HIGH SCHOOL AND JUNIOR COLLEGE

WENTWORTH'S PURPOSE

It is the purpose of Wentworth Military Academy to provide the best conditions possible for the all 'round development of worthy boys and young men.

To attain this high purpose, the Academy places greatest emphasis upon these four points:

First, it is the Academy's aim to assemble only the highest types of students—deserving youths of good parentage—to assure wholesome associations and greater progress. Every precaution is taken to keep undesirable boys—all those that might prove detrimental to others—out of the Academy.

Second, to employ only men of highest character and ability for its faculty. It is not enough for a Wentworth faculty member to be merely a scholar and a splendid instructor. He must also possess a spirit of friendliness and a sincere desire to give kindly help whenever necessary. He must thoroughly understand the innermost problems of boys—be patient with them—and be ready to serve each boy to the best of his ability.

Third, to provide the very best equipment throughout every department to the end that every boy will have all those things necessary to his health and happiness and that none shall want for anything that will help him to make progress.

Fourth, to provide a program for each day that will best serve the interests of every student.

SINCE EIGHTEEN EIGHTY

One of the chief reasons why Wentworth has been able to achieve its lofty purpose lies in the fact that the Academy has been under one continuous administration since its founding. For nearly three-score years, Colonel Sanford Sellers was president of Wentworth. He enjoyed one of the most enviable records in the history of American education.

The Academy was founded by Stephen G. Wentworth, scion of a distinguished English family and a prominent Lexington banker, in 1880, as a memorial to his deceased son, William Wentworth. Mr. Wentworth immediately vested control of the institution in the hands of a board of trustees composed of a duly elected representative of each of the Evangelical churches of Lexington, and a president. Colonel Sellers was called to the new school in its first year and remained as its active head until 1938. Mr. Wentworth served as president of the Board from 1880 until his death in 1897.

It was the firm conviction of the founder, his board of trustees and President Sellers that a military boarding school provides the most effective possible means for giving young men the thorough mental, moral and physical training necessary to develop in them the highest traits of manhood. Thus, Wentworth became the first military school in the Missouri River Valley.

From the beginning the late President Sellers surrounded himself with the ablest faculty available—strong men of proved qualities and Christian character. Under his wise and forward-looking direction, Wentworth has grown steadily. Each year has shown marked improvement over the preceding year. Today Wentworth stands as one of the truly great educational institutions of our country—second to none in the opportunities it offers boys and young men for thorough preparation for professional studies, business and for life.

AN HISTORIC BACKGROUND

Throughout over half a century the Wentworth purpose has remained unchanged. The ideals which led to the Academy's founding and which have carried it steadily forward, shine just as brightly today as ever: the desire to give each youth every opportunity to develop fully his own individual personality; the aim that every cadet shall acquire a keen sense of duty and responsibility, both to himself and toward others; that he shall have the mental and moral power to make accurate judgment between right and wrong and the physical power to stand by his convictions.

These high standards have dominated Wentworth for generations. But to maintain them and assure their full and continuous application, it has been found necessary to limit the enrollment. Wentworth today is a relatively small school—many times larger than in 1880, to be sure, yet small enough that every individual student is given the private attention so essential to his all-round development.

The surrounding country affords a wealth of historically important Civil War sites and the town of Lexington itself retains much of the tradition of the old south. Here enthusiasm for the reminders of our country's glorious past is combined with the enthusiasm for modern adventure to promote the rapid development of the boy's mental, moral and physical resources.

YESTERDAY

Above is pictured the first company ever assembled at Westworth. From this humble beginning, the Academy has marched forward over a trail of development that has placed it in the front rank of America's best military schools.

and TODAY

The Wentworth Military Academy of today is vastly different from the Wentworth of 1880. From year to year it has enlarged its facilities; increased its enrollment and changed its physical appearance until there is little to remind one of the early days. Numerous modern and attractive buildings have been erected as they were needed. Old buildings have been torn away when they were no longer useful. Spacious military and athletic fields have been added. One of the finest Field Houses in the country has been built. Every new method in teaching that has been found definitely superior to older methods has been adopted. Yet, some of the fundamental principles that guided the first company are adhered to just as strictly today.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT

MILITARY training at Wentworth has been a strong feature since 1895 when the first active army officer was detailed to the Academy but has never been permitted to interfere with scholastic work.

Today the Reserve Officer Training Corps program (ROTC) at Wentworth is administered by Regular Army personnel, consisting of three commissioned officers and six non-commissioned officers, who are in charge of instruction.

Cadets are taught the theoretical aspects of the basic military subjects through formal classroom type instruction. Each Wednesday afternoon during the regular drill period the cadets apply those fundamentals learned. During the fall and spring of each school year the cadet corps participates in a field training program during the drill period. Initially, stress is placed on proficiency of the individual in such subjects as first aid, physical fitness and individual combat training. Later through instruction in combat formation, battle drill, patrolling and bivouac training. During the spring this training is culminated when the cadet corps participates in a field exercise which includes a tactical march and overnight bivouac.

Through participation in the ROTC six year Military Schools program, a cadet receives all necessary ROTC training to qualify for a Reserve Army Commission once he has attained a baccalaureate degree.

Wentworth is proud to be one of the original Honor Schools of the United States, the highest rating given by the Department of the Army.

Patrolling

* This monument, erected on the campus by the Alumni Association, to the memory of Wentworth cadets who died in the World War No. 1, typifies the loyal spirit of generations of former Wentworth cadets.

