

PASS IN REVIEW

VOLUME XII

1984

Editor: Mark P.
Knollmueller

Twenty-six years of dedication, persistence, and professionalism have marked the long and fruitful tenure of one of the most beloved of Wentworth Military Academy's faculty. To many, he is known, simply as "Bear" or "Yogi" - Major Paul Butherus. He has seen countless numbers of cadets, from all walks of life, pass through the white columns of Wentworth Military Academy, and he has touched the lives of each and every person he met, whether it be with his keen sense of humor or his easygoing manner. He worked as the recruiter for Oklahoma and Missouri, he taught drivers education and mechanical drawing, as well as being the head football coach, and the athletic director, which meant coordinating the athletic programs of the junior high, high school, and junior college.

Early in the 1983-84 school year, "Bear" suffered a severe stroke. His illness shook the Wentworth Military Academy society - cadets, faculty, and especially, the football team, who were in the middle of their season. It was as if a block in the foundation of the school had been removed.

He has almost totally recovered now, and although he is no longer able to be here everyday, he attends sporting events when he can. His long, hard struggle to recover, and his persistence and determination have taught us all this lesson:

Persistence and determination, no matter how hard you have to work and no matter what the obstacle, you can do anything you set out to do. You have it in your power to reach out and to say "I CAN DO IT"

"BEAR" is a testament to that.

Throughout his recovery, he has been accompanied by the prayers and thoughts of this school and all of his friends. And it was his friends, former students, and associates of his who came by the hundreds to roast him on 12 May, 1984.

It is to Major Paul Butherus, with his courage, determination, and inspiration, that the 1984 Yearbook staff, the graduating classes of 1984, the 104th Corps of Cadets, and the faculty and friends of Wentworth Military Academy, dedicate this book.

It is the best way of saying:

We love you, BEAR!!!!

TRIBUTE TO YOGI

Once in a while,
We meet someone
Who suits us exactly right,
Someone whose friendly
And outgoing ways
Can make even cloudy days bright,
Someone we feel
Especially lucky to know,
Someone on whom we depend ...
Thank you for being
That "someone" to me —
Thank you for being my friend!

REFLECTIONS
BY T. CONLY ASH

CLASSES

HE USED TO STAND THERE,
I REMEMBER,
WITH A SMIRK ON HIS FACE.
HIS EYES SHROUDED,
THE HATRED BURNING BEHIND THEM.
HAIR HANGING LONG PAST HIS SLUMPED SHOULDERS,
HE STOOD, HEAD DOWN, BENT OVER,
WEARING FADED, DIRTY BLUE JEANS
WITH FRAYED EDGES,
A WORN BLACK T-SHIRT
WITH A HARD ROCK GROUP
PROMINENTLY DISPLAYED ACROSS HIS CHEST.
WHAT HAD BEEN, AT ONE TIME, WHITE TENNIS SHOES
WERE NOW TATTERED AND DIRTY,
SMEARED WITH DUST AND GRASS STAINS.
THERE HE WOULD STAND, THE AIR ABOUT HIM
SEETHING WITH HATE,
HIS HANDS ALWAYS CLENCHED
IN PAIN OR ANGER.
HE RARELY SMILED;
HE SEEMED PREOCCUPIED
EVEN WHEN HE LOOKED AT ME.
HIS EYES NEVER MET MINE;
THEY LOOKED BEYOND ME
AS IF HE WERE SEARCHING FOR SOMETHING.
I COULD NEVER TELL HIS THOUGHTS.
THEY LAY HAZY AND UNSURE,
EVEN WHEN HE WALKED UP
AND STOPPED TO STARE,
SOMETIMES FOR MANY MINUTES.
I REMEMBER WELL
THE FRUSTRATION, THE SADNESS, THE PAIN.
I WISHED I COULD TELL WHAT
HE WAS THINKING
SO I COULD HELP.
BUT HE ACTED
AS IF HE WANTED NOTHING.
THAT'S WHAT HE WANTED —
NOTHING.
AND I WATCHED HIM
TILL ONE DAY HE LEFT.
HE WAS GONE FOR SOME TIME.
WHEN HE CAME BACK,
HE HAD SHORTER HAIR AND STOOD A LITTLE STRAIGHTER.
HE LOOKED ME IN THE EYE ONCE IN A WHILE AND GRINNED FOR A MINUTE, UNSURE OF HIMSELF,
THEN WALKED AWAY.
THE NEXT TIME I SAW HIM,
HE STOOD STRAIGHT AND TALL
AND LOOKED GOOD,
I WATCHED HIM FOR QUITE SOME TIME,
PUZZLED.
THE THIRD TIME I SAW HIM,
I STARED — HARD.
I BELIEVE I EVEN LOOKED TWICE
TO MAKE SURE IT WAS HE.
IT WAS.
THE CLOUDS IN HIS EYES WERE GONE.
HEAD HELD HIGH, HE LOOKED ME IN THE EYE
AND SPOKE.
HIS HANDS DANGLED LOOSELY.
HE WORE FRESH BLUE JEANS,
A PIN STRIPED SHIRT, AND POLISHED LEATHER SHOES.
THE DARK CIRCLES I REMEMBERED
UNDER HIS EYES
WERE GONE.
HIS SMILE WAS SURE,
AND LAUGHTER DANCED IN HIS EYES.
THE AIR AROUND HIM WAS FILLED WITH EXPECTATIONS
OF SUCCESS ... AND FOR LOVE.
I STOOD THERE
A LONG TIME,
LOOKING AT MYSELF
IN THE MIRROR.

