Hey Lorfing, exactly what are you posing for again?

Thank goodness it was Halloween!!!

Seniors Joel Fowler, Josh Ostrand, and Ammar Al-Mamari at the final parade.

"I was scared the first day I walked onto Wentworth's campus, but now I find myself terrified to leave. Wentworth has become my home away from home. It is part of me and I know it is part of you. One day we seniors are going 'to realize how big that part is and we will miss this place. We have gone through a lot. Some we found useless, but we did it together and that is all that matters. I want to see "normal" kids do what we do and walk out with smiles on their faces. We are the Class of 2009 and there is never going to be a class like ours."

—Josh Ostrand
Class President

Ammar Al-Mamari and Darryl Dunham at the JROTC Academic Competition.

"To the Cadets of the 129th Corps of Cadets:

First, I would like to congratulate you for making it through one of the most trying and tiring years of your early adulthood; it will truly be one of the most influential in my own. Secondly, I want to congratulate you on your successes and your failures. You may be asking yourself why I am congratulating you on your failures unlike any normal person would not. Let me ask you this, "Did you or did you not fail, and from there, did you or did you not learn anything from it?" The answer to this, you must have concluded, is YES! You have had many successes, day in and day out, all year long. Winning or being successful is great and it speaks volumes of what the 129th Corps of Cadets is composed of, but it is truly the losses and the failures that drive us to run that extra mile after the Mount Bowden run, to study our books and notes into the night past Taps, to shine our shoes even though we know they'll get completely destroyed in waiter duty, to make it onto honor roll for the first time, to do the harder and more difficult right than the easier and more tempting wrong, to get the "best room" award for the first time, and ultimately become the best young men and women ready and willing to become productive citizens for our country. Wentworth has provided us with outstanding staff and faculty and the means for success. You may not see it or realize now, but one day you will remember one of Coach's sayings, the countless times you marched tours, how many laps carrying a tire I had you do, how to report in for a board; and unconsciously you use the professionalism and lessons learned to make that extra buck, to complete the mission, or to teach someone else a valuable lesson. You can and you will, one day, make the difference.
129th Corps of Cadets, you are ready."

Sincerely,
Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Zachary Quirt Bailey

"H2:

This past year has been a huge gaggle. We've dealt with it all: MRSA guys being thrown on our floor, changes in the chain of command, suicide watches, and getting a new guy every week. I'll never forget seeing Brunetti making a catapult by crossing his shirt stays across his beds, armed with a giant wax ball, waiting for First Sergeant Stavrou to walk by his door...good times. Some of you referred to the company as 'the trash-can of the corps'. But with all the hiccups, we stayed motivated enough to keep going even when it seemed impossible. You have all helped me prepare for my future, and I hope that I have helped impact yours. Just remember, never give up, no matter what. The harder it is now, the easier it will be in the future. Thanks for an exciting year, Headquarters Company."

"Ladies,

What a semester! The beginning of the semester proved challenging as both college and high school had to reunite after experiencing Fall 2008's semester with separate high school and college co-ed companies. It was a bit of a struggle for the girls at first, but we eventually came together as we learned how to operate as one and established a solid cadre. Reflecting back as CO, it has been an exceptional command. As a company we had our share of yelling in the halls, room inspections, shining parties, and plenty of training. But as a group we performed very well; earning the discipline and academic guidon streamers numerous times throughout the semester. Tango Company is similar to having 30 other sisters; difficult to live with at times, a pleasure to watch as they grow and develop, and elated to view the success of their future achievements. Thank you all. I would especially like to thank my cadre for their efforts and dedication. Cadet Collier, you are truly a leader from the front. God bless you all and my best wishes for your future endeavors."

"Zulu Company,

When I initially took command of Zulu Company, I intended to make you better cadets, prepared to meet the challenges of the world that awaits you. Somewhere along the way, you taught me something about me and strengthened me as a person. You taught me as many lessons as I could ever attempt to teach you and we all emerged better because of it. Thank you for your cooperation with the cadre and each other. I hope that in some small way I impacted each of you as much as each of you impacted me. I wish you the best of luck in your lives ahead. I hope that each of you find happiness with your career, your family, and most importantly, yourselves."

Wentworth Dragon Baseball team had a very successful year. Although they did not always win, the team became more than just a baseball team. Through difficult times when it seemed so easy to just quit, the Dragons did just the opposite. They never surrenderd and never backed down from a fight. That is what defines them as Wentworth Dragons.

Will Cushing signs a letter of intent to play baseball at Central Methodist University. Pictured are CMU Head Coach Fred Smith, Carole Cushing, Bob Cushing, and WMA Athletic Director Randy Florence

"To sum up the season in one word, I would have to say "WOW!" As a coach I wasn't able to teach the fundamentals of tennis. I stepped into this position with little experience (other than the Wii). However, I think I gave them the desire to give it all you got, confidence, and the need for teamwork to be successful."