* Patriotism is no sham at Wentworth. Every cadet is taught the real meaning of our flag. Each day, with appropriate ceremonies, the Stars and Stripes are raised and lowered on the towering flag pole.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Within Wentworth's Administration Building are handsomely furnished parlors, corridors and reception rooms. Among its furnishings and decorations students and guests alike find many articles of interest and rare beauty. Its comfortable furnishings amid peaceful surroundings afford a homelike atmosphere where the new cadet readily adapts himself to a wholesome, happy experience. Here in an atmosphere of quiet dignity, every student is privileged to entertain his guests or to spend his leisure moments as governed by his daily schedule. None of the comforts of the modern home have been excluded in Wentworth's plan to provide the finest training and quarters available.

About the CAMPUS

* A part of the Quadrangle.

* Memorial Chapel

Nature and man have joined forces at Wentworth to produce a campus of outstanding beauty. Magnificent trees, of many varieties, blend in perfect harmony with modern, attractive buildings and spacious grounds. The Academy is located just at the edge of Lexington and covers 52 acres. The front campus extends over four city blocks and is dotted with massive elms and glorious flower banks that provide enchantment and inspiration. The back campus includes athletic and military fields and the new stadium. There are ten thoroughly modern buildings on the campus, each built for the exact purpose it serves. They are of brick and stone construction and are heated by steam and hot water.

THE WENTWORTH COUNTRY CLUB

Located on one of the most beautiful spots overlooking the Missouri River, the Golf Course and Country Club add variety to the many facilities available to the Wentworth students. The nine-hole golf course is most attractive and sporty. The club house, with its catering equipment, is ideal for many informal parties held throughout the year. And in the stable are found horses suitable for the tyro as well as the expert rider.

SCHOLASTIC

Wentworth's up-to-date Sellers - Wikoff Scholastic Building is the nucleus of the scholastic department. This magnificent structure contains one of the most splendid libraries possessed by any institution of this kind. Four completely equipped laboratories provide excellent facilities for the practical study of the sciences. In addition to classrooms for all classes, it houses the Dean's and Commandant's offices. It is with justifiable pride that Wentworth points to this new achievement in its effort to provide surroundings which are conducive to academic advancement.

* The attractive library contains thousands of volumes, providing every necessary supplement to the student's texts and manuals.

* Visual Aids are being used to a great extent to supplement lectures by instructors. The Academy has the best equipment available and has established a liberal budget for rental of motion pictures for class work.

* Sellers-Wikoff Scholastic Building.

Geology is a science of particular interest to boys of the midwest.

DEPARTMENT

The scholastic department is divided into two separate and distinct units: the high school, which offers four years of preparatory work, and the junior college, which offers two years of liberal arts and science. Each has its own organization separate from the other. Both divisions are fully accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, an organization composed of the leading colleges and preparatory schools in twenty states. This recognition means that graduates of either department are eligible to enter any institution in the United States that receives students by certification.

It is our aim to see that each cadet masters every lesson thoroughly. To accomplish this, every student is taught correct study methods and thoroughly schooled in correct uses of libraries and laboratories. Classes are small, which permits individual attention. Most of the faculty members live in the buildings with students. They are readily accessible for special help. From time to time a personal study is made of each cadet to determine his points of weakness and help him overcome them.

* The laboratory for elementary classes in chemistry provides many costly instruments not provided for in many schools but which Wentworth believes are important to the proper study of chemistry.

* The laboratory for the advanced chemistry classes is even more completely equipped.

A valuable addition to the Wentworth campus is Sandford Sellers, Sr. Hall, a three-quarter million dollar air-conditioned junior college dormitory and kitchen and dining hall wing.

The building is named after the late Col. Sandford Sellers, Sr., president of Wentworth for 52 years. He was the father of Wentworth's present president, Col. James M. Sellers.

AVIATION

Wentworth participated in the Federal Aviation Agency Civilian Pilot Training Program from its inception in 1939 through the change to War Training Service until June, 1943, when all but 80 out of 712 colleges and universities throughout the country were eliminated due to curtailment of this type of training. However, the academy administration, believing aviation training to be very important now and in the future to the youth of the nation, secured permission from F.A.A. officials to continue flight training on a civilian basis and at the expense of the trainees.

Wentworth operates in conjunction with the ADD Aerial Service at the Lexington Airport as a certified flying school fully approved by the F.A.A. The flight training program, including ground school, far surpasses the minimum requirements set forth by the Federal Aviation Agency qualifying cadets for Private and Commercial Pilot Certificates. It consists of instruction in both dual and solo flight time.

The records of the graduates of the Wentworth Flight Training are outstanding. During the war the graduates of this training program fought on every front where Americans were in combat.

A DAY

AT WENTWORTH

NO TWO days at Wentworth are quite the same, for a widely varied program of scholastic, military, athletic and other activities is used to keep the interest of the cadets at high pitch and their appetites for learning well whetted. Furthermore, no two students have quite the same duties to perform throughout any given day. There is, however, a definite routine that all cadets follow each day. It is used to instill perfect regularity and promptness in attendance upon all duties prescribed for one and all cadets alike.

While it requires some adjustments for new students to become accustomed to this routine, any slight hint of monotony is soon lost in the kaleidoscopic whirl of the school year.

To give parents and others a better insight, the following pages have been used to set forth, pictorially, the day's activities from Reveille to Taps, of a typical Wentworth boy whom we will designate as Cadet Harlan.

The pictures in this section were taken several years ago. However, since they illustrate life at Wentworth of today, they are still timely. They are retained because so many of the cadets shown served in the Armed Forces of their country and so well illustrate the value of military training as received while at Wentworth.

Since the importance of military preparedness is becoming increasingly evident by the changing world situation, the training illustrated in this picture section has a special significance.

There have been some uniform changes as may be seen by referring to the section on Wentworth uniforms.

* Harlan—a typical Wentworth cadet.