In Memoriam

The flag is lowered, the bell tolls, the trumpet sounds, and the crosses bear witness to those heroes who have fallen!

In 1921, a World War I casualty was interred as the first unknown soldier at Arlington National Cemetery. In 1958, the remains of two more unknown soldiers from World War II and the Korean War were honored. In 1973, Congress first approved the burial of a Vietnam War unknown soldier. Three United States Presidents later and all too unfortunately, numerous delays, the Vietnam War unknown soldier was laid to eternal rest on 27 May 1984, beside his brothers from three other wars.

Who he is, we will never know, but what he is and what he stood for, we will never forget. He is the symbol of the thousands of fathers, sons, and brothers who gave their lives in America's longest, most ambivalent war. He stood for and will continue to stand for the honor and valor, the pride and contributions of the American soldiers who gave their lives and who fought for the liberation of other, not so fortunate, not so free people, in that distant land!

On 27 May 1984, President Ronald Reagan presented this nation's highest honor to that soldier — The Congressional Medal of Honor — and placed a wreath at his tomb, saying:

"Thank you dear son, and may God cradle you in His loving arms."

With those few simple, but meaningful words, tears of pride and sorrow showered the white marble of the Arlington Memorial Amphitheater, as well as the livingrooms of millions of American homes. This was a final symbol to honor those who never got the parades and the recognition for their gallant and honorable deeds. The recognition they so rightly deserved!

With this memorial, we honor all those who have served this great country as Veterans — and proud to be Veterans — in the armed services of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. They served to uphold the very principles with which this nation was founded and they did it and did it well! We especially honor the heroes of the Vietnam War and they are HEROES. They are heroes as much as anyone who has served this country and has been willing to die while doing so. Heroes, May God Bless Them, and let us not forget them!!

ORGANIZATIONS

Psi Gamma Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Omega, the national college service fraternity, worked hard all through the year to keep up with the pop machines, but to no avail. We heard comments, cuts, and a good deal of criticism about the machines "ripping me off", or "Why aren't the machines filled up yet?" We did our best and to all those who did help, thank you.

The pop machines aren't the only thing that we take care of. Some of our other responsibilities lie in setting up the Blood Drives, the APO Dance, and the decorations for the Christmas Dance. We donated a check for three infant car seats to Lafayette Regional Health Center and we hosted/sponsored the Scout Dinner.