WMA Golf
Moving FOREward

"The 2009 Golf Team was made up of mostly younger golfers or those new to the sport. The golfers did not let inexperience get in the way of their successes. All of the golfers focused on practice and technique and it showed by the end of the season with most of them improving their scores.

At the beginning of the season, we had no golfers close to shooting a qualifying score for the state tournament, but when the district tournament was held we had one golfer qualify for the State Tournament.

Juan Pablo Gomez played in the two day tournament and improved upon his personal best score with a second day round of 95. He finished tied for 87th out of the tournament field of 130."

Back: Coach Chris Brooks, Nick Mitchell, Ricky Massana, Josh Ostrand, Miller Yost, Phillip Mark, Steven Sottile, Matthew Ashmore, Assistant Coach Dan Grosso

"The Red Dragons were exceptional at the State Track Meet. The relay team of Ryan Parr, Calvin Freese, Anthony Grosso, and Phillip Mark finished 2nd in the 4x200 relay, and 5th in the 4x400 relay. In each race we bettered our previous best time ever. It was very exciting and the boys displayed tremendous poise and courage throughout the meet.

I believe Calvin Freese may have set an all-time WMA record of being a 3 time State Champion. I believe the 4x200 relay team may have set an all time WMA record for finishing 2nd in an event at State. In 1940, WMA track team finished 2nd at State with 17 points. We finished 18th with 12 points. This is the second highest points a Wentworth team has scored since 1940. Wow, what a way to end the year!"

–Assistant Coach Dan Grosso

Graduation

The Class of 2009

"You have brains in your head, you have feet in your shoes
You can steer yourself in any direction you choose
You're on your own, and you know what you know
You are the guy who'll decide where to go."
----Dr. Seuss

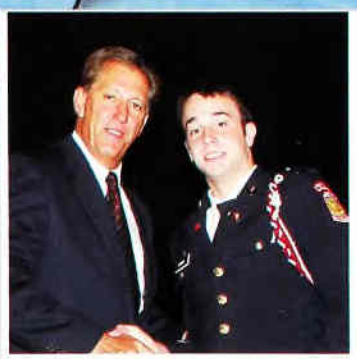

Graduation marked the end of another great school year. Twenty nine cadets graduated from the high school. The college had 43 students graduate, 25 of them cadets. Congratulations to Will Cushing and Joel Fowler for receiving their high school diploma and associate's degree at the same time. Sixteen college graduates were commissioned as Second Lieutenants in the US Army. Good Luck Graduates!!!

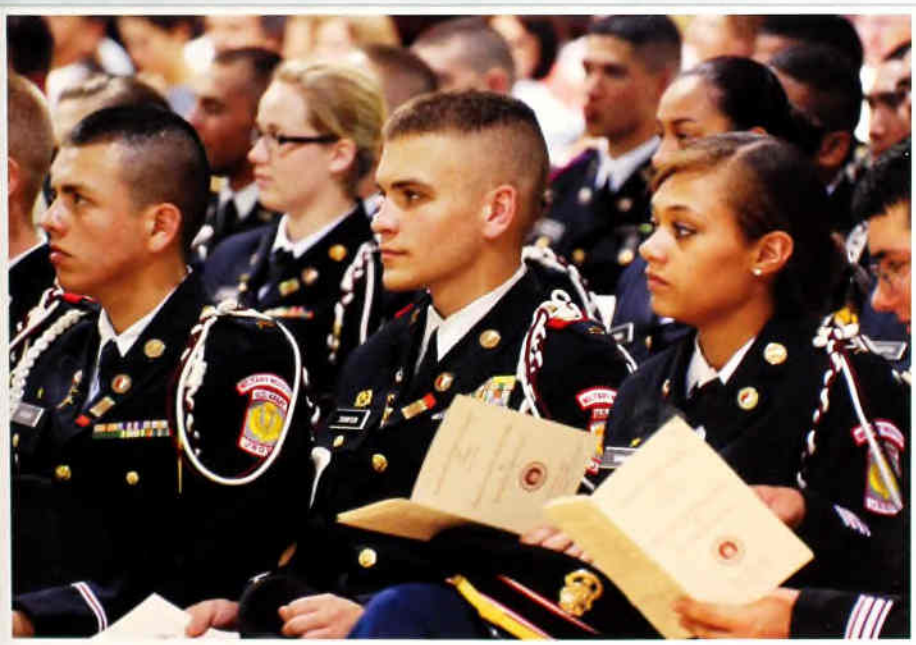

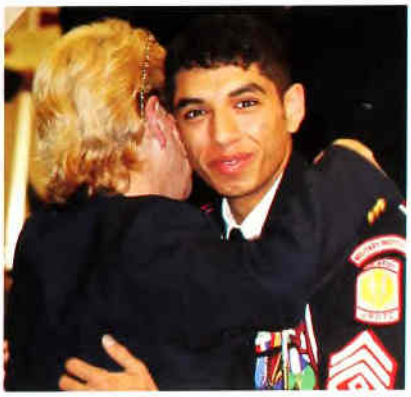

We ARE the Graduates!

Finally made it!