HERE is Harlan, a typical Wentworth cadet—a fine young American—manly, scholarly and upright. His respect for duty and responsibility has won for him the rank of sergeant. He may have come from a large city or a very small town—that makes no difference to the democratic spirit that prevails at Wentworth. He may be from a wealthy family or a family in meager circumstances—most of his classmates would never know, nor even be curious, unless he chose to tell them. But he typifies all the fine qualities of a deserving and ambitious youth as he goes through the tried and age-proved Wentworth process of becoming a real man, a real asset to himself, his family and friends, and society as a whole.

Harlan, like all the others, participates in many activities besides those shown. But let's follow him through a typical day.

*Harlan "Butch" Heffellinger, who graduated in the class of 1936 and posed as the model cadet in the view book, served as a Major in the last war and at present is a retired army officer in the state of California.

His brothers, Hugo and Arthur, also attended Wentworth. Hugo, a Major, served with distinction with the Rangers. Arthur served with the Navy Air Corps as an Ensign and presently teaches school in Missouri.

* Harlan's first duty is a thorough, refreshing wash before breakfast.

"I CAN'T GET 'EM UP," blows the bugler, but he does, and at 6:35 o'clock another day is under way. Cadet Harlan goes first to the sanitary lavatory on his floor. A good washup is part of the routine, for a cadet is expected to keep himself clean at all times. At 6:50 he goes to a well-prepared breakfast.

After breakfast, rooms must be cleaned. One of the basic aims of our system is to form personal habits of order. Each morning Harlan makes his own bed, puts his clothes in order and helps his roommate clean the room.

* Harlan makes up his own bed.

Strict inspection of quarters is a daily routine. Formal inspection of Harlan's person, room and equipment occurs on Sunday morning. At this time unusual care must be taken in cleaning the room. Our friend sees that hidden corners are carefully dusted; chairs polished, and everything put in order. Then he takes care of his person. There's brass to shine, leather to polish, hair to brush, and whiskers to be removed. A certain time is allotted for this preparation and all work must be done within that time. This young fellow knows that any deficiency in this work receives what is known in Academy language as a "skin"—which counts against one's company in color competition.

*Harlan is ready for the inspector—brass gleaming, shoes shined—room as clean as the proverbial "hound's tooth."

* Here Harlan delves into things scientific. Modern equipment is provided for all laboratory work.

AT 8 O'CLOCK in the morning, classes convene. Harlan makes his way to a small class on his schedule where personal attention is his at any time it is needed. Our cadet is carefully instructed in the handling of delicate scientific equipment. He is not forced to grope blindly for information. That which is true of the science laboratories is equally true in all other classrooms.

Time passes rapidly in the classroom or laboratory because the work is interesting. The scholastic day is divided into two equal parts, with four classes in the morning and two in the afternoon.

*Our Cadet goes through a course of calisthenics to promote grace and health.

All the cadets shown in the picture were in the Armed Service.

CALISTHENICS play an important role in the physical education of Cadet Harlan.

No effort is made to indulge in this or any other exercise in the early morning hours when the body is at its lowest ebb. All such exercises are taken by our cadet after a hearty breakfast and morning classes. The exercises are intended to promote graceful movement as well as better health. The calisthenics used by the United States Army are followed. They are led by senior cadet officers.

So long as the weather permits, the calisthenics are held in the open, but they are taken in the large gymnasium, where an entire battalion may take part at the same time, when rain or cold is in the air.

*The ten excellent tennis courts are always popular.

* Cadet Harlan reports to the Professor of Military Science and Tactics for drill duty.

Cadet Lieutenant Jack Ramsdell commanding the platoon shown in these two views, participated as an officer in the landing on North Africa. He was decorated with the Silver Star for heroism in action and Purple Heart.

DRILL is a very formal affair. It is on the drill field that Harlan learns much of courtesy, discipline and alertness. He, with his entire battalion, is thoroughly schooled in good citizenship, taught the proper respect for superiors and trained in leadership.

Learning to drill a squad is the first training in leadership. Throughout the year squad drill and competition is a part of the regular military routine. The squad is the smallest military unit and consists of nine to twelve men, two of whom are sergeants. All instruction is conducted by cadets under the personal supervision of members of the military faculty.

Although military work takes but one hour each day, the training is intensive and much more thorough than that found in larger units. Personal attention is given the individual cadet on the military field as well as in the classroom, and each cadet has an equal chance to advance to important positions in Wentworth's military realm. In the army, the navy and the marine corps Wentworth is glorified by its alumni who have received their commissions and are distinguishing themselves in official capacities of these respective branches of service.

Like many other cadets, Harlan finds the extended order drill more interesting. This drill consists of combat methods. He is taught to make use of cover, to advance and to fire. No actual firing is done during this drill, however, for all the ammunition used is dummy material. Initiative and leadership are required in this work. Situations arising in the problems furnished by the Department of the Army call for quick thinking and immediate action.

Here our typical cadet finds extended order drill interesting and instructive.

The Cadet Officer using the field glasses was Captain Woodrow Wylie, U. S. Army, who participated in the fight on Bataan.

The cadet about to insert the cartridge in his rifle is Lieut.-Colonel Milton Moran, U. S. Marine Air Corps. He participated in considerable action in the South Pacific.

* Eating — an always-popular "sport" with Harlan and his fellow cadets! Meal time is always a time for good food and good fellowship.

The Faculty Officer at the head of the table is Major Robert D. Hepler, assistant dean. The lady is his wife, Mrs. Beth Hepler, the academy's hostess and social director.

FOLLOWING the morning classes comes lunch time and our cadet is ready to eat. Academy menus are always varied and pleasing. Meals are carefully planned to suit the needs of all cadets. They are healthful and nutritious and just what active, hard-working boys require. Meal times are at 7:00 in the morning, 12:10 and 6:10. This schedule is varied only on Sunday, when dinner becomes a more elaborate meal served at 12:30.