These are but a few of the many things the fraternity did and these are the members who helped make some of these things happen.

The purpose of the Wentworth Honor Society is to give proper recognition to those cadets who do a better than average job in every phase of life at Wentworth, even though they may truly excel in none. This is the heart of any group or organization and is true here at the Academy. It includes those individuals who quietly go about doing a fine job in all phases of their training, but who sometimes fail to receive the recognition they deserve.

Their members include (Second Semester):

National Honor Society

National Honor Society members are chosen by a faculty committee appointed by the Dean. The object of the Society is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership and to encourage the development of character in all students of a high school. To be eligible for consideration a cadet must have attended Wentworth for at least one semester. He must have a cumulative average grade of B+, be outstanding in scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Members are as follows:

T. Anhalt
M. O'Laughlin
D. Mahrle
W. Sellers
J. Stone

G. Allard
C. George
B. Irons
J. Meyer

Phi Theta Kappa

Phi Theta Kappa is a National Jr. Col. Honor Society recognizing academic excellence. Membership in this society is a mark of highest achievement in scholastic work. It is limited to the top 10% of the Jr. Col. and is based upon cumulative grade point average. The recipient must be of good moral character, and possess recognized qualities of citizenship.

Who's Who in American Jr. Colleges

Each year the faculty and administrators vote for members of the Jr. Col. who have shown dedication and academic achievement at Wentworth. There are seven major areas considered when choosing: academic excellence, military, discipline, athletic, citizenship, service to the school and promise for future usefulness. The following were chosen this year:

T.C. Ash	I.N. Skelton
P.R. Melvin	J.R. Stahlnecker
T.N. Rainbolt	M.C. Thompson
M.R. Scott

Aviation

The aviation program has been in existence at Wentworth, in one form or another, since 1929, when a Pre-Aviation course was offered in the Junior College. Ten years later, a ground school and flight instruction program was set up. An airport was built north of town on 80 acres of river bottom land. Pilots were trained during World War II and pilot training continues today. Enrolled in the program were the following:

C. Barton	J.R. Mills
T. Case	S. Meltzer
F. Ayers	M. Knollmueller
C. Curry	J. Jones
K. Clark	R. Womer
	T. Yates

COMPANIES

Battalion Staff

We have served a proud and accomplished 104th Corps of Cadets, and we, as the Battalion Staff, have served with pride. We did the best job we could, and we endured, as did all of you.

We had our share of laughter, tears, and arguments, and we learned about each other, as well as ourselves. We made mistakes, but the accomplishments we made, as a Corps, make all the difference in the world.

Alpha

Entering a college such as Wentworth, brings thoughts to mind on what, exactly, to expect. What do you expect when you hear the words - Military Academy? It is hard to imagine what it will be like, what to expect, from year to year, because things have a tendency to change rather drastically.

Much discipline is instilled in new boys in teaching them how to be the best. In Alpha Company, we may not have always been the best outside, but on the inside we all strived for the best. And we were the best we could be.

It was not always work and discipline, there were some fun and amusing times. Remember Captain Winsor tripping over the floor chief chair and the aftermath? Coming up for a Garfield doll and the other strange things we did all had their own purpose.

Thinking back on those days, brings to mind many fond memories of friendships and that feeling of "family."

SEE NO EVIL, HEAR NO EVIL, SPEAK NO EVIL.

To Charlie Company:

When this year began, I was faced with what was to be one of the biggest challenges of my life. The challenge of taking a company, that had, for years, been the dumping ground of the battalion for misfits, and making it into one that its members and the school could be proud of, and also, make it the best in the Corps. Many times during the course of the year, I felt as many had, like totally giving up. But, something would not allow me to just give up what we had all worked for. Sure I worried when things were not going right and I still got upset when someone did something wrong, but now is the time to reflect and see what we, as a team, have accomplished.

