the snap drill team of Wentworth, is invited on many special occasions to appear before the public. Pictured below is Secretary of the Army Robert Stevens, accompanied by Charles C. Stephenson, civilian assistant to the Secretary in this area, as they inspect the Honor Guard at the Grandview Air Base during Armed Forces Day, May 21, 1955.

THE NEW CHAPEL

An outstanding addition to the facilities of Wentworth is the new chapel used for the first time during Commencement 1955. This building was dedicated November 6, 1955. An electric organ was installed later and was used for the first time during the 1957 Commencement exercises. This building adds much to the life of Wentworth. It is used for assemblies, both religious and secular, for dramatics, and for moving pictures, both entertaining and educational, as part of our audio-visual program.

MEMORIES 1963-64

September 7—I enrolled today about 11 o'clock and found on the whole that things were much the same.

September 8—Some of the other Old Boys enrolled today. It sure is nice to see old friends again.

September 9—It sure is hard to adjust to a regular schedule, especially at 6:20 a.m.

September 10—We attended short classes today. I think I'll get along fine with my teachers this year.

September 11—It seems all we know how to do the first few days is march.

September 12—Late BRC, one more hour of sleep. This is something I take a true interest in.

September 13—Here's Friday and I'm ready for a restful weekend. I think my courses are going to be harder than I anticipated.

September 15—It seems a miracle but we passed our Sunday formal inspection. I wonder who lived in this room before us.

September 16—I don't like my teachers any more; they give too many homework assignments.

September 17—The entire Corps underwent testing by the counseling department today. I had to write an article on it for the school paper.

September 18—We marched again for drill today. Our Military Department feels we have an infinite capacity for this healthy exercise.

September 19—Thursday—another late BRC. My roommate and I have adjusted to these quite readily.

September 20—I think I have fairly well assimilated into the school's society by now.

September 21—You should never underestimate the old folks; the Alumni tied our college team 13-13.

September 22—We had a formal parade today. It seems strange with new Brigade formation.

September 23—Tried to get my new shoes shined during my free period. My classes seemed especially interesting today. I had a Trumpeter staff meeting this afternoon.

September 24—I took a permit tonight and went to the show with my roommate, we saw "The Nutty Professor."

September 25—We finally had change in drill today; we marched with rifles.

September 26—I noticed today that the new boys or "rats" are shaping up pretty well. I hope they continue to improve.

September 27—I haven't watched T.V. since I've been here and I really don't miss it. We lost to Jewell tonight, 33-13.

September 28—My roommate and I cleaned our room real good today. I hope my company commander appreciates our work. I made Special Distinction for the three-weeks period.

September 29—Sunday—my mother came down today and took my roommate and me out to eat. We had a very enjoyable visit.

September 30—I took physical training. I think I'm getting more exercise than desirable; noticed that especially today.

October 1—My roommate and I took a permit and went to the show. It was real good. We also took a supper permit.

October 2—I took another supper permit tonight and played handball while the others were eating. Drill was about the same today.

October 3—We got to sleep late this morning, but this didn't help me much in Physics.

October 4—We were defeated by Richmond high school tonight, 13-0. I wish the teams would get on the ball. Otherwise the day went as usual.

October 5—I went to the show again tonight. I enjoyed this evening of leisure.

October 6—My roommate's parents came down to spend the afternoon. They took us both out for lunch and for a drive in the afternoon. I really enjoyed the day.

October 7—Monday—here's the start of a week with nothing to say.

October 8—Was busy today writing some articles for The Trumpeter. Took a permit tonight for rest.

October 9—Finished my Trumpeter articles this afternoon and turned them in to Captain Hart.

October 10—Besides the usual late BRC, we had rolls and cooked cereal for breakfast. Boy, did that hit the spot! We lost our football game with William Jewell tonight, 13-7.

October 11—Friday—today was Career Day which always proves to be interesting. We tied the game with Missouri Military Academy though, 13-13, which was better than losing it.

October 12—Really enjoyed today—Dad's Day, a day always filled with mirth.

October 13—Went to see the Kansas City Chiefs today with the entire Corps. The game proved very enjoyable, especially since my girl friend was there. Was sorry the Chiefs lost the game though.

October 14—My roommate and I made a special effort on our studies tonight. We hope it improves our grades.

October 15—The movie was very good tonight. We saw "To Kill a Mocking Bird."

October 16—Drill is getting harder all the time.

October 17—They pulled some fast tricks on us . . . lined us all up in the Gym and shot us . . . Flu Shots that is.