After dinner there is a recreation period during which Harlan and other cadets may do pretty much as they choose. The recreation room is a popular place at this time.

*(Right) Our friend attends an assembly in chapel period, held twice each week.

*(Below) "We must get in there and fight!" says Harlan as he makes a short "pep" talk on the eve of a game.

CADET HARLAN attends interesting, informative and inspirational meetings in the chapel, immediately before lunch on Wednesdays and Saturdays. These meetings are conducted by the Academy Chaplain, but are not strictly religious. Travel talks, health lectures, scientific demonstrations and short sermons, presented by outstanding speakers, are frequently on the program. The service is opened with a hymn, prayer and responsive readings, and closed with the singing of "Wentworth," the Academy song.

"Pep" meetings, preceding important athletic contests, are held in the gymnasium. These are always occasions of great fun. Students and faculty make rousing speeches. The cadet band furnishes gay, martial music and everyone anticipates the big game on the morrow. Athletic contests are important recreational events. Every cadet attends them.

*While a majority of the faculty members live in the barracks with cadets, some live in residences such as this on the campus.

*All shined up for Sunday inspection.

*Our Cadet receives personal attention from a faculty member in the library.

In this picture, the Tactical Officer, James Simmons, graduate of Wentworth, is now a Colonel in the United States Army. He participated in the capture of Attu, Kiska, Kwajalein, Leyte, Okinawa and Occupation of Korea.

Next to him, Lieutenant Orman, paratrooper, who took part in the Sicilian campaign and the capture of Naples. On the right, Captain James L. Gist, Army Aviator.

PERSONAL attention is not confined to the classroom nor to the evening study periods. Harlan and many other cadets seek assistance in the spacious Academy library. The faculty officer in charge is always ready and willing to help any student, no matter what his problem. Whatever the subject, the faculty officer is qualified to give the guidance needed.

Wentworth's library is one of the most important places on the campus. It contains more than 10,000 books on nearly every subject one could imagine. Reference books include the famous Oxford English Dictionary and many sets of encyclopedias.

*Harlan plays football—and mighty well, too! No wonder! His uncle was an All-American at Yale.

*In winter months our boy turns his attention to basketball and other indoor sports.

TRAINING for leadership is important on the football field as well as everywhere else at Wentworth. More than fifty cadets answer the varsity call each year and large squads turn out for company teams. All players receive intensive training, both in the art of the game and in clean sportsmanship.

Football ranks as the number one sport and the Red Dragon elevens are consistent winners. The fine spirit of players and corps is credited with being a strong determining factor in every contest.

In the winter months basketball comes into the spotlight. Again there are the varsity and company teams and a place for every cadet who desires to play. Home games are played in the spacious field house where there are three courts and ample space for spectators.

Wentworth is a member of the Junior College Interstate conference, an athletic association numbering seven schools as members. The Wentworth High School teams are members of the Missouri River Valley conference at this time. Almost every major and minor sports are on the Wentworth program—all played under competent coaches—and every cadet is required to participate.

• A view of the west entrance to the new Student Union Building. This facility contains an informal dance floor, meeting rooms, cadet officers lounge, two recreation rooms, ham radio installation and two sound proof Combo rooms.

• Ready for his daily plunge in the pool.

THE sparkling, crystal-clear water of the swimming pool is inviting to cadets the year 'round. The pool is an official olympic size and is the scene of frequent water sports and aquatic meets. It is the purpose to teach every cadet to swim well. The water is warmed to a healthful temperature and kept pure by efficient filtration and chemical treatment.

*(Above) Harlan and his friends tune in a radio program during the recreation period immediately following the evening meal. (Note the habit of listening to the radio has not changed but we are sure the music has a great deal.)

* The orchestra provides musical diversion both for members of the group and the corps.

* (Below) Perfect study conditions prevail in Harlan's room. (Note the newest type of lamps are presently in use.)

Just before the evening study period is the favorite tune-in time for Cadet Harlan and other radio devotees. Permission to have a radio in the room is regarded a privilege, the abuse of which causes the student to lose this favor.

After thirty-five minutes of recreation following the supper hour, evening study is begun at 7 o'clock. Each cadet retires to his own room for a two-hour period of quiet. There is no stuffy, noisy hall in which cadets are confined. Instead, individual initiative is encouraged. Faculty officers are in constant attendance throughout the period, giving advice where it is needed and encouragement at all times.

TAPS, at which time all lights must be turned out and all cadets remain quiet, is sounded at 10 o'clock. The soft notes of the bugle call to close the activities of an eventful day and the peace of slumber envelops healthy young bodies until another dawn.

*Quiet descends and another day is ended for our busy cadet. Sleep . . . sweet, restful sleep.

The purpose of this book has been to give you an accurate, but necessarily inadequate glimpse of the Wentworth Military Academy and cadet life. In order fully to appreciate the Academy, it will be necessary for you to visit the campus in person, see the beautiful grounds and buildings and meet members of the faculty. The Administration offices are open the year 'round and your visit will be welcomed at any time.

SUMMER SCHOOL—A military summer school and camp of 8 weeks duration begins in early June. Activities are divided equally between scholastic work and recreation. Instruction is on a tutorial basis and nearly any subject may be taken.

THE 83rd CORPS OF CADETS at the annual WENTWORTH SHOW in the Municipal Auditorium of Kansas City drew a crowd of 10,000 people.

INDIAN GROUP

A group of cadets who meet regularly to study Indian lore, including interpretative dancing. These cadets are shown in costumes which they personally designed and made. The Wentworth Indian group makes a number of appearances in nearby communities during the year. Personnel of the group changes frequently throughout the year.