The beginning was rough. Breaking in the new boys, as well as the old boys, proved to be no small chore. I think it has been harder on the old boys because of the drastic changes they have been put through. I will be the first to admit that mistakes were made and there are many things I would do differently, had I the same chance all over again. But, we were all learning. We lost many members of our company for different reasons, and with each individual loss, some morale was lost, but it quickly sprang back. And for the first time in a great number of years Charlie Company won a Guidon for a semester.

The new semester brought renewed problems. New rats to train and even worse, the post-Christmas blues. Spring break quickly came, though, and it seems everything fell back into place. Now we are in the closing days of school and we must wonder where has the time gone?

Regardless of whether Charlie Company wins the Basore Award or not, I believe I can say, along with the rest of the company staff, this has been the best Charlie Company to walk these grounds. I realize that I did not make many friends among you this year, and that is not to say that I would not have liked to. I hope that we, the company staff, have given you ideals on which you can work, in order to keep Charlie Company right where it is — on top.

So, on behalf of the company staff: 1LT Walt Pershing, 2LT Darcy Engeman, 2LT Ben Bosworth, and 1ST SGT Rob Sanderson; who in my eyes, were the best company staff a commander could ask for, and the NCO's, old boys, and of course, the rats, I give you these words of advice: "No matter what you do in life, no matter where you go, always remember to do your best. Your best is something that nobody — nobody can take away from you."

Fair Well and Good Luck Charlie!

C/CPT Marc C. Thompson

Delta Company

Delta Company, as usual, a layed back company. This year was no different than any other year, but layed back or not, they got the job done and done right, with able leadership. Five Battalion Orderly's to last years one and when the time came to be stract, they were a match for any company. Here are some of the wild things you will all want to remember:

Jern and Godard will not soon forget the wrath of Staff — jogging with the canon, numerous meetings in Staff Hall, all the result of a night manuever to capture CSM Miller's swagger stick. Needless to say, they were unsuccessful in their attempt.

Who will forget Delta's first C.O., Capt. Dan "Pops/Fred McMurray" Hudson?

What about all the pillow fights with Echo Company and the confinement which resulted?