October 18—Had a permit tonight, but decided not to go to the show. I studied instead.

October 19—Spent the afternoon cleaning the room, otherwise the day went like any other Saturday.

October 20—My mother came down this week end and treated my roommate and me. In the game with Centerville, Ia., last night our college team tied them 19-19.

October 21—Went to a Trumpeter staff meeting and was told that I would be the news editor. This is great news.

October 22—My roommate and I went to the show again tonight. I guess we'll make a habit of going on Tuesdays.

October 23—Nothing exceptional for Wednesday, just the usual.

October 24—We got into some hard formulas today in Physics, but the work proved interesting.

October 25—Had a permit tonight, but stayed in the room and read a novel.

October 26—We decided not to clean the room today, but to go to town and do some shopping.

October 27—Played handball all afternoon and went to the show tonight.

October 28—Had another Trumpeter staff meeting today. I think the paper is coming along fine. We've still got some improvements to make though.

October 29—My roommate and I spent our permits playing cards and chess tonight.

October 30—We finished our shopping this afternoon that we had started on Saturday.

October 31—Today finishes the month and brings me closer to Christmas furlough. I eagerly await that time.

November 1—We had a high school football game with Carrollton tonight and got beat 8-0. Hope the team shapes up for the Kemper game on the 15th.

November 2—We decided the room needed a good cleaning today and we actually had a lot of fun doing it.

November 3—My mother came down today and took us out to eat and later bought us some apples and apple cider down by Waverly.

November 4—Talked to Captain Hart today and volunteered my roommate's services on The Trumpeter staff. My roommate looked upon this with much ill will.

November 5—Took a permit tonight and saw a very good show, "Bye Bye Birdie."

November 6—My company went through the P. T. or physical training course today in drill. This includes many strenuous exercises.

November 7—Got a letter from my mother saying she would be down again this Sunday. I'm looking forward to that.

November 8—Everyone is making preparations for Homecoming tomorrow.

November 9—Homecoming . . . and a nice day for it. The campus is all "dressed up" for it with displays in front of each company and all.

November 10—Sunday—My mother took me in to Kansas City to see my girl friend and my sister. Sure enjoyed the visit!

November 11—My roommate is beginning to adjust to his new assignment on the Trumpeter staff. We had a meeting today.

November 12—My roommate and I played cards and chess tonight. I beat him for once!

November 13—Went out to the Country Club to learn squad formations for drill. I had a lot of fun, but it was rather tiring.

November 14—We had the regular late breakfast this morning, but I was disappointed that we didn't get rolls. Everyone is getting shined up for our trip to Kemper tomorrow.

November 15—The corps went to Kemper today. I really enjoyed the trip but was disappointed when we lost the game.

November 16—Some of the members of The Trumpeter staff met today to discuss improvements and present ideas. After the meeting I helped my roommate clean the room. We then went to the show.

November 17—Surprise! My girl friend came down to see parade. I was literally shocked when my roommate told me that she was here.

November 18—We had an interesting discussion in Physics by another cadet who had done some practical work in the fields of rocketry and nuclear physics.

November 19—We lost our football game with Excelsior Springs last night, 26-0.

November 20—The Kansas City Mother's Club was here today so we didn't have assembly. We worked on our rifles during drill.

November 21—Had a supper permit but went to supper anyway. I was hungry after going through P.T. this afternoon.

November 22—Today after lunch we all heard news that left us all shocked and helpless. It seems hard to believe the president is dead. We ate our meal in silence.

November 23—My roommate and I spent the entire afternoon down town. We had quite a bit of fun. We bought a dart board for recreation in our room.

November 24—There was an indoor parade. Our battalion didn't march. My roommate's parents took us out to eat after parade.

November 25—Last minute orders were given for all cadets to attend the church or service of their choice, in honor of the late President Kennedy. I attended a special, all faiths, service at the College Park which proved to be excellent. During the afternoon we had a special morning parade in the president's honor. For the first time since I've been here, the school fired a 21-gun salute.

November 26—The teachers loaded us down with assignments today to make up for the lost time yesterday. Hope I have time for all of them.

November 27—For drill today we had a little physical training, care and cleaning of weapons, and a weapons inspection. The inspector said I had a good rifle. The school was having movies made of cadets in action, over different areas of the campus.

November 28—Today is Thanksgiving and we get half the day off. Of course, I'm not going far because I'm on post today and will have O.D. duty in the barracks tonight.

November 29—Nothing of particular interest happened today.

November 30—I didn't have any classes today, so I had quite a bit of extra time. My roommate and I went down town to get some picture backing. We spent the day preparing pictures for our wall hangings.