The Student Union lounge and accommodations for small informal dances as viewed from the Cadet Officers' Balcony.

WENTWORTH PHILHARMONIC GROUP—

For over 30 years cadets have been attending the regular series of the Kansas City's Philharmonic Orchestra. The group is seen here with Hans Schwieger, the conductor, Mrs. Schwieger, and Col. and Mrs. James M. Sellers. Seated is Leon Fieischer, internationally known pianist.

SPECIAL EVENTS MARKED THE 75th ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF WENTWORTH During 1954-1955

Several special events were held, some pictured here. The first of these was to recognize Founders Day and honor the memory of Stephen G. Wentworth, the founder, and Col. Sanford Sellers, the first superintendent, who served as head of the Academy for 58 years. The speaker and honored guest was ex-President Harry S. Truman, who addressed the Cadet Corps and the guests in attendance and later placed wreaths on the graves of the two men who were honored. Mr. Truman was made an Honorary Colonel of the Wentworth Cadet Corps during the visit he and his wife made to the Academy.

The second event, although an annual one, our Wentworth show in Kansas City had the distinctive 75th Anniversary color.

The third special occasion was one which received nationwide publicity, a re-enactment of the Battle of Lexington which occurred in September of 1861. Joining with the Cadet Corps in actually portraying the Battle were units from the regular Army, the National Guard, and ROTC units of Kansas City. The leading citizens of the City of Lexington, and in fact the whole community, joined in preparation for this very unusual event. As much realism as possible was achieved, even including the co-operation of the elements because it rained continuously during the day, May 12, 1955, on which this event was held, as it had during the actual Battle, according to authentic records. Attending the event were many high ranking Army officers and other distinguished citizens, which made it one of the most remarkable days in the entire history of Wentworth Military Academy and of the City of Lexington.

The Battle of Lexington rages! The re-enactment of the battle in 1955, drew many thousands of visitors here. It was also re-enacted on its 100th anniversary here when approximately 25,000 were present.

The Honor Guard, the snap drill team of Wentworth, is invited on many special occasions to appear before the public. Pictured below is Secretary of the Army Robert Stevens, accompanied by Charles C. Stephenson, civilian assistant to the Secretary in this area, as they inspect the Honor Guard at the Grandview Air Base during Armed Forces Day, May 21, 1955.

The stage photographed from the rear of the Chapel during Commencement.

THE NEW CHAPEL

An outstanding addition to the facilities of Wentworth is the new chapel used for the first time during Commencement 1955. This building was dedicated November 6, 1955. An electric organ was installed later and was used for the first time during the 1957 Commencement exercises. This building adds much to the life of Wentworth. It is used for assemblies, both religious and secular, for dramatics, and for moving pictures, both entertaining and educational, as part of our audio-visual program.

CADET MEMORIES 1970-71

September 5 — I'm back once more here at WMA. Am I really here again? What a short summer!

September 6 — It's good to see some of the "Dudes" from last year. Gismonde had a nice moustache.

September 7 — The barracks isn't the same without some of the guys from last year here. Oh well, that's the breaks.

September 8 — The hospital looks the same as always but, I didn't really expect it to change that much. Everything seems different this year. Soon I'll start with my duties at the hospital but not just yet.

September 9 — John Oliva talked to me about Phi Theta Kappa and we tried to work up a schedule for events coming up.

September 10 — My classes seem pretty good this year and they are all real interesting. I hope I do well this year.

September 11 — My chick is upset because I haven't spent much time with her since I've been back.

September 12 — Beak told me he wants to start modeling false moustaches while here at school.

September 13 — The nurse called me up to see if I would be interested in cheerleading for football games. I told her that I wasn't too enthused about it.

September 14 — The nurse said that I better cheerlead or else. I'm enthused.

September 15 — I've taken up cigars now. They taste pretty good but they leave a film on your shirt. Beak is smoking cigars now also. It seems he wants to look like Col. Patterson.

September 16 — O'Leary and Winters are cheerleading better than the girls are. Dave looks good with a "fall".

September 17 — Man, I've got studies tonight. I've got to obtain a 9-weeks furlough.

September 18 — Rank sheets aren't expected out until November. I talked to Beak and he doesn't know anything about them.

September 19 — I took my girlfriend to the show last night. It wasn't bad; the movie was actually good.

September 20 — We had Roast Beef today.

September 21 — Dave may stay second semester if things go okay this semester.

September 22 — There have been a lot of knee injuries this year. There seems to be nothing but cripples.

September 23 — Bedinger and I are going to Washburn next year. Topeka, here we come!

September 24 — I called Charlie Lee today. He was here last year. He says Texas A & M is pretty rough.

September 25 — I talked to SSGT Rogers about setting up some rifle matches for the college team.

September 26 — The Cheerleaders had a practice today. We need work but I think we'll do okay.

September 27 — Had rifle practice today. There are only two regulars back from last year.

September 28 — Capt. Scudder is playing "Strak" on the Company. It gets a little wearying after a while.

September 29 — There seems to be a lot of hassle over positions for rank this year. Battalion Staffs are juggled around every week.

September 30 — Eight more months left!

October 1 — What a way to start the month; we had one of the biggest sick calls in a month. It seems there are a lot of people faking illness to get out of their duties.

October 2 — Winters wants to take out Prodel. Sounds good, Dave.

October 3 — O'Leary and Winters are moving upstairs to 3rd floor. Second floor is just too much for them.

September 4 — It's been pretty warm for October. Last year it was colder than . . . well, it was pretty cold.

October 5 — I may get that nine-weeks furlough I was looking for. My grades are looking good.

October 6 — Bedinger tells me that some girl he took out once last year is trying to keep the flames alive. Beak says he doesn't want flames, he says he doesn't even want warm coals.