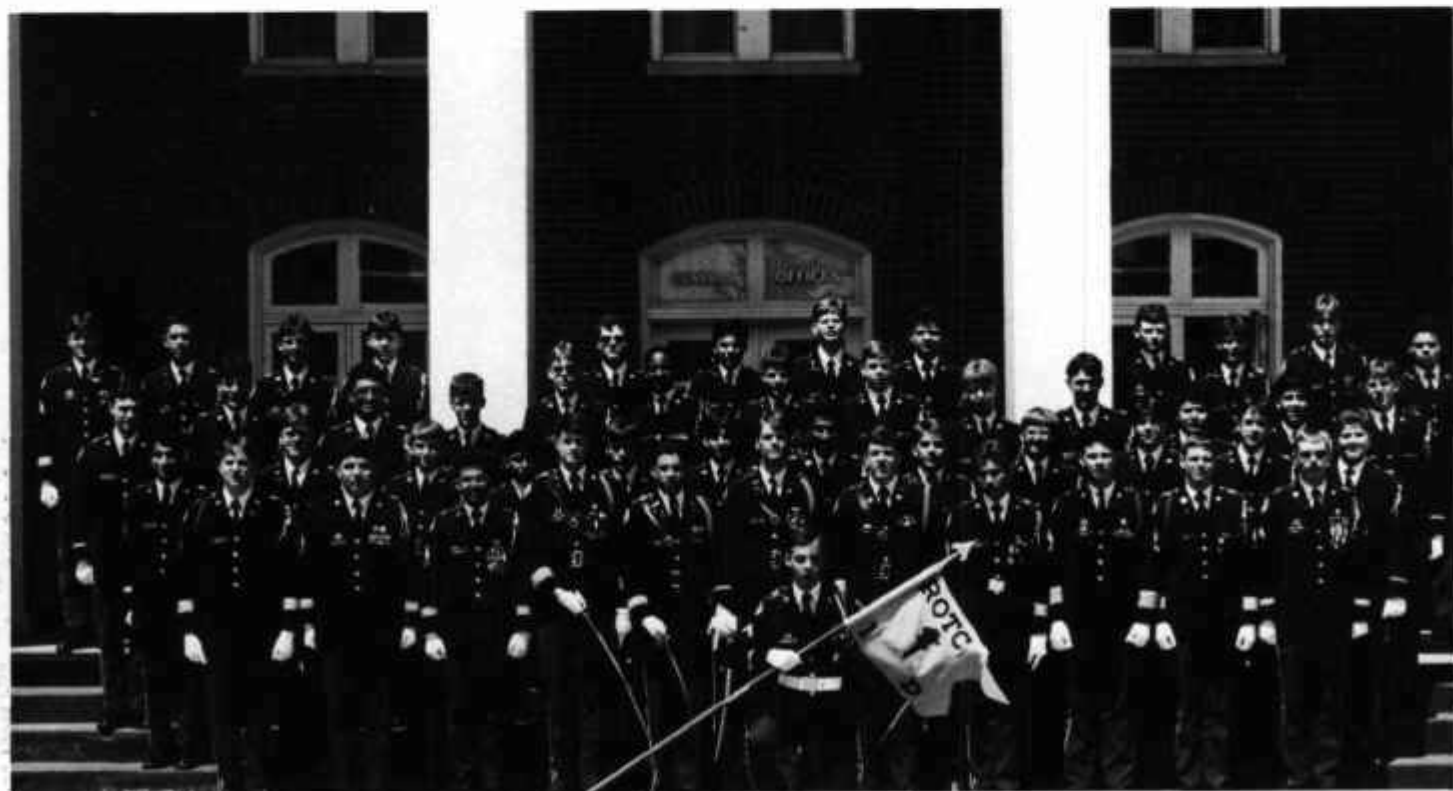

Two "rats" made the grade and were inducted into the Wentworth Honor Society, and then became sergeants. Two others made it into the National Honor Society.

And then there is the "Weasel" or some of Tate and Shields' little adventures — Billy and Bobby's Roadtrip and the dummies in their beds, the burning mouse, and their little snake.

One of the biggest achievements of Delta Company was actually their "Crowning" achievement - Homecoming Queen, Betsy Fleeman.

Keep up that Delta spirit, you all know we were great - FIDO.

Echo

We all remember 1983-1984 for one of the best Echo Company's in a long time and the best company on campus. Through thick and thin, good times and bad, we, the mighty "Mad Dog" Company, did the job and we did it well. May the reputation we have made, as the best company on campus, live forever. Remember all the fun. Remember this, remember that.

One thing we all remember well are the 3rd CQ parties and 4th CQ police details.

How about Captain Melvins idea of a party, or 1LT Mill's shaving cream parties?

We won the Homecoming float contest, and all those first place Sunday parades, as well as our first place in Sports Week.

How many times did we hear those familiar words - "Be at my door at 10:00"?

And the commandants sure got a kick out of our Christmas skit.

We all went through a lot, and to all of you, who helped to make the best company on campus, for a job well done.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!

DRIVE ON ECHO, DRIVE ON. MAD DOG.

Foxtrot

We, the staff of Foxtrot Company 1983-1984, wish to express the happiness that we have shared as a group, and this year was a learning experience for all of us.

We have done our best to allow the young men of this company to learn from us, as well as from themselves and their own mistakes. We, in turn, have learned from them. As we all know, not everything in life is all glitter and gold. You have to work and work hard for what you want. We have all had our ups and downs, and the company shared them in our everyday life here at the academy. We hope that these young men realize what an opportunity they have here at Wentworth Military Academy, and what a vital role they have played in our hearts and lives. I leave you with these parting words as quoted by Benjamin Disraeli:

"There is magic in the memory of a schoolboy friendship; it softens the heart, and even effects the nervous system of those who have no heart."