December 1—I went to dinner and spent the afternoon with my roommate and his family.

December 2—After such a restful weekend it was hard to get back in the swing of things. Boy! Did I hate to get up this morning.

December 3—Spent the evening writing letters to various people. Wasn't very energetic tonight.

December 4—For drill today we had patrolling exercises; although it was supposed to be hard, we had a good time.

December 5—We had reseating in the dining hall today; think I'll like my table. Maj. Mullenjoux announced that the battalions will reverse order of dining hall entry.

December 6—Both basketball teams played today. The high school lost to Missouri Military Academy 48 to 52. The college beat Fairbury Junior College 80 to 54.

December 7—We started on preparations for the annual Military Ball; spent most of the afternoon there at AUSA Headquarters. The Christmas dance was held in the evening. I didn't go due to the fact that I was officer on duty in our barracks.

December 8—Spent the day with my roommate and his parents in Kansas City. Had a great time.

December 9—Nothing special today. The college basketball team is in Centerville, Ia., where they will play their team this afternoon.

December 10—My roommate and I played company basketball during supper, then we settled down to study.

December 11—Registered for my courses for second semester. Think it should be a very interesting one. We had two good films today; one in assembly on "The Black Duck" by a well-known naturalist and another on West Point during drill.

December 12—Went to work on the AUSA Military Ball project right after class. Sure keeps me busy.

December 13—We had a game with Marshall High which proved very exciting; final score was—Wentworth 69, Marshall 40. Really enjoyed the game.

December 14—I worked the entire afternoon on the AUSA project except during chapel, at which time the Higginsville State School entertained with their choir and a piano-organ duet by two girls from Wellington.

January 5—Everyone's back from furlough in exceptionally good humor. It will take us all a while to get back in the hang of things though.

January 6—We had a late B.R.C. this morning. Needed a rest from furlough, too. Classes got off to a good start.

January 7—It won't take so long to get back on schedule, after all. They're really pouring the work to us.

January 8—We drew rifles back during drill today. This I wasn't looking forward to.

January 9—Second late B.R.C. this week. We're getting plenty of sleep anyway.

January 10—Decided to take a rest from the books so took a permit and a supee. Read most of the night.

January 11—Gave the room a good cleaning. It sure needed it.

January 12—Parade was not too good today. Guess we need to learn to march again.

January 13—Just an ordinary Monday.

January 14—Classes were interesting today, especially Physics. Wish we could do more lab work in Physics.

January 15—Started our winter drill program today. First we cleaned our rifles, then we attended a lecture and movie on the general structure of the Army.

January 16—Usual late B.R.C. In Physical Training, we are starting to prepare for the Wentworth Show.

January 17—We lost a game with Excelsior Springs tonight. The team fought hard though.

January 18—Today marks the end of the first semester and time flies by.

January 19—My mother came up today and took my roommate and I out for lunch.

January 20—Second semester started. Had my first trig class; seems like an interesting course.

January 21—Lost to St. Paul's tonight. We're having a bad losing streak; hope the team does better next time.

January 22—For drill today we had a lecture and film on insurgency. Also went out to eat tonight on my supee.

January 23—Late B.R.C. Trig is getting more interesting all the time. This is my second course with Major VanAmburg. I think he is an exceptional math teacher.

January 24—The high school basketball team beat Higginsville tonight. 68-50.

January 25—The college basketball team is playing St. Paul's at Concordia this evening.

January 26—My company didn't march in parade today. Was a welcome break.

January 27—Hopkins, a good friend of mine even before coming here, had a birthday today. My roommate and I got him but good.

January 28—Work on the Gym is progressing steadily. Think we should have a good Military Ball.

January 29—Had some movies on the moral code and prisoners of war for drill. Then worked on the gym some more.

January 30—The college basketball team lost to Fairbury Junior College there 78-88.

January 31—My birthday; I don't feel any older. Hopkins got his revenge. Was on O.D. duty until about 12 p.m., checking in people who had been working on the gym.

February 1—Military Ball! My date looked great!

February 2—Roommate's parents took us to Maib's for lunch. We got six demerits for not wearing our hats. My first demerits this year.

February 3—The day seemed dead after all the weekend excitement.

February 4—We won another basketball game. This time we knocked over Hardin.

February 5—Took a permit and went to the show. It was "For Love or Money."

February 6—They're working us hard in PT; preparing for the Wentworth Show.

February 8—One of the most interesting games this year was tonight when we played Richmond and won 64-63 overtime.