October 7 — During drill as usual, I practiced with the Rifle team. Sarge says he is going to enter all the matches he can. Drive on, Sarge!

October 8 — Vegetable soup today. I'm not a vegetable soup fan!

October 9 — T.G.I.F. What a week! I'm glad it's over!

October 10 — I should clean my room today but I'm too lazy. I just can't see waxing my floor when I could be sleeping.

October 11 — Parade seemed longer than usual today. The duties looked good in inspection.

October 12 — Help! It's Monday already! Where did I go wrong?

October 13 — Couldn't keep my eyes open in geology today. Kuhn says I have the "nods."

October 14 — Drill again today. It was a bit chilly. I think I hear the sounds of winter.

October 15 — Stroh is leaving at semester to get married. Billy Don strikes again!

October 16 — Fred Ritter called me last night. He says he can't play football anymore.

October 17 — A lot of college ballgames today. The football situation looks tense.

October 18 — Parade as usual. I hate these blues belts.

October 19 — Cudney is shooting fireworks upstairs tonight.

October 20 — I made it over to my girlfriend's house last night. She says she is going to be a dancing instructor. Why doesn't she just stay home and knit booties? I'm kidding. Bettina.

October 21 — Hahn says he has learned how to sleep with his eyes open.

October 22 — "Rocks" was pretty good today. Col. Stagner told some good ones.

October 23 — Shrimp today. It was pretty good.

October 24 — Time is really flying. It won't be too long 'til Xmas.

October 25 — O'Leary tells me that rank sheets will be out next week. I hope so.

October 26 — Bedinger says rank sheets will not be out next week.

October 27 — Murph Crawford tells me he has learned how to gargle peanut butter. Glurg, Glurg! I hope he doesn't sneeze.

October 28 — My mother wrote to tell me that Aunt Ida is retiring as a gym teacher. She's 84.

October 29 — Everyone seems to like my column I have in The Trumpeter. Maybe I'll win the Pulitzer Prize.

October 30 — Goodbye October. Hello November.

October 31 — I forgot, there are 31 days in October! Dah!

November 1 — My birthday is this week. Parade was a hassle, other than my girlfriend was there.

November 2 — MONDAY. I'm not ready for psychology today. 7:50 a.m. is too early for me.

November 3 — We have another test coming up in "Rocks" this week. Why this week?

November 4 — We had a large sick call today. It's that time of year for colds to come on. The football injuries are increasing also.

November 5 — The Phi Theta Kappa movies are doing real well. John Oliva showed me the figures on the movies and we've been making profits on all of them.

November 6 — I am 19 today. Thank you for the applause.

November 7 — I had a very nice dinner at my girlfriend's house last night. Her mother is a good cook.

November 8 — Greenfield asked me who was writing the Cadet Memories. Ha! Ha! I fooled him.

November 9 — I've got a real bad cold today. I must have got it from the hospital.

November 10 — Homecoming is coming up and I can hardly wait 'til some of the old boys are back.

November 11 — I'm a Second Lieutenant now. O'Leary still thinks rank sheets will be out next week. Jeebadeep!

November 12 — My dad called to tell me how my grades were. Thanks Dad. I already know.

November 13 — Sheets was here tonight for Homecoming. I told him it wasn't until tomorrow. He's blitzed.

November 14 — Beat Kemper! We did too! Ice, Dove, and Sheets were in rare form for it.

November 15 — I got my furlough! Hahn and Bedinger are coming home with me for some fun and games.

November 16 — My speakers for my stereo got here today. They really put out the sound.

November 17 — The Rifle team is looking real good. Shannon broke 240 today.

November 18 — Col. Perry told me to turn my stereo down or he'd confiscate it. Sorry, Sir!

November 19 — Berrios griped all day about his grades in chemistry.

November 20 — O'Leary wants me to move upstairs with him at semester. It sounds good but he may not like it when I tell him I tap dance in my sleep. I leave on furlough today.

November 23 — I'm back and what week end! Hahn took Alka-Seltzers all day today.

November 24 — Captain Scudder "stuck" me for disturbance in the halls tonight. My first this year.

November 25 — We get a half a day off for Thanksgiving tomorrow. That will be a welcome break.

November 26 — Over to my girlfriend's house again. Yep, you guessed right, dinner again.

November 27 — I've got a Psych test today. I'm too tired for one of those today.

November 28 — Less than a month until Xmas. Yea Team! I dread going home for Xmas. I want to go somewhere else this year.

November 29 — Overcoats were regulation today. Winter is here now. I hope the snow hangs on 'til after Xmas furlough.

November 30 — Captain Pirtle's class didn't meet today. I'm going to turn in some "rack" time for a change.

December 1 — I can't imagine it's actually December. It's warm enough for April. It was about 60 degrees today.

December 2 — There aren't many "duties" today. No one wants to be sick since Xmas is so close.

December 3 — Heather Walls asked me if I wanted to be a cheerleader for basketball games. No thanks, Heather!

December 4 — One more haircut and then we go home. I hear Jay isn't cutting the hair too close. That's great.

December 5 — My mind is really confused. I can't seem to study much anymore. Must be the thought of the upcoming furlough.

December 6 — I got some information on a rifle match today. I hope we can get the finances to go to it. We aren't really ready yet but it's a good experience.

December 7 — Captain Batherus told me to turn in my memories today but I forgot. Oh well!

December 8 — Bedinger wants to go to Anchorage, Alaska for Xmas furlough. It sounds like fun.

January 4 — Back from furlough and semester finals start soon.

January 5 — Not much happening today. I had eggs this morning.

January 6 — Sick call was large today and I am really tired.

January 7 — Pirtle didn't meet today so I picked up an extra free hour.