Sincerely

C/CPT Matt "Spike" Scott and Staff

Headquarters

We in Headquarters have a lot to be proud of this year, and we had a good year. We had our ups and downs, but nevertheless, we did have the "guidon squad" and all the steak dinners that went with them.

We gave "Bear" a surprise dedication at Trinity Rehabilitation Center after our performance at the American Royal Parade. We had all the trips, like the one to St. Louis with Paula, the bus driver. Remember our Snap Drill under the Arch? And all those split pants because of too many Snap Drill performances.

The one thing that none of us remembers is when all the urinals worked. Who can forget Watson's sunglasses and that psychotic computer room with all those alarm systems in it?

Well, so much for this year. We have a lot to remember and a lot to be thankful for. It seems that time just flew by and all too swiftly. But, what else is there to say, for a good year and a great bunch of guys. We all held together and made it through, and that is what counts.

The Honor Guard, this year had an experience not seen for five years. It was not a company of its own. The disunity was felt, in the beginning, but as the year went by, the problem soon dissipated.

The year was filled with practices, duties, and other responsibilities. The times we remember best are the hard times, these times brought the Honor Guard together. Some of our experiences paid off and some didn't, but we always tried to do our best.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Homecoming

Homecoming 1983 honors the classes of 1960-1964. The weekend activities got underway Friday evening with the pep rally and the traditional bonfire, followed by an alumni hospitality hour.

On Saturday afternoon, the 104th Corps of Cadets, led by Cadet LTC John R. Stahlnecker and his staff, paraded through downtown Lexington. The Homecoming Queen, Miss Betsy Fleeman, sponsored by her brother, Cadet Todd Fleeman of Delta Company, was chauffeured in the parade by alumnus, Mr. Robert Patek, in his cream colored Excalibur.

The princesses, Miss Stephanie Abraham, sponsored by Cadet Maj. T. Conly Ash, Battalion Executive Officer, was chauffeured by Cadet Ben Willens in a Mustang convertible. Miss Jacque Harms, sponsored by her brother, Cadet Patrick Harms of Headquarters Company, was chauffeured by Cadet 1LT Mark Knollmueller in a Cadillac Eldorado.

The Queen and her attendants were presented to the audience prior to the start of the football game and again at the Homecoming Dance.

The Dress Parade on Sunday was reviewed by the Queen, her Princesses, Mr. Ron Armstrong, representing the honored alumni and Retired Major General Ralph H. Spanjer, Superintendent of Marine Military Academy, Arlington, Texas.

MacArthur Awards

The MacArthur Memorial Foundation Awards, offered annually to junior and senior ROTC students to mark the birthday of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, were presented to two Wentworth Cadets by Col. J.M. Sellers, Jr., on Sunday, 29 January 1984.

The MacArthur Award consists of a red medallion to be worn on the uniform, featuring a large M and the five stars of MacArthur's rank. Included with the award is a large medal struck by the foundation to memorialize Douglas MacArthur, and finally, a U.S. Savings Bond.

Criteria for receiving the award include performance in academics, athletics and leadership. "Most improved" and "most soldierly" are two terms used to describe performance sought in the winners.

Receiving the award in the senior ROTC program is Cadet 2LT Troy R. Yates from Parkville, Missouri. Cadet 2LT John A. Searcey of Lincoln, Nebraska, received the award in the junior ROTC program.

Congratulations to both of you.

Parents Weekend

Despite the dismal weather conditions, some 450 parents, family members, and guests registered for the Annual Parents' Weekend - Oct. 21-23, 1983. The weekend activities included a banquet, the traditional football game, Scholastic visitation, Dads' Drill, the Sunday Parade, and a reception in the Student Union. The best drilled dad, Mr. Frank Howard, his son, Cadet Brooks Howard, the Battalion Orderly, Cadet Thad Kirkendoll, and the Battalion Commander, Cadet LTC J.R. Stahlnecker reviewed the Sunday Parade.