February 9—This day was meant for studying. Parade went pretty good.

February 10—Got an announcement about our new arrival in the family today.

February 11—P.T. is shaping up fine. Really had to study tonight. I'm writing what I hope is a good speech.

February 12—Got a drill holiday for working on the Military Ball decorations. My roommate and I played basketball.

February 13—Took a permit and went to the show, since I won't be able to go tomorrow, due to the basketball game.

February 14—We won the game with Carrollton High School tonight 62-45.

February 15—We gave the room a good cleaning today. Hope the work is worth it.

February 16—Parents took me out to eat today. They told me all about the new baby.

February 17—Decided to do nothing but study tonight. This trig can be confusing.

February 18—Preparations for the Wentworth Show is reaching a high pitch. My roommate and I are also planning to take Honor Society furlough that weekend.

February 19—We had a special program for assembly; some of our own talent that will appear at the Show. I think the Show will be good this year.

February 20—Had an important basketball game with Kemper tonight. We got our revenge by beating them 64-52.

February 21—The show went great tonight. I saw a lot of old friends there. Furlough is off to a fine start.

February 23—Reluctantly arrived back at Wentworth tonight.

February 24—Well, it's just about two weeks until spring furlough; always something to look forward to.

February 25—Went to a great movie tonight. It was "West Side Story". Had some great music too.

February 26—My roommate and I had to run the compass course today. After it was over, I went downtown for a sundae.

February 27—Late B.R.C., ordinary day.

February 28—My roommate and I played chess tonight. Something unusual happened; I won!

February 29—"Leap Year Day"—Think about all the people born this day.

March 1—Played handball with my roommate this afternoon. Boy! am I out of shape?

March 2—Stop Night—Played handball again and went to the show tonight. The weather is great! Colin Jackson spoke to us today. Got to interview him in Speech.

March 3—Spent the afternoon and night studying. Trig is getting rather involved. Had an extra assembly today.

March 4—Another assembly! Turned in rifles. Also had a lecture on the R.O.T.C. program.

March 5—Had to give a physics demonstration on the photoelectric effect today. Spring furlough starts tomorrow!

March 6—It's here! I left with Hopkins, Espinosa and Blanco, right on time.

March 15—I'm back and ready to finish the school year. Can't wait for graduation.

March 16—Felt sluggish today. Guess I'm just getting back into the hang of things.

March 17—Signed up for Senior Lifesaving today. Should be a useful and interesting project.

March 18—Drew rifles today and started to prepare for G.I.

March 19—Usual Thursday breakfast. All seniors took the vocational interests tests tonight. Also had an AUSA meeting about a trip being planned.

March 20—Our first lifesaving meeting today. Talk about swimming—I thought I was going to need a rescue.

March 21—Had a group of seminary students for chapel today. It was very interesting. Afterwards we had a swimming session.

March 22—Played handball with my roommate this afternoon. Went to the show and saw "Mail Order Bride"—Pretty good day.

March 23—Spent CQ's at another swimming session. This is fun, but I will sure be glad when it is over.

March 24—Had the athletic banquet tonight. Steaks! Also was officer on duty tonight.

March 25—We had a preliminary inspection by the military department for G.I. today. Afterwards went to another session of senior lifesaving. No assembly due to weather.

March 26—Preparing for tomorrow—have tests in Physics and English.

March 27—Hope my tests turned out all right. Also had a written examination for lifesaving too. Afterwards played handball.

March 28—Had practical examination for lifesaving. I passed! Went to the show to celebrate. The Baptist minister was our guest for chapel.

March 29—Easter's here. The year is really moving along. My roommate's mother took us out for dinner. Called my mother.

March 30—Talked with Captain Coulter about Water Safety instructor. Decided to take the course, so picked up my packet of instructions. Also signed up for the Missouri placement tests.

March 31—My roommate and I played some tennis today. Sure felt good to get a little exercise. Also had my first course in Water Safety instruction.

April 1—Had to teach a class during drill for methods of instruction in MST 4 course. Worried me at first, but it was a lot of fun.

April 2—The late BRC was sure appreciated this morning. Of course sleeping always feels good and is always appreciated.

April 3—Went to the 'W' Club show. Sure enjoyed it. Was lots of fun. The jokes hit the faculty pretty hard.

April 4—Spent the morning taking Missouri Placement tests; had to give a speech on leadership for National Honor Society during chapel. Checked out some civilian clothing in the afternoon and was up until 12:30 P.M., checking people in from the 'W' Club dance because I was O.D. I call this a full day.