January 8 — Friday, and it sure is good to be able to relax for a day or two.

January 9 — I had a so-so day, doing nothing but smoking cigarettes and playing with my foot powder.

January 10 — Parade and the first one in a while. It was pretty chilly today.

January 11 — Slept my first two hours away and joked around with Witte after classes.

January 12 — I am not looking forward to semester finals at all. Col. Stagner has a mind-blitz test for me. I just know he does.

January 13 — Drill today and I can hardly wait until school is out. May 30th is coming up.

January 14 — Finals are a bummer! I'm not doing too bad though.

January 15 — Friday, and I have a Bible Lit. test tomorrow.

January 16 — Saturday and another night of fun times at my girl's house. I think I'm turning into a Yes man. I moved in with O'Leary today.

January 17 — Sunday and a quiet one at that. Parade was fair.

January 18 — New classes, old faces. My schedule is juggled this semester.

January 19 — Six classes and I've even got a class on Saturday. HELP!

January 20 — One class today and the Assembly was pretty good.

January 21 — Somebody told me we are having liver for lunch. I'm getting a rash already.

January 22 — Fish paddies for lunch.

January 23 — I watched "Bomba the Wonder Freak" on the tube. It was bad. The Military Ball was tonight.

January 24 — Parade was long. The Ball Queens reviewed parade and it was also Ribbon day.

January 25 — Co-o-ld today. My longjohns ripped out so I gave them to Veach.

January 26 — I have a cold and I don't feel worth a darn. I had a full load of classes today.

January 27 — Practiced with the Rifle Team today. They are coming along great. I had the afternoon sick call today.

January 28 — I had a great day today, and there weren't too many "duties" today.

January 29 — I went uptown today and bought a few new albums. I also got a haircut.

January 30 — Tomorrow is the last day of the month and February is a short month too.

January 31 — Another parade but it only took about 15 minutes. Beak messed up again.

February 1 — Mondays are back to haunt me. Nothing to do today.

February 2 — Classes all day today and I slept through my first two morning classes.

February 3 — Drill today and everyone is preparing for the Wentworth Show. Seems like there will be a lot of good acts this year.

February 4 — I slept all afternoon and then made some coffee before supper to keep me awake.

February 5 — T.G.I.F. Who knows what the week end will bring to me?

February 6 — Colonel Perry saw the burlap on our walls and didn't like it. We may have to take it down next week.

February 7 — Went to the officers' lounge this afternoon and watched T.V.; the movie was bad.

February 8 — Monday again and time to start my "No-Doz" therapy.

February 9 — We had eggs this morning.

February 10 — Drill again but most of the duties are in the Wentworth Show so there wasn't much to do.

February 11 — Played basketball all afternoon and listened to my chick gripe all evening.

February 12 — I like today but I dread the week end. Bettina says she has "plans".

February 13 — I saw a couple of pretty girls on the campus today, but can't touch though.

February 14 — Parade went slow today and the duties are starting to give me a pain. Valentines Day.

February 15 — Monday and a holiday, but we don't observe it here.

February 16 — I didn't get my assignment in for Religion today.

February 17 — Drill was drawn-out; and our last big practice for the Wentworth Show.

February 18 — Everyone is cranky around here for some reason. Nobody laughs.

February 19 — The Wentworth Show! It went well and Colonel Stagner makes a great Ted Mack.

February 20 — Everybody is tired — so tired. We got in about 1:00 a.m. this morning.

February 21 — Nobody passed out today and parade went fast.

February 22 — Ten more days 'til Spring Furlough. Here comes the countdown.

February 23 — I decided to take my 9-weeks furlough this week end. Why not?

February 24 — I went to talk to Sgt. Rodgers about letters for the Rifle team. He says he'll talk to Major Gibson.

February 25 — Captain Butherus reminded me to turn my Trumpeter article in tomorrow before I leave.

February 26 — I had a test in European History today. I left for home for the week end.

March 1 — My furlough was great and I leave again Thursday for the Corps furlough.

March 2 — Tuesday and the classes are a drag. No one wants to do anything with Spring furlough coming up.

March 3 — Everyone ready to leave tomorrow. Some have already left by using their Honor Society furlough.

March 4 — I leave today and Mumby is coming home with me for a while.

March 5-14 — Spring Break.

March 15 — Well, we're back, but the rest did me some good. Our next furlough is Summer and it's the last one I'll ever get from WMA.

March 16 — Another one of my nightly hassles with my chick. I've got two tests Friday.

March 17 — I had a tedious day today and I didn't get enough sleep this morning. My chick and I broke up tonight, probably for good.

March 18 — I went to the show tonight and saw Lee Marvin do his thing. It wasn't a bad flick.

March 19 — Now that my tests are over, I can breathe easier and await the week end.

March 20 — Vicious rumors going around about G.I. They say we're going to have one.

March 21 — I saw my old "flame" with another cadet after parade. She moves fast! Ho-hum.

March 22 — I'm looking for a date for the W-Club dance this week end. Not much success so far.

March 23 — I'm wondering how I've made it this far with six classes in one day. I'm like the guy looking for water in the desert. I've got to keep going.

March 24 — Drill today and it was announced G.I. would be the 5th of April.

March 25 — Sweet rolls for breakfast but just wasn't up to it today. Sick call was large for a Thursday.

March 26 — W-Club dance and I'm with no date. I played Monopoly tonight and the boredom severed my mind.

March 27 — Saturday morning and I slept great after business law! Chapel seemed longer this morning.

March 28 — The last Sunday of the month and I sure didn't like church this morning. I didn't eat lunch today but I had a fair supper down at Dave's.

March 29 — The end of this month is near and then it's April, the last month before "lucky May."