Col. Sellers, Sr. gives parents and cadets alike, a few words of advice on the night of the banquet, and this poem seems fitting and echoes his words.

"YOUR NAME"

You got it from your father,
'twas the best he had to give.
And right gladly he bestowed it.
It's yours, the while you live.
You may lose the watch he gave you
and another you may claim,
But remember, when you're tempted,
to be careful of his name.
It was fair the day you got it,
and a worthy name to bear,
When he took it from his father,
there was no dishonor there.
Through the years he proudly wore it,
to his father he was true,
And that name was clean and spotless
when he passed it on to you.
Oh, there's much that he has given that he values not at all.
He has watched you break your playthings in the days when you were small.
You have lost the knife he gave you
and you've scattered many a game,
But you'll never hurt your father
if you're careful with his name.
It is yours to wear forever,
yours the while you live,
Yours, perhaps, some distant morning,
another boy to give.
And you'll smile as did your father —
with a smile that all can share,
If a clean name and a good name
you are giving him to wear.

Faculty Romance

A hush fell over the 104th Corps of Cadets as Col. James M. Sellers, Sr. approached the microphone in the dining hall for what everyone thought would be one of his amusing stories. There was surprise and confusion when he told us that we would no longer hear familiar announcements such as: "Report to Mrs. Shockley for travel arrangements." Instead, he said, you will now "Report to Mrs. Fitts." With that last remark, came a standing ovation from a very enthusiastic Corps of Cadets. How's that for a faculty romance? Congratulations and Continued Happiness!

Wentworth had many visitors and special guests this year. Here are just a few.

Dr. Lawrence Korb, Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower, Installations, and Logistics) addressed cadets during an assembly with a question and answer session following.

Lt. Cmdr. R.W. Hamilton of the United States Navy, was the guest of honor at the Sunday Parade on 11 December, 1983. He had been a member of the military force supporting the U. S. Marines and Army airborne troops who liberated Grenada. He is also an alumnus.

Larry Gura and Dennis Leonard, two Kansas City Royals, spoke to cadets at one of our assemblies.

A.F.I., the Air Force Dogs, old boys returning to honor "Bear", and the dedication of the Reinhart Computer Center are just a few of the many events or special visitors who have come to Wentworth this year.

Military Ball 1984

The theme of the 48th Annual Military Ball was the Olympics. The most perplexing problem was how to decorate, but as anyone who was there can attest to, the decorations were the best in years. The Jimmy Tucker Band and a D.J. provided the music for listening and dancing pleasure.

Cadet Memories

This year has come to its end. As we all look back, it was a good year, filled with the good times, as well as the bad times. It is hoped that we all remember all the good times, lasting friendships, and events that helped shape our lives during 1983-1984.

We look back on Monday mornings and laundry formations, the everyday routines, the always familiar faces, and we remember. We remember the haircuts and daily inspections, shining our shoes and polishing our brass. "Hump Day" was always the turning point of our week, and Fridays usually meant Kansas City or Cotney College for the college cadets.

When we think of life here, we think about all the midnight runs to Casey's or Henrietta, the pizza parties, and the late nights and those who never slept. Everyone looked forward to the Christmas and Spring Breaks, and some looked forward to those extended furloughs which were usually the result of a "big snowstorm." We all know how hard it was to get up at 6:00 in the morning, but some knew better than the rest of us. As we look back further, we recall the sports events and of course, "mandatory fun", and the massive cleaning effort, setting the stage for the Annual Federal Inspection.

The hour is at hand and we've had our last parade. With tears in our eyes, we kiss "Old Glory" and stand among each other for the last time as a family. The memories are yours. Cherish them and keep in touch with old friends.

The night approaches, and as the sun sets, we look back through the haze and fog, we look back, and some glimpse of the past catches our eye. We think back on how it was and we are proud.