April 5—My roommate's parents took us to Kansas City to eat. Went to the show afterwards and saw "Charade". Was a good show.

April 6—Took a permit tonight so I could work in the library . . . both CQ's term papers take a lot of time.

April 7—Water Safety Instruction met again tonight. It took all of my CQ's.

April 8—My company had to run the physical training course this afternoon. Boy! am I out of shape!

April 9—This morning proved to be one of cramps and moans. Sure glad we had a late BRC.

April 10—G.I. is just around the corner, and our officers are sure letting us know it.

April 11—Prepared our room for inspection. A good friend of mine from last year came down to see me.

April 12—Mother came down and took me and my roommate to lunch. We sure enjoyed ourselves.

April 13—G.I. Inspectors were pretty rough this year. The head inspector was from the college that I plan to attend next year.

April 14—Had to go to WSI tonight. We have to teach classes now. Today was Picture Day.

April 15—The Corps received a drill holiday for their work—G.I.

April 16—Things were pretty quiet today. Guess everyone was worn out from the activities at the first of the week.

April 17—Worked on my physics notebook tonight. Had to get it up to date.

April 18—Played handball all afternoon. Took a permit tonight. Played chess and read.

April 19—Mother came up again this week end. Something must be wrong with her, but I enjoy her visits.

April 20—My roommate was frantic today; he had to hand in his term paper. I've got another week yet.

April 21—We had an USA meeting tonight for preparation of our trip to Ft. Leonardwood.

April 22—We had a patrolling exercise out at the Country Club for drill today.

April 23—My roommate and I had an argument today. Glad we don't hold grudges.

April 24—I went on a very interesting trip to Ft. Leonardwood today. We ate at the officer's club and saw recruits in training.

April 25—Finished my WSI tonight. I consider myself quite a teacher now.

April 26—Mother came down again today. I think she has flipped her wig.

April 27—It was my turn to be frantic today. Had to turn in my term paper.

April 28—Took a permit and went to see "El Cid". It was a pretty good movie; although it seemed to be chopped up.

April 29—Prepared for bivouac this week and for drill.

April 30—I keep looking at my pack and start dreading bivouac.

May 1—Found out that I am going to be carrying a radio on bivouac. Oh! All that weight!

May 2—The march wasn't as difficult as I expected. Operating the radio was fun. Had an outdoor movie for entertainment.

May 3—Had our religious services at the Country Club. My sister, and girl friend with a group of girls came down today. What a chore!

May 4—Spent the day recuperating from the week end. Everyone looked tired.

May 5—My roommate and I decided to change sports. We played tennis today.

May 6—We had our Trumpeter banquet this evening. Sure enjoyed the steaks.

May 7—Absolutely nothing out of the ordinary happened today.

May 8—Some of the Trumpeter staff and I went to a meeting of The Missouri College Newspaper Association in Columbia, Mo.

May 9—Some robins hatched out in a nest right outside our window. They were the thrill of the barracks.

May 10—Mother came down today and took us to lunch. Went to the show and saw "The Prize", one of the best shows I've seen.

May 11—They replaced a couple of tile in our floor today.

May 12—Was officer on duty in the barracks tonight.

May 13—Prepared for NCO's parade.

May 14—Went into the physics lab, today and worked on a special project in electricity.

May 15—Turned in overcoats today.

May 16—Played tennis all afternoon, then went to the show. A most enjoyable day.

May 17—My roommate's parents took us in to Kansas City to eat at the Golden Ox.

May 18—"D" Company had a disciplinary banquet this evening. I guess the other companies will never learn.

May 19—Studied for tests. Have finals all this week.

May 20—We turned in our rifles today. Sure hated to see them go.

May 21—Athletics banquet tonight at dinner. Almost missed it. Couldn't stand to miss those steaks.

May 22—Our company got their physical measurements today. Prepared my semester speech.

May 23—Rejoiced that my tests are over. All day I thought about this summer.

May 24—My roommate and I played handball this afternoon. In the evening our company had a big steak picnic.

May 25—I took OD for another cadet 1st CQ. Had an interesting conversation with Ould about science fiction.

May 26—Went to the show tonight since it was raining. With the grades in already, there is not much to do.

May 27—Went to the show again. Wasn't very good. Wish the rain would stop. I want to graduate in the sunshine.

May 28—Started my packing today. I got no little delight out of that.

May 29—Had to get up early and awaken my floorchiefs since I am O.D. The concert was very good.

May 30—The awards ceremony went fairly well. Mother was here.

May 31—Lots of friends were down to see my day of glory and hear those divine words—DISMISSED!