March 30 — Gilltrap said it was National Clearasil Week so I went out and bought a tube.

March 31 — The end of the line for March of '71. Hello April.

April 1 — I had both legs broken when I fought Jennings — April Fool!

April 2 — Friday, our last free day for the week end 'til G.I.

April 3 — The entire Corps confined to the barracks in preparation for G.I.

April 4 — The barracks was inspected by the military department today and they weren't too impressed with the "A" barracks.

April 5 — G.I! What a hassle. Two days of cleaning for two minutes of inspection! It seemed to go well.

April 6 — Picture Day for all the clubs and activities. I leave for Mississippi today for the Phi Theta Kappa Convention.

April 7 — After spending 20 hours on the bus, I don't really feel like anything but just sleeping.

April 8 — I went to the meetings and they seemed more organized than last year.

April 9 — I wrote some post cards and attended some meetings and seminars.

April 10 — Everybody paired off with a chick down here except Veach and I. So what!

April 11 — We left for home at 6:00 a.m. this morning and spent another 26 hours on the bus.

April 12 — We got in at 3:00 a.m., this morning. Went to Steve's grandma's house for Easter and I had a date with a real nice looking chick.

April 13 — Went to Kansas City for an appointment. Caught a flick while waiting for the bus.

April 14 — I took a history test today and I think I did pretty well. Drill drags on again! It was hot today and Headquarters Company really looked scroungy after the obstacle course today.

April 15 — I got a letter from this chick in Kansas City today. She wants to see me this week end. Sounds good! Here I go again!

April 16 — Pirtle didn't meet this morning so I "racked-out" all morning. We had fish paddies in the mess hall.

April 17 — I picked up my laundry this morning and slept through business law, my only class on Saturday. Haberland and Traulsen were waxing their floors this afternoon. Traulsen mostly watched.

April 18 — Parade today and it was outside for the first time in many moons.

April 19 — Monday, and Hahn is in another one of his bad moods. Capt. Hall let us out of geography early today.

April 20 — Six classes and I didn't get my before-breakfast shower so I was a scurvy 'til noon.

April 21 — AUSA dance this week end and it seems I'll have a date. No Lexington chicks this time around! Field Day was today during drill and Bravo won.

April 22 — I played basketball this afternoon and slept for an hour or two.

April 23 — T.G.I.F. Teachers are discussing finals already so it looks like time is running out.

April 24 — Karen arrived today for the A.U.S.A. dance tonight. She looks pretty good. Murph is going to the Lexington Prom.

April 25 — Sunday and the sunniest day of the month. George got nervous and flubbed-up during parade. That's O.K. Geo!

April 26 — Business Law didn't meet this morning and we had liver in the mess hall.

April 27 — The nurse has a new wig and she wore it to sick call today. It looks pretty nice.

April 28 — O'Leary doesn't want to go on the MSIII-IV bivouac because he doesn't want to carry the communications radio. What a bellyacher!

April 29 — Liska started a waterfight on 3rd floor last night and there was trouble raised over that.

April 30 — We start our last month of school tomorrow! ALL RIGHT!

May 1 — The MSIII-IV Bivouac started today and they return on campus tomorrow.

May 2 — I checked out on a K.C. permit today after parade and went in and saw Karen.

May 3 — We started preparing for finals in geography today and I have a feeling that it will be one of my rougher exams.

May 4 — Tuesday and I don't have my assignment done for Religious Values. Not too many more days left.

May 5 — Not much is happening today. We checked out field equipment for the corps bivouac today.

May 6 — I was late again for military class today, but I always try to have a smoke before class.

May 7 — I leave on furlough today and the next time I do it will be for good.

May 10th — Furlough was great but much too short. The corps bivouac is this week end and then it's smooth sailin' until May 30.

May 11 — We finish all testing this week in classes until finals so there isn't much to do. If it wasn't for the high school Harrys we could be out this week.

May 12 — Drill was the best ever. We practiced for Commencement!

May 13 — A bunch of the jocks went to St. Louis for a track, golf, and tennis meet. Steve went so maybe I can get some peace and quiet for a change.

May 14 — Karen wrote and said she'd be down Sunday along with Steve's chick. I'm going to be "strung-out" that day.

May 15 — Bivouac began today and the corps had a healthy 5-7 mile march to the bivouac area. It was pretty uneventful except a couple of dudes got sick and one guy got his lip split open during the tug-o-war.

May 16 — Haberland and I packed up our tent and walked back to school from bivouac about 4:30 a.m. Nothing beats a hot shower after a bivouac. Karen and Lyn were down, and together with Steve, we had a great time visiting some country roads no one has used in years.

May 17 — I didn't think Pirtle was meeting this morning so I slept all morning. Post called me up and told me to go to class.

May 18 — My last regular classes until after finals.

May 19 — We had ham for lunch today.

May 20 — I talked to Captain Yingling at lunch and he stated he is retiring after this year. This school will miss "The Ying".

May 21 — I turned in my last column for the paper and that was one thing I had really had fun doing here at WMA.

May 22 — Our last regular week end before we graduate. It's hard to believe that the next week coming up is my last here.

May 23 — Sunday, our last parade before Commencement.

May 24 — I had two finals today and that wraps it up study-wise.

May 25 — Started getting my gear all packed up to get ready to "truck on out" come the 30th.

May 26 — My stereo is shipped home and all the burlap is off the walls. This room is dead.

May 27 — Everybody wants to get out and we're all fired-up about this week end.

May 28 — Thursday, my last Thursday at WMA. My hair is growing out some.

May 29 — Commencement Ball and tomorrow is the end of the line!

May 30 — IT'S HERE! I NEVER THOUGHT I'D MAKE IT! IT'S BEEN A VERY GOOD YEAR.
